ITALIANS FEAR FRANCE'S HAND IN PAPAL VOTE

See Move to Halt Reconciliation.

BY LARRY RUE.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

ROME, Jan. 26.—The body of Pope Benedict XV. was entombed today but the masses, which form part of the funeral services, will continue until Feb. 1. The conclave for the election of his successor will open on Feb. 2. This day also has been chosen for the reopening of the Italian parliament, which, it is said, will devote its first day to services in honor of the dead pope, another departure from the traditional division of the church and state.

As the opening day of the conclave approaches, the foreign nationalistic influences working on the Vatican to elect a pope sympathetic to their interests are more and more discernible.

The members of the Italian parliament, the majority of whom favor a rapprochement with the Vatican, are stirred by the activities of France.

Eyes on Rhineland.

An influential member of the parliament today admitted to a TRIBUNE correspondent that it was common talk among the deputies that France is working to defeat the Benedict group, hoping to elect a pope sympathetic to French policies in the orient.

France also is accused of trying to swing through the papacy the establishment of a Rhineland republic, where the people are largely Catholic, with a view of annexing this German territory to France. On the other hand, France, as the sponsor of Catholic interests in the orient, it is said, must oppose the reconciliation of the Vatican and Italy, which, if it is effected, gives the latter grounds to demand the right of sponsorship, with the attendant national advantages.

Americans in Race.

Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state under Pius X., and leader of the anti-rapprochement group, if elected pope will refuse to meddle in Italian politics, it was stated. For this reason he is said to be more acceptable to France because there will be no danger of his supporting the Italian national interests against those of Paris.

The American cardinals—O'Connell and Dougherty—are the only ones outside of Italy who are considered with any favor by the Italian Nationalists. O'Connell is looked upon with some favor because he is wealthy and is free from the political intrigues of Europe.

The Catholic press emphatically denies that politics, which is overshadowing all other news in the local press, has penetrated into the Vatican or in any way affects the election of the new pontiff.

Pope Is Buried.

With solemn and impressive services, in the presence of Catholic church dignitaries, the remains of the pope were placed in the three coffins and entombed in St. Peter's crypt this afternoon.

Only a few score, members of the pope's family, cardinals, and Vatican officials, and the papal nobility participated in these last rites.

Hundreds who had been invited before the sacred college ruled yesterday that newspaper men and the public would be barred were turned away at the door, which was closed at 2 o'clock.

The small group which had gathered at the catafalque precisely at 3 o'clock to form a procession for escorting the body while it was being carried to the choir chapel across the great nave must have seemed additionally slender in the immense interior of the cathedral, the capacity of which is estimated at more than 50,000.

Sun Suddenly Bursts Forth.

Outside there was a heavy downpour of rain. The elliptical piazza was deserted, except for a small group of chauffeurs and onlookers, among which were one or two beggars. The massive iron doors, locked and impenetrable, made it appear that the historical church was utterly deserted.

At 4 o'clock, the appointed time for the lowering of the coffin into the crypt, the sun suddenly broke through the heavy clouds, shining for five minutes. A rainbow appeared, its dazzling colors rising from the vicinity of the Coliseum, the ancient scene of Christian martyrdom, and disappearing behind Mount Marius. A small group of bystanders dashed from under the protecting colonnade into the piazza, pointed through the rain and shouted: "Guarda," the Italian for "look." Some one commented:

"It is a sign that Pope Benedict's work for peace will live."

W. M. LE MOYNE, FAR FROM HOME AND WIFE, SNEAKS AN AIR TRIP

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 26.—William M. Le Moyne, 72, Chicago business man, reached San Francisco late today by airplane from Long Beach, Cal. In a second plane were a secretary and several hundred pounds of baggage. Le Moyne, who came to California to attend a convention, said he determined to have a trip in an airplane "while the wife wasn't around to object."

GERMANY OFFERS $200,000,000 LOAN FOR PARIS FAVOR

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

BERLIN, Jan. 26.—Chancellor Wirth delivered his long awaited speech tonight, but its effect on the reichstag audience was far from exhilarating. A compromise regarding the taxation program, which was essential to the contiuance of the Wirth cabinet, was effected at the last moment on the basis of a 1,000,000,000 gold marks ($200,000,000) forced loan, not subject to taxation for the first three years. This solution was accepted by all parties except the Independent Socialists and the German Nationalists. The loan will mean tripling property taxes.

Dr. Wirth mildly attacked the Poincare cabinet, but he avoided out and out terms of abuse, obviously still hoping for French support for his policy. His speech generally was devoted to a desperate attempt to please all parties uniting to support his cabinet, but it was a hard task.

INDEPENDENCE OF MODERN WOMAN FOE OF BABIES

The modern woman is averse to rearing her own babies because of the attendant suffering and worry, but she is anxious later in life to adopt a child. This was the assertion made yesterday by C. C. Carstens, director of the Child Welfare League of America.

"Small apartments and the high cost of living are partly responsible for the increasingly low birth rate among certain classes," he said, "but a greater cause is womans' independence."

He's Most Patient Suicide on Record, but Forgetful

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 26.—[United News.]—Alfred Langdon is the most patient would-be suicide on record, police declare. Langdon turned on the gas in his room last Saturday night. He forgot, however, to close the windows. He waited for five days for the gas to kill him, and nearly starved as he waited. His landlord found him and demanded pay for the gas.

COUNTY ACCEPTS LEPER FOR CURE

U. S. and State Have No Place for Him.

Ten years ago this account of a leper in an advanced stage of the disease arriving in Chicago would have made a good story. An invasion by the James boys or the Daltons would not have occasioned more excitement. Today it makes a better story. It demonstrates the march of science and its triumph over superstition and sentimentalism.

The leper is Carl Oscar Peterson, 1402 Woodruff avenue, Rockford; 39 years old; single; a cement contractor. He came to America from Sweden when he was 17. For the last five years, until Dec. 29, he had been treating himself with patent medicines for what he believed was a blood ailment. On that date he visited Dr. A. W. Christiansen of Rockford.

U. S. Offers No Help.

"You have leprosy," the doctor told him, and notified Dr. M. O. Gundersen, Rockford city health officer and Dr. C. H. Boswell, Winnebago county physician. They concurred. Peterson was removed to the isolation hospital.

As Rockford has no provision for lepers, the authorities notified the United States health department at Washington. It telegraphed them that it could do nothing, as the three colonies in America—Louisiana, Massachusetts, and California—were full. They then notified Dr. Isaac Rawlings, Illinois state health officer, who communicated with the Cook county hospital. It agreed to receive Peterson.

"There is nothing remarkable about it," said Dr. Roger T. Vaughan, superintendent of the hospital, last night. "In the fifteen years that I have been associated with the hospital it has never refused to receive a leper. The average layman today is a victim of superstition concerning leprosy.

Blames Biblical Reference.

"The biblical reference, in the twelfth chapter of Numbers, has probably had much to do with forming the popular conception and fear of leprosy. You recall, it reads: 'And behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow; and Aarón looked upon Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.'

"Lepers are never 'white as snow.' The complexion is not affected by the disease. Miriam probably was afflicted with psoriasis, a harmless skin ailment."

Peterson is in ward 44. He is now the only leper at the hospital. About a year ago there were four there, Dr. Vaughan said, and a "leper" room was established. This was discontinued when the patients were discharged as cured.

DRYS ASK AMERICA TO REBUKE SPAIN FOR ICELAND'S SAKE

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The Anti-Saloon league is endeavoring to cause the United States government to launch forth as an international reformer, with Spain as the first object of attack. All because the Spanish government is to boycot Iceland fish because Iceland has adopted prohibition and embargoed Spanish wines.

The league has adopted a resolution deploring the action of Spain and requesting the state department "to bring this situation to the attention of the representatives of the Spanish government, asking them to take such steps in the premises as the cordial relations at present existing between our two governments would naturally suggest."

The league suggests that if Iceland will can the fish, Americans "who believe in a square deal" will buy all of it that Spain refuses.

LONDON BOROUGH PAYS IDLE MORE THAN WORKERS

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 26.—Following demonstrations for an increase in the unemployment doles the Poplar borough board of guardians adopted a new weekly scale of 40 shillings (roughly $8), 6 shillings ($1.20) for each child up to the age of 16, rent up to 15 shillings ($3) weekly, and a weekly allowance of 100 pounds of coal free.

This amounts to 14 14 shillings ($18.80) for the average unemployed London family of a man, wife, and six children. This is more than the average English workman made when employed.

Following the announcement of the Poplar increase a large body of unemployed gathered at Blackfriars' bridge tonight and marched to the office of the board of guardians on Ufford street, demanding a similar increase. The guardians refused to see the unemployed, whereupon the later paraded for three hours, engaging in minor disturbances and riots. The police finally dispersed the crowd, arresting nine.

Plane Caught on Cliff, Airman Climbs to Safety

Salt Lake City, Utah, Jan. 26.—His plane perched on a shelf of a cliff 1,800 feet above a ravine near Rock Springs, Wyo., R. E. Ellis, air mail pilot, escaped death yesterday by climbing 200 feet to the top of the cliff. The plane had entered a "down draft current," was sucked into a canyon, and "pasted" on the cliff ledge. The mail was rolled down the canyon, where it was placed on another ship.

GRANDCHILD OF G. B. ROBBINS IS OBJECT OF RACE

Divorcee, Escort of Baby, Jailed.

Starting from the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco last night, Cutler H. Robbins, former treasurer of the Frank G. Shuman company, and a son of George B. Robbins, for thirty-five years vice president of Armour & Co., set out on a race against time and two Chicago detectives bearing a warrant for kidnaping. The goal of the race is Ogden, Utah, and the prize, George B. Robbins III., 3½ years old, grandson of the former Armour official.

His opponents are Detective Sergeants Birmingham and McGinnis, who left Chicago yesterday bearing a warrant for the arrest of Miss Frances MacLane, a pretty, titian haired divorcée, who resides with her mother at 1132 Morse avenue. Miss MacLane and Baby Robbins were removed from a Union Pacific train at Ogden early yesterday morning and spent last night in jail in that city.

Mother Obtains Warrant.

The warrant was obtained by the child's mother, Mrs. Mary Robbins of 4656 North Winchester avenue, who was a member of the Follies chorus when she met and married the wealthy packing official's son.

"Cutler and I were divorced on Dec. 23, 1920," she said. "He got the divorce. He charged me with cruelty—with boxing his ears and slapping his face. The court awarded him custody of the child, but it was stipulated that I was to be allowed to visit and be with him at stated times each week.

"Cutler left for San Francisco on Monday morning to join his father, who has been out on the coast for some time. On Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock I went up to the Stanley hotel, at 6800 Sheridan road, to see Georgie. I was told that he had been taken away. I rushed down to my attorney, Morris G. Leonard, and he started an investigation.

Nurse Tells of Departure.

"About 4 o'clock that afternoon Miss Jennie Stengrin, the child's nurse, called me up on the phone and told me that Miss MacLane had called for the child that morning, saying she had been instructed by Mr. Robbins to bring the boy to him in San Francisco.

"I was crazy with grief. Mr. Leonard found Miss MacLane had left on a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train. She is my former husband's fiancée. They intend to be married and take my child away with them, possibly on a trip across the Pacific. So I obtained a warrant charging her with kidnaping."

Girl Easily Identified.

Because of Miss MacLane's beauty and her titian hair, she was easily recognized by the Odgen police from a telegraphed description. She and the boy were found cuddled in blankets on a sleeper when they were taken from the train at 6:40 o'clock yesterday morning.

Miss MacLane refused to talk, but asked permission of Chief of Police Jonathan Jones to talk over the long distance phone to the father of the child at the St. Francis hotel. The father argued with the chief over the phone, protesting that Miss MacLane was innocent of the charge, but the chief was adamant. He wired the detective bureau here of the arrest and had Miss MacLane removed to the jail.

Mother Denies Engagement.

Miss MacLane's mother denied last night that her daughter is engaged to Robbins although they have been friends for some time.

"My daughter made a foolish marriage six years ago when she was only 16," she said, "and I had the marriage annulled. She was merely acting under orders from Mr. Robbins in taking the child to the coast."

George B. Robbins was granted a divorce here on Jan. 12 by Judge McDonald. His wife, Mrs. Lillian E. Robbins, charged desertion. At the time of their separation, in October, 1920, rumors mentioned Mrs. Grace Jones, wife of Harold R. Jones of Chicago. Mrs. Jones is now stopping at the Fairmont hotel in San Francisco while the elder Robbins resides across the street at the University club. Mrs. Jones denied any connection with the Robbins divorce proceedings and also that she contemplated a trip to Egypt. The elder Robbins resigned from Armour & Co. at the time he and his wife separated.

Fights Holdup Men; Saves Jolson Theater's $35,000

New York, Jan. 26.—A plucky fight by Arthur Schaeffer, custodian of Shubert theater receipts, tonight routed four bandits who held him up in front of the Jolson theater on the south side of Central park and then fled, leaving $35,000 in the possession of their intended victim.

G. O. P. Places O. K. on Bonus to Rush Bill

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—House Republicans in a caucus tonight instructed the ways and means committee to hurry a soldiers' bonus bill to the floor. A resolution to this effect, introduced by Representative Reece of Tennessee and adopted by the caucus, also carried a recommendation that when the bonus bill comes before the house in regular order it continue the unfinished business without being displaced by any other legislation.

The caucus was asked for several days ago by the Republican ex-service men in the house, who said at the time they were "exasperated" by the delay in arranging for compensation for the war veterans. It was not necessary, however, for the ex-service group to have to insist on their stand tonight, for as soon as Representative Reece, a former infantry major, introduced the resolution, Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee said that body would begin hearings on a bonus bill on Tuseday, and hoped to complete the bill in about two weeks.

No Decision on Getting Money.

The bill, said Mr. Fordney, would have to carry some provision for realizing the money for a bonus, but he gave no intimation of what this would be and the caucus did not indicate its preference on the matter. It was said late tonight by ways and means committee members that they did not know yet what means of obtaining the money would be suggested, but the general idea in the house appears to be swinging toward a sales tax of some kind.

Various members of the caucus talked tonight on the plans that have been suggested, including a sales tax, use of the foreign bonds, and a gasoline tax, but the sentiment of the caucus was not recorded for any one scheme.

Several speakers said they believed some plan should be devised whereby the majority of the veterans would not ask for cash settlements, but would accept long time insurance or land benefits.

Suggests Part for Insurance.

Representative Fish of New York, of the ex-service group, advocated slicing 20 per cent off the cash settlements and applying this to insurance, when the bill is framed. There was some mention of Secretary Mellon's letter of last night stating that the country is not now in position to stand the financial burden of a bonus, but this did not seem to deter the caucus from saying there would be a bonus just the same. Representative Fordney announced that President Harding favors adjusted compensation.

Takes Issue with Mellon.

Senator McCumber of North Dakota, the new chairman of the senate finance committee, takes issue with Secretary Mellon's contention that neither interest nor principal of foreign loans should be made use of in connection with the bonus.

"It has been my belief that it would be necessary to provide some special taxes for a period of possibly a year in order to begin payments under an adjusted compensation law by July 1," Senator McCumber said. "I have not wanted, however, to continue such taxes in effect any longer than necessary.

"I differ with Secretary Mellon on the use of the foreign loans. I believe it will be desirable to use such interest as comes in from that source, or to sell some of the foreign bonds."

Too Bad! Detroit Doesn't Like Chicago Aldermen

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—After President Lodge of the Detroit city council had read a message declaring that he has "no respect either for the common council of Chicago or the present administration of that city" the local council today voted to postpone indefinitely action on the request of Chicago aldermen that the Detroit body join in a petition to congress for light wines and beer.

JUDGES IN FIGHT TO STOP SALES OF DEADLY GUN

Traffic at Bottom of Crime Wave.

Widespread outlawry continued to prevail in Chicago yesterday, the day being climaxed by two shooting affairs last night. In one of these a South park policeman, who is expected to die, was the victim. In another a druggist was wounded. A girl "L" ticket seller was the target of a fusillade, but escaped injury. Crimes of almost every variety were as numerous as usual.

Twenty judges of the Superior court, aroused to action by an editorial protest against illicit gun traffic appearing in THE TRIBUNE yesterday, began a campaign last night toward securing abolition of the sale of small arms to any save constituted authorities.

The jurists, in a resolution, declared their intention of calling conferences between officers of the Bar association, the Chicago crime commission, public officials, and others, not only to support a pending federal bill prohibiting gun sales, but also to secure enactment of similar state legislation.

Back to the First Cause.

"After a number of years of serious study," the resolution says, "the judges of the Superior court of Cook county are of the opinion that the great cause of crimes of violence, such as murders, bank robberies, burglaries, holdups, and the like is the promiscuous carrying of such concealed weapons as pistols and revolvers; that the only feasible way that any permanent relief from such conditions can be had is by prohibiting the manufacture and sale of pistols and revolvers, except as may be necessary for the proper public officials, and that this result may be obtained by state and national legislation."

Further, the judges say:

"It is hereby resolved by the judges of the Superior court that a committee of three judges of this court be appointed to confer with the proper officials for the purpose of having enacted such legislation as will bring about the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of pistols, revolvers, and other concealable weapons."

Favor Shields Bill.

The resolution speaks in favor of a bill now pending in the United States senate, sponsored by Senator Shields of Tennessee, "to suppress the sale of pistols, revolvers, and other firearms of like form, size and description, commonly used in the commission of felonious homicides and assaults, and to provide punishment for violation of the provisions of the same." The penalties prescribed in this bill are fines of from $100 to $500 and imprisonment of from thirty days to six months.

The passage of the Shields bill was also warmly urged in a report of a committee of the Chicago crime commission, headed by Everett C. Brown, president of the Chicago Live Stock exchange, yesterday.

"Imperative need of legislation which will effectively curb the indiscriminate manufacture and sale of small firearms is recognized by peace officers in all large communities," Mr. Brown declared.

Only Way to Clean Up.

Justice John M. O'Connor of the Illinois Appellate court was another advocate of abolition of arms selling.

"The only way we can relieve the crowded condition of the courts' dockets, jails, and penitentiaries is by abolition of pistols and revolvers," he averred. "I want to commend you for that splendid editorial."

Examination of the records of the Chicago crime commission yesterday showed astonishing figures. There were 246 killings in 1921 in which guns were used. There were 2,588 robberies and 4,774 burglaries.

In the Criminal courts 1,293 individuals appeared on charges of robbery with a gun during the year. Nine hundred and fifty-three of these gunmen—73.71 per cent—were discharged.

Of the 1,293 defendants—all involving the use of a gun—only 151 were sent to Joliet. Pontiac received 131; 51 were sent to the House of Correction; 7 went to the county jail, and 1 sent to the Chester Asylum for the Criminal Insane.

Easy to Buy Guns.

A TRIBUNE reporter yesterday discovered that there were more than a dozen mail order houses from which Chicago criminals can receive guns C. O. D. merely by writing or telegraphing an order. The greater part of these places of sale are in other states, yet Illinois has a law prohibiting the sale of firearms to any person not carrying a permit.

Chief of Police Fitzmorris at the outset of his regime announced that his office would thereafter issue no permits for carrying guns to any save members of his department.

Yesterday Municipal Judge John A.

* **

Bugee in the Maxwell street court discharged Gustave Pappas, 2819 Warren avenue, booked for violation of the Sadler act by police when they found a revolver in his possession. Judge Bugee held that a license signed by a justice of the peace entitled one to carry a gun. Pappas had such a permit.

TWO SHOT; 1 MAY DIE.

Two shootings last night followed the attempts of intended victims to resist holdup men.

HARRY J. BUSSE.

Harry J. Busse, a south park policeman and a veteran of the world war wounded in France, was shot through the right eye by one of two men who accosted him at Garfield boulevard and Federal street.

The other victim, Herman Breves, was shot by a youthful robber who attempted to hold him up in his drug store at 3501 5th avenue, (formerly Colorado avenue.)

In both instances the assailants escaped.

Busse was shot as he was on his way to the home of Miss Nellie McKee, 130 East Garfield boulevard, a divorcée and his fiancée, whom he was going to take to the theater. He was wearing civilian clothes and carried $60 in cash and a check for $120. He was walking east in Garfield boulevard at the time and a half a block ahead of him were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Shoger of 5338 South Wells street.

Death Matter of Hours.

Busse was unconscious when help reached him and at the German Deaconess hospital physicians said his death is a matter of hours. He had not regained consciousness at midnight.

Busse is a bachelor, 30 years old, and resides at 5410 Princeton avenue with his mother, sister, and brother, William Busse, owner of several saloons. He had been on the south park force for four years.

Because of the close proximity of other pedestrians at the time of the shooting the police at first scouted the robbery theory and looked for revenge as a motive. They learned Busse had been named as corespondent in a divorce action last summer, but were unable to obtain the names of the persons involved.

The flivver squad of the New City station had rounded up between thirty and forty suspects by midnight. Lieut. William Golden and several policemen from the Wabash avenue station, rushing to the scene in a patrol wagon, were badly shaken up and cut by flying glass when an automobile crashed into the vehicle at 51st and State streets. Leander Winkler, 5338 South Laflin street, driver of the automobile, was arrested.

His Third Experience.

The west side shooting occurred about 7 o'clock, half an hour earlier. Dr. Breves was alone in his store, which is dimly lighted, when a young man entered, pointed a revolver at him, and ordered him to hold up his hands. Breves had routed holdup men on two previous occasions and kept a revolver handy. He was unable to reach it in time, however, and lunged at his assailant, attempting to pin his arms to his sides. The robber pulled the trigger and a bullet plowed through the druggist's right leg. He sank to the floor and the gunman fired another shot into his abdomen as he lay on the floor. Then he fled without taking any money.

At the West Side hospital the doctors say the druggist has an even chance of recovery.

Braves Bullets for Pledge.

"They won't get a penny the next time they come."

So ran the vow of Miss Ethel Connolly, 3926 Lexington street, ticket agent at the Western avenue station of the Douglas Park "L," after holdup men had robbed her cage of a few dollars several months ago.

Last night she braved a bullet to keep the pledge she made herself, and the robbers didn't get a penny.

There were two of them, one on each side of the cage, when she looked up in answer to their request to elevate her hands. She glanced from gun to gun and thought of her vow and the burglar alarm system recently installed by the Metropolitan Elevated lines.

With lightning rapidity she slid from her stool and her foot found the switch button on the floor. Instantly the lights went out and an electric gong set up a clatter. There was a flash, a report, and a bullet whizzed through the grating, but it passed in the darkness above the head of the cashier crouched behind her barrier on the floor.

ASK INDICTMENT TODAY OF POLICE NAMED IN PLOT

Chief Charges Gangsters Bought Liberty.

Indictment of Lieut. James Doherty and five of his subordinates at the Warren avenue police station will be sought before the Cook county grand jury this morning.

Chief Fitzmorris and Henry Barrett Chamberlin of the Chicago crime commission went to the Criminal court building yesterday afternoon to urge immediate action. They found the grand jury had adjourned and so they conferred with State's Attorney Crowe and Edgar A. Jonas, acting first assistant, who gave assurances that their matter will be taken up as soon as the jury reconvenes at 9 a. m.

The chief assured the county prosecutor that he will be able to present conclusive evidence that the Warren avenue police released six prisoners arrested by a gambling squad from his office and filled their places in the cells with substitutes hired by the men arrested in the raid.

Doherty's Reputation Excellent.

In addition to Lieut. Doherty, whose reputation has been excellent, the men who face these charges are:

Sergt. John J. Finerty.
Sergt. Edward Collopy.
Patrolman James Clarke.
Patrolman Henry Baumgartner.
Patrolman William Stoltzman.

Collopy was on desk duty Tuesday night when the prisoners taken in a raid made by Lieut. John McCarthy's squad on a crap game at 1712 West Lake street were brought in. In the absence of the lockup keeper Patrolman Stoltzman was assigned to that duty and the other policemen were assigned to assist him. Lieut. Doherty was present at this time, but half an hour later, he says, he went out with a "flivver" squad, so that the substitution of volunteers for the six prisoners might take place during his absence.

Believed Not Only Case.

But Chief Fitzmorris declared his belief that this is not the only case of this sort of substitution that has occurred at the Warren avenue station.

"Prisoners with police records," he said, "have been turned out to prey on the public, while dupes, paid $10 a head, were the men sent to the bureau of identification and the courts."

He said he would attempt to have both the accused policemen and the "dupes" indicted for conspiracy to obstruct justice.

"My information," he continued, "is that the mill was run on a wholesale basis and that instead of there having been only six men substituted after this raid about forty hirelings took the places of the real prisoners.

"This is the rankest piece of police dishonesty since I have been chief and I am going to treat it as such. We now have a dozen of those concerned in it and we'll have them all before we get through."

How System Worked.

The "system," according to Chief Fitzmorris, was as follows:

Before being formally charged with an offense, prisoners were permitted to send runners, one of whom, Louis Mussee, son of a west side junk dealer, is in custody, to hire men from the street at $10 each to act as substitutes for those arrested.

In the cell room, where the "switch" was negotiated under the eyes of policemen, according to the chief, the substitute was paid the $10 by the prisoner about to be released, who also told the substitute what name he was to use and other information which might tend to ease his vicarious burden.

Then the "substitute" prisoners were taken to the identification bureau.

Eight Substitutes Have Records.

"To show how raw the system was at Warren avenue, we found that eight of those taken to the identification bureau, even after the substitutions had been made, had criminal records," Chief Fitzmorris said.

Capt. Thomas J. Pilkington, commanding officer of the station, was not on duty Tuesday night, but Chief Fitzmorris said he was "still investigating" to determine whether the captain may have been involved in the matter.

The investigation is being made by First Deputy Alcock, assisted by James Miles, efficiency expert, and Philip Crippen, inspector of personnel of the police department.

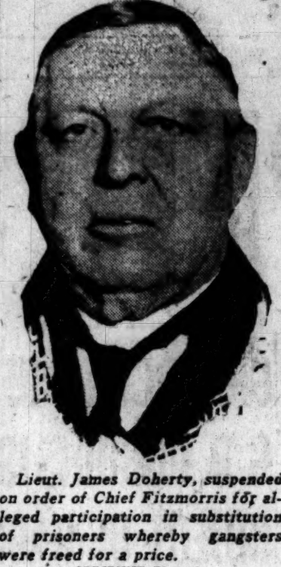

Politics, Says Doherty.

"There may be just a little politics in this charge," said Lieut. Doherty last night. "A policeman may always expect the worst of it, for he is often between a cross fire of politicians and quite frequently the target of crooks and their lawyers.

"On the night of the gambling raid I was making arrests and questioning prisoners and as a result of the work of my men and myself twenty-two robberies were cleared up and considerable stolen property recovered.

"Thirty-four years on the police force has made a good soldier of me. I am not complaining. Let the investigation take its course and I am certain my men and myself will be cleared."

SUSPENDED BY CHIEF

PRESIDENT OF BRAZIL VETOES DEFICIT BUDGET

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 26.—President Pessoa today vetoed the governmental budget for 1922, passed by congress.

The president said the expenses of the budget amounted approximately to 360,000 contos (a conto at present is worth about $125) more than the estimated revenue of approximately 1,000,000 contos, and he declined to sanction a law which he considered within a short time "would be proclaimed a failure and a discredit to the country."

The budget provided for increases in the salaries of officers and men of the army and navy, of judges and many other governmental employés. The president stated that pending the convocation of congress the governmental expenses would be paid in proportion to the authorized revenue and in the terms of the laws and regulations or, failing these, in accord with the 1921 budget.

WOMAN LOOKS ON AS "LOVE MATE" HANGS HIMSELF

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 26.—Leo Sweeney, landscape gardener, today hanged himself with a belt fastened to a bedpost, while Mrs. May Kraus, a young married woman, sat watching, believing it a joke.

Twice before Sweeney had shammed death, Mrs. Kraus told the authorities, and this time she thought his toes were touching the floor and he was in no danger of choking. Finally she saw that he was strangling and cut him down. He was dead.

Detectives said that Mrs. Kraus told them she had left her husband in Brooklyn to live with Sweeney, who was married and had two children.

Children Go to Join Former Emperor Karl

GENEVA, Jan. 26.—By the Associated Press.]—The children of former Emperor Charles and former Empress Zita of Austria-Hungary, with the exception of former Prince Robert, who is convalescing from a recent operation, arrived here today from Zurich on their way to Madrid to join their mother, and thence to the former monarch's exile home on the island of Madeira. The children were accompanied by Countess Warnsdorf and two governesses.

98% OF SCHOOL CHILDREN GOOD, MORTENSON SAYS

But "Pros" and "Cons" Keep Coming In.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES.

With hundreds of letters pouring into Superintendent of Schools Peter A. Mortenson's office approving his taboo on jazz music, joy rides, extreme dressing, and cigaret smoking for high school students, and thousands of words pouring out of the mouths of these high school students, denying the assertion that they are "naughty," the moral debit and credit columns remained unaudited yesterday.

PETER A. MORTENSON.

"We have received letters from parents, clubs, teachers, and young people expressing approval of the recommendations made by the board of education regarding the simple life for the high school student," said Mr. Mortenson yesterday.

"We realize that about 98 per cent of the students are normal, sensible young people. We do not accuse them of excesses of any kind. But we want to prevent them from being led by the few silly, cheap, weak boys and girls who are in every school."

Flat Rules "Foolish."

Characterizing any definite list of rules measuring the distance between dancers, the length of a girl's skirt, or the number of gallons of gasoline used by student motorists, as "foolish," Mr. Mortenson declared he wished to lay down a general plan for social activities and good behavior, but meant to leave it to the common sense of the individual pupil or school to interpret.

"I wish to make it plain," said Mr. Mortenson, "that these rules are not the result of 'snitching' on the part of a few pupils. We do not encourage tattle-tales. But the student councils and self-government commissions operating in many high schools have brought some of their evidence to the attention of principals. There is no implied attack on the body of high school pupils."

That rules and regulations are fine—for the other fellow—is the opinion of the young people in the Chicago schools, who yesterday expressed doubt that the "good old days" of the three R's had any more moral preoccupation than 1922's scholasticism.

"Girls Not Wicked."

"The girls are not nearly so wicked as Mr. Mortenson thinks," insisted Miss Dorothy Middleton of Hyde Park High school as she hurried from a Latin to an algebra class.

"Because a dance is freakish doesn't make it immoral," stated Miss Alta Cundy, another Hyde Park pupil.

That the athletic prowess of the Lake View High school girl is inversely proportional to the length of her skirt is the contention of Sheldon Knight, who majors in "math" and is president of the Lake View High Civics club.

"No ban on short skirts," urged Knight. "Girls can't skate in long skirts."

FILIPINOS TAKE 10 MILLION FROM U. S. ARMY FUND

BY WALTER WILGUS.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.)

MANILA, Jan. 26.—That the Philippine government has spent $10,000,000 belonging to the United States war department and is unable to repay that sum, was revealed today in a message from Gov. Gen. Leonard Wood to the legislature. To meet this and other emergencies, Gov. Wood urges an increase in the debt limit from the present $30,000,000 to $73,000,000.

Fund Is Overdrawn.

The message, after describing the necessity of various bond issues to restore the credit of the Philippine government and to maintain the Philippine currency at par, continues:

"The purpose of this is to replenish the overdrawn condition of the general fund of the insular treasury. This fund has been overdrawn in an approximate sum of $10,000,000 because of excess expenditures over current expense and inability of the Philippine leader bank to restore government deposits. In reality the government has drawn upon funds belonging to the war department of the United States in order to meet its running expenses. It is of vital importance that these funds be restored as soon as possible in order not to impair our credit standing with the United States government."

Made Without Authority.

The war department funds, it is understood, were used largely for payment of salaries of employés of the Philippine government who otherwise would have gone unpaid at various times during the last year.

Gov. Wood does not question whether this use of war department funds is authorized, although it is stated on high authority the Philippine officials made use of the funds without legal authorization.

JOHNSON HURLS HAMMER AT DEBT FUNDING WHEEL

Says Foreign Bonds Will "Entangle" U. S.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—In a speech in the senate pronouncing the conference on limitation of armaments a failure because of secret diplomacy Senator Johnson of California today launched a movement by Republican "irreconcilables" to retain control by congress of the negotiations to refund the allied debts.

SENATOR HIRAM JOHNSON. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

He proposed an amendment to the $11,000,000,000 refunding bill requiring congressional confirmation of any arrangement made by the administration with the allied governments to defer payment.

Vote Changes in Interest Rate.

Late in the day the senate in the first vote on an amendment to the funding bill approved a clause providing that the refunding bonds bear interest at not less than 4¼ per cent.

Senator Johnson's amendment had drawn the fire of administration spokesmen, notably Senator Watson of Indiana. President Harding already has authority to do most of the things contemplated in the refunding plan; his principal motive in asking for additional legislation was to obtain a vote of confidence before proceeding with the refunding negotiations, according to Senator Watson.

Disappointed at Conference.

"We had hoped," said Senator Johnson, "that we had entered a new era. I sat in the conference at the opening of this disarmament gathering, and, like every American, I felt a real thrill when the secretary of state rose in the fashion that he did, in the open, scrapped the old diplomacy, and told there to the people of the world the new method and what the people of America would do.

"I believe if he had continued in the open for another week a disarmament progam would have been adopted that would have been in accordance with exactly what he proposed.

"It is because of that principle that I would insist, had I the power, that before there be a consummation of any arrangement in regard to the foreign loan our people should know about it."

Johnson warned that America would become mixed with every controversy in Europe if the bonds of foreign governments were put into the hands of the people of America. He cited France, where large sums in Russian bonds are held.

Watson Expresses Views.

"It is quite manifest that England will at once enter into negotiations," Senator Watson said, in discussing a conference on the interallied debts. "I have not any doubt in the world, and neither has the secretary of the treasury, that England will promptly pay her obligation; that she will pay her interest semi-annually."

Watson went on to point out that such favorable arrangements might not be possible with other nations.

"If I had my way about it," he said, "I would be very happy right now to take 50 cents on the dollar for all the money owing us from Czecho-Slovakia and other nations, which, in my judgment, never will be able to pay in the senator's day or mine."

COLORED RIOTER WINS FIGHT TO STAY IN CANADA

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 26.—Matthew Bullock, colored, of North Carolina, has won his fight to avoid deportation to the United States to face trial for rioting.

Announcement that the fugitive might remain in Canada was made tonight by Charles Stewart, minister of the interior and immigration. After a cabinet meeting, Mr. Stewart said Bullock would be freed at once by the immigration authorities at Hamilton, Ont., where he has been confined.

After listening to Mr. Stewart's analysis of the legal points involved, the cabinet council ruled in Bullock's favor, basing its decision on the fact that he had proved an exemplary citizen of Ontario, even though he may have evaded the immigration laws in coming into the country.

PEACEFUL END TO DISPUTE ON SHANTUNG NEAR

China and Japan in Agreement.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—[By the Associated Press.]—Agreement has been reached on all collateral questions involved in the Shantung problem, it was said tonight at the conclusion of a three hours' discussion of the subject by the Chinese and Japanese delegations to the Washington conference. Only the question of control of the Tsingtao-Tsinanfu railway remains unsettled.

The railway question is for the moment in abeyance. A drafting committee of Chinese and Japanese will meet Saturday to prepare a final agreement on all questions except the railway.

Questions taken up today pertained to claims of Chinese nationals arising in connection with the Japanese administration of the former German leasehold, and it was said the Japanese delegates agreed that their government would take up these claims with the view of adjusting them equitably.

SETTLEMENT ASURED.

Washington, D. C, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—President Harding's conference with Mr. Alfred Sze, Chinese minister, over the Shantung problem is regarded by international leaders here as practically assuring a satisfactory settlement of the issue.

Minister Sze asked for the conference.

"Failure of agreement now," said a delegate, "seems impossible. We have every confidence of success and believe final agreement will be reached within a few days. That will open the way for clearing up other disputed points in the conference and plenary sessions should soon be possible."

The radical element of the Chinese have been continuing to threaten the delegates here.

Head of French Arms Delegation Taken Ill

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—M. Sarraut, leader of the French delegation to the arms conference, was taken ill today with a slight attack of bronchitis. His friends expect that he will be able to resume his duties within a day or two.

CASE CONTINUED.

Elmer Theorell, 4951 Austin avenue, charged with annoying a girl in a theater, was given to Feb. 2 to produce character witnesses in the South Clark street court yesterday.

MARRIAGE SEEMS TO GROW MORE POPULAR, AND SO DOES DIVORCE

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—The proportion of married men to the total male population of the country 15 years of age and over increased from 55.8 per cent to 59.2 per cent in the ten years preceding the 1920 census, according to a compilation of marital statistics made public today by the census bureau. The bureau believed, however, that this was probably more indicative of a change in the age composition of the population—an increase in the percentage of males between 15 and 25 years of age due to increased immigration—than a growing propensity to matrimony.

Of the total male population of 53,900,431 above the 15 year classification the census figures showed 21,849,266 married, 1,758,308 widowed, and 235,284 divorced, the latter figure, however, including none divorced and remarried.

The divorce total showed an increase of 20 per cent in its ratio to the total population during the ten year period, constituting six-tenths of 1 per cent of the latter, against five-tenths in 1910. The number of divorced women exceeded men by approximately 40,000.

By states Massachusetts led the field in the proportion of single women with a percentage of 34.4, although the District of Columbia exceeded this with 37.3 per cent.

U. S. TO SUE TWO AIRCRAFT FIRMS FOR $7,000,000

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—The government is ready to bring suit against the Dayton-Wright company and the Wright-Martin Aircraft corporation to recover a total of more than $7,000,000 in alleged overpayments on war contracts, Attorney General Daugherty announced today.

The attorney general, in making the announcement, said the war frauds bureau of the justice department, under the direction of Guy D. Goff, the assistant to the attorney general, cooperating with war department accountants, had been working for some time on aircraft cases with the result that the government now was prepared to begin suits for the recovery of large amounts which the reports of the government auditors show were overpaid on cost plus contracts for aircraft production.

LILLIAN RUSSELL STARTS U. S. JOB WITH A THRILLER

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 26.—A. P. Moore and his wife, Lillian Russell, arrived in London today and are stopping at the Savoy hotel after an exciting voyage on the George Washington from New York. Mrs. Moore has been appointed to investigate immigration conditions in Europe by the United States government.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore told THE TRIBUNE's correspondent of a midocean drama when the George Washington, buffeted by hurricane seas which swept the vessel's seventy-seven feet high bridge, smashed lifeboats and kept the passengers below decks, received an S. O. S. call from the 8,000 ton Norwegian steamer Mod stating that it was distressed and foundering in the gale.

The George Washington steamed at full speed searching for the Mod in the teeth of the gale, but was unable to locate it because the Mod's wireless messages, although constantly received, gave incorrect latitude and longitude.

The big passenger vessel searched for twenty-four hours until a wireless message finally told how the British merchantman Metmore had rescued the Mod's crew of sixty. The Mod sank shortly thereafter.

VIENNA CABINET FALLS AS PRICE OF FOOD RISES

VIENNA, Jan. 26.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Schober ministry resigned from office today. The fall of the cabinet has been expected for some time, and this, together with the great decrease in the value of the crown, has heightened the seriousness of the whole internal situation. Increase in the prices of food and fuel, both of which are scarce, has stimulated the unrest.

On Tuesday night the civil employés demanding higher wages marched to the parliament; the younger elements became disorderly, and the whole city was alarmed, places of business being closed. The police were massed at strategic points, but no real disorders occurred.

The following day the government increased the pay 3,500,000 crowns a month. Then the janitors went on strike for more pay and a general readjustment of their duties and emoluments.

The government fell on the issue of the Czech treaties

RAPID TRANSIT IN BIG CITY PART OF I. C.'S PLANS

Company Looking Far Into Future in Terminal.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Vice President A. S. Baldwin said yesterday that the Illinois Central "has the opportunity for the largest railroad terminal development in the entire United States." He said the company is planning accordingly—developing a scheme of construction and operation "which will take care of anything of which we can conceive."

Mr. Baldwin was formerly chief engineer of the road for fourteen years and has been placed in charge of terminal development. Investigations have been made of all the larger terminals in this country and also in Europe.

Plans to Connect with Subway.

The plans as developed contemplate that the I. C. will become a large factor in the local rapid transit system of the city. The road desires and is planning to have connections downtown at least—and perhaps in other locations if deemed of sufficient public convenience—with municipal subways when constructed.

A passenger will walk across a platform after alighting from an electric suburban train or a through train to a waiting subway train for his home or hotel in Chicago. The road is unable to make definite plans for connections because no one knows where nor when Chicago will place its subways, but the I. C. experts recommend the advantages and conveniences to the public which the New York Central and Pennsylvania systems provide and have planned for the city of New York.

City Above the Tracks.

The designing staff is committed to an intensive development. They would build a new city above the tracks in the seventy acres north of Randolph street. Over the train sheds, south of the terminal station proper at Roosevelt road, they have planned an office building. The superdevelopment of the New York Central terminal brings in sufficient income to pay the carrying charges on the cost of the entire improvement, according to reports of the I. C. experts. These ideas on intensive development are recited to indicate the spirit of the planning for local rapid transit.

The station proper at Roosevelt road will have twenty-seven tracks on one level. Below that will be the level devoted to baggage, mail, parcels, and other train commodities. The third level down will have sufficient space for twenty-three tracks, which will be laid as needed. Below that space it is planned to run the street cars on Roosevelt road out to the Field museum.

Thirteen Approach Tracks.

To get the trains which will occupy these tracks in and out of the station there will be thirteen approach tracks on the main right of way of the road. Its width of 200 feet, south of Fifty-third street, does not permit of a larger number of tracks.

Of these thirteen tracks three will be devoted to freight exclusively. That leaves ten for other service, and of these it is planned to eventually use six for local rapid transit—the so-called suburban service. In a word, three-fifths of the right of way is to be devoted to local rapid transportation. That indicates clearly what the I. C. officials believe regarding the development on the south side of Chicago, because a large per cent of their present suburban service is within the corporate limits of Chicago.

The I. C. is planning a long way in the future—how far officials have declined to say—but after Chicago and suburbs are supplied with electrified rapid transit, Mr. Baldwin said, the lines will be electrified to Champaign, Ill.

WEDS TOMORROW

MISS KATHERINE FIELD.

MISS KATHERINE BLACKWELL FIELD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Field of 1550 State parkway, will become the bride of Thomas Clifford Rodman, son of Rear Admiral Willoughby Rodman, retired, at 4 p. m. tomorrow at the Fourth Presbyterian church. Her sister, Daphne, will be maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Misses Beatrix Thorne, Frances Robbins, Anna Marquis, Phoebe Norcross, Mrs. Keith Carpenter, and Miss Elizabeth Carpenter of Chicago, Miss Helen James of New York, and Miss Margaret Smith of Baltimore, Russell Wells of New York will be best man.

RUSSIANS EAT CHILDREN FAT ON YANKEE FOOD

Cannibalism in Samara Province.

BY DONALD DAY.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

RIGA, Jan. 26.—Because of reports from the famine districts that children fattened up by the American relief administration diet have been killed and eaten by their insane parents, the Cheka is now preparing to guard children holding American ration tickets.

In Pugatchev, Samara province, a small restaurant was recently opened which became well known for its meat dishes. It was well patronized by many government officials. Now the two women proprietors are in jail and the Cheka has the remains of two children's bodies as evidence.

In Great Gustichina, also in Samara, the office of a coöperative society reports that ten pounds of boiled human flesh was recently traded in for grain. In Lubemove, in the Buzuluk district, where the American Quakers are active, many bodies have been found in roadways, the fleshy parts carved away.

In Slavenko, in the same district, a peasant woman named Galotkin divided the body of her 13 year old daughter between her three surviving children. The Rosta news agency states that these are not isolated cases, and this condition is general.

REVENUE BOATS GUARD WHISKY CARRYING TUG

New York, Jan. 26.—The tug Harbinger, carrying 300 cases of Canadian whisky, was lying at a shipyard at West Newbrighton tonight undergoing repairs while a patrol of customs officers stood guard to prevent possible leakage of the cargo op to prohibition soil.

The Harbinger, from St. John, N. B., is bound for Nassau, Bahama islands, but, acting on information that its cargo actually was destined for Perth Amboy, N. J., United States coast guard cutters have haunted its course all down the Atlantic coast.

FORCE LAST LINK TODAY IN TRIAL OF UNION CHIEFS

To Use Mystery Evidence Against Janitors.

With the presentation this morning of mysterious documentary evidence in the handwriting of William F. Quesse, president of the Chicago Flat Janitors' union, who, with nine other officials of the union, is on trial before Judge John A. Swanson in the Criminal court, Special Prosecutor Edwin J. Raber will close his case.

Quesse's Bank Deposits.

At the hearing yesterday more evidence of the payment of graft was introduced by the state and in addition bank officials were called to testify as to Mr. Quesse's bank deposits. According to the evidence, Mr. Quesse deposited $16,293 in the Kenwood National bank between Feb. 20, 1920, and May, 1921, while he banked $6,468 in the Greenebaum Sons' bank between January and May, 1921. During this period Quesse's salary amounted to about $11,000, as he received $450 a month as president of the union and $3,000 a year from the international janitors' organization.

Among the witnesses who testified to paying "fines" to the janitor union officials was Arthur Weinrib, a real estate dealer. He said that Gus Anderson, one of the defendants, came to him and told him that he would have to pay a fine of $240 because he had a nonunion janitor working for him.

Fined Anyhow.

Weinrib then told how he had gone to John J. Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and to numerous other labor officials to intercede for him with Quesse, and that later he went to Quesse's office and told him that the fine was unfair.

"I tried to talk to Quesse," the witness continued, "but he wouldn't let me. 'Now, I am going to save you a whole lot of talk,' he said. 'You have been fined $240 and if you don't pay that $240 in five minutes it is going to cost you $340.' He pulled out his watch and started to walk away and I pulled out my check book and wrote the check. What else could I do?"

STAR OF NEGRO SHINES BRIGHT IN WEST INDIES

Conditions There Most Favor His Development.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Jan. 26.—In the West Indies, and not in a chimerical republic in Africa, lies the opportunity of the Negro race to take the next great step forward in its history. Jamaica, at least, is becoming a black man's land, and the future lies rather in the use to which the Negroes put to their power than in a fresh influx of northern blood and capital, either from England or America.

Here, if anywhere, the Negroes, whites, and browns live peacefully together. There are no racial antipathies. There are no riots or lynchings. There are no crimes against white women. The race question simply does not exist; it is not discussed as a problem. Here the Negro and the mixed strains may work their way upward from primitive jungle inhibitions and under conditions impossible in the United States.

"I feel more at home here," said a black girl who had just come from New Jersey.

Home of Agitator.

Marcus Garvey, a colored agitator who attained power over the people of his race in New York and Chicago, comes from Jamaica, but he is a prophet without great honor here. His people say that he should have remained at home and worked. He was here a few months ago with his famous black star navy, but he had trouble with his crew, and his doctrines fell on deaf ears. He preached that the colored people owe allegiance neither to the American nor the British flag, but only to the flag of the Black republic.

Garvey was so seditious in his expressions here that the American consul at Kingston refused to visé his passport to permit him to go home, but political pressure was brought to bear at Washington, and he finally left.

Intelligent and Energetic.

In this island of 1,000,000 inhabitants there are over 900,000 colored persons only a few generations removed from slavery. Between them and a few thousand whites there is every gradation of color as a result of mixture with Europeans. Those that appear white are so considered and accepted socially. They are highly intelligent and energetic, and, but for the fact that they consider themselves superior to the blacks, which sometimes irritates the latter, they would be the natural leaders.

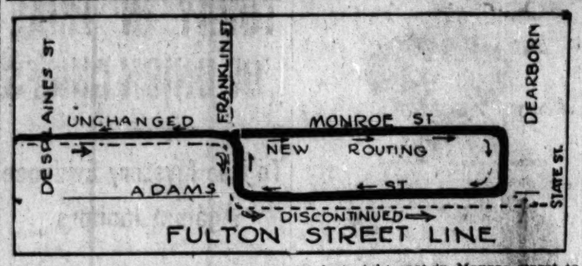

American industry is the chief one here, and American medical work under the Rockefeller Foundation is giving the first real ideas of sanitation and public health.

American doctors are stamping out the hookworm, and every peasant in the hills knows the doctors in their Fords. In some districts 80 per cent of the people are infected.

The chief problems facing the island are predatory larceny and immorality. Whole crops sometimes disappear in a night, although the punishment, if the guilty are caught, may be a public flogging. Seventy-two per cent of the children are illegitimate.

There is a great deal of religion, but it has little effect practically. Witchcraft is still common here. There is little serious crime, there being only three or four murders in a year. The schools are few and are poorly attended. About 25,000 indentured East Indians are working on the big sugar estates.

YOUR NEW CAR ROUTE

The Fulton car line is to have new loops in the central business district next Sunday. Patrons of this line will not be standing on the wrong corner for a car that never comes, if they will notice the above map.

The Fulton street line will be operated straight east in Monroe street to Dearborn, then south to Adams, then west to Franklin, then north to Monroe, and west as at present. This line is now operated south from Monroe in Franklin to Adams and then east to the stub end terminal at State.

MRS. RAY BAKER IN PARIS TO SUE HUSBAND, REPORT

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Raymond T. Baker, wife of the former director of the United States mint at Philadelphia, arrived in Paris today with her children. It is rumored in the American colony here that she is seeking a separation from her husband. Mrs. Baker formerly was Mrs. A. G. Vanderbilt. Mr. Vanderbilt lost his life when the Germans torpedoed the Lusitania in May, 1915. The Bakers were married in June, 1918, three years after Mr. Vanderbilt's death.

Liberia Passes U. S. Loan and Waits on Congress

A one story frame building at 5717 Normandy avenue was destroyed by fire of unknown origin yesterday. The family sought shelter with neighbors.

ARTIST ADDS FILMY GARMENT; PARIS UNHAPPY

PARIS, Jan. 26.—[By United News.]—After weeks of feverish preparation the Independent Artists' salon is open. It is as shocking as ever.

There was one keen disappointment. M. Bernard had promised a beautiful portrait of the dazzling actress Spinelly. It was hinted that the portrait would show Spinelly without enough adornment to hide any of her natural beauty. But the portrait showed her in filmy garments. Bernard added the garments yesterday.

Britziane, a Frenchman, contributes a pastel called "Voluptuousness"—a swarthy Mephistopheles passionately embracing a white nude—which makes even Parasians gasp.

The riotous cubists and near-cubists predominate, however. The Americans are comparatively restrained.

Finns Blame Reds for Fire; Want War on Moscow

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

HELSINGFORS, Jan. 26.—Finland's only munition factory, located at Riihimacki, has been destroyed by fire alleged to have been caused by the bolshevists. Finland is indignant and is discussing measures to oppose the increasing Communist agitation engineered from Moscow. The newspapers suggest a defensive alliance with Sweden or a triple Finnish, Roumanian and Polish military entente against the bolshevists.

CZECH LABOR REJECTS MOSCOW.

PRAGUE, Czecho-Slovakia, Jan. 26.—The trades union congress today by vote of 338,000 to 322,000, rejected a motion to join the Moscow internationale.

IRISH WORK 16 HOURS A DAY TO SET UP STATE

BY PAUL WILLIAMS.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

DUBLIN, Jan. 26.—Most of the members of the provisional government are working sixteen hours a day at the difficult task of organizing the administration of the Irish Free State.

They are devoting a large part of their time to the selection of committees to handle such important questions as finance, the drafting of the Irish constitution and the reorganization of the government departments.

The Dail Eireann obtains an adequate representation on these committees among which the work is apportioned, but the personnel is chosen with liberal mindedness, assuring membership for all sections. The present policy seems to be to get the right man for the right place regardless of political affiliation.

Seek Help of Unionists.

Andrew Jameson, a prominent southern unionist, will probably be invited to serve as a financial expert. Mr. Jameson is a distiller, a member of the board of governors of the Bank of Ireland and president of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce.

The provisional government does not intend to call a general election until the British parliament passes all the laws necessary for the full establishment of the free state. However, these pioneers are anxious to appeal to the people at the earliest possible date consistent with giving the electorate an unclouded issue.

The boycott against English goods has in no way been affected by the dropping of the Ulster boycott, but it is stated that this will be called off within a short time.

Cities Get Back Money Grants.

It is learned that another result of Michael Collins' conference at the colonial office last week is the restoration of money grants to Irish municipalities. These gifts to cities by the British government were discontinued about twelve months ago as a sort of financial reprisal against the south of Ireland. They total $3,000,000 annually and are much needed for the improvement of public works.

The free state passed through its first labor crisis when Joseph McGrath, minister of labor, adjusted a strike on the Dublin and Southeastern railway today.

England Discusses Loan of $10,000,000 to Austria

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 26.—Prime Minister Lloyd George presided at a cabinet meeting at 10 Downing street this evening to discuss foreign affairs, including the Egyptian situation and Austria's request for a £2,500,000 (roughly $10,000,000) loan. The Comte St. Aulaire, the French ambassador to London, conferred with Marquis Curzon for an hour at the foreign office this evening regarding the Anglo-French pact.

VILGRAIN SET FREE.

NANCY, France, Jan. 26.—[By the Associated Press.]—Ernst Vilgrain, food controller during the Clemenceau premiership, was acquitted today by the court martial before which he had been tried on charges of abandoning his post in the face of the enemy, and voluntary mutilation to escape his military obligations at the outbreak of the war.

You Can Beat Constipation and Free Yourself from Pills!

Don't wait for constipation to "get" you; to slow you up; to throw your system open to about 90 per cent of human ills. Beat constipation with BRAN—KELLOGG'S BRAN, cooked and krumbled.

Where pills and cathartics are habit-forming and aggravate dangerous intestinal conditions, Kellogg's Bran, without irritation or discomfort, mechanically sweeps the bowels, cleansing and purifying in a natural way.

Physicians indorse the use of Kellogg's Bran for constipation because it makes possible the successful treatment of constipation through food. We guarantee that Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, will give permanent relief if it is eaten regularly.

Every morning Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, should be eaten by you and your family; say, with your favorite cereal. Eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily; for chronic cases eat as much as necessary for results! Kellogg's Bran is wonderfully palatable, its nut-like flavor adding much to any food. And, it can be served in many enticing ways such as in muffins, macaroons, raisin bread, etc.

For health sake, don't delay ordering KELLOGG'S BRAN! Its work is a revelation! INSIST THAT YOUR GROCER SUPPLIES YOU KELLOGG'S BRAN. Get a package today. Serve it sure tomorrow! Have it on the table every meal! Sprinkle it on food. IT'S DELICIOUS!

P. S. Kellogg's Bran will clear up a pimply complexion and free the breath from disagreeable intestinal odors—if it is eaten regularly!

MASTIN'S YEAST VITAMON TABLETS

Now Used By Millions to Help Increase Weight and Energy, Clear the Skin, Aid Digestion and Correct Constipation

Easy and Economical to Take—Results Quick

Everywhere people are talking about their astonishing improvement in health and appearance since they started taking MASTIN'S YEAST VITAMON TABLETS with every meal. These supply in concentrated form not only the precious yeast vitamines, but all three of the equally important vitamines which Science says you must have to be strong, well and properly developed.

By increasing the nourishing power of what you eat, MASTIN'S VITAMON TABLETS help supply just what your body needs to feed the shrunken tissues, strengthen internal organs, clear the skin and renew shattered nerve force. Under their influence, many embarrassing skin eruptions seem to vanish as if by magic, leaving the skin and complexion fresh, clear and glowing with ruddy health.

MASTIN'S VITAMON TABLETS do not upset the stomach or cause that bloated feeling; but on the contrary are a great aid in correcting indigestion and constipation. By acting in a natural way as a general conditioner of the whole system they usually help to put on firm flesh and increase energy in a remarkably short space of time.

Make This Amazing Test— If you are thin, undeveloped, lacking in energy and ambition and your face and skin disfigured with unsightly skin eruptions or boils, you should find it well worth while to make this simple test and watch the surprising change in your physical condition and appearance: First weigh and measure yourself. Next take MASTIN'S VITAMON—two tablets with every meal. Then weigh and measure yourself again each week and continue taking MASTIN'S VITAMON TABLETS regularly until you are satisfied with your gain in weight, "pep" and energy. It is not only a question of how much better you look and feel, or what your friends say and think—the scales and tape measure will tell their own story.

MASTIN'S VITAMON TABLETS
THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE
YEAST VITAMINE TABLET

Be sure to remember the name MASTIN'S VITAMON—the original and genuine yeast vitamine tablet—there is nothing else like it, so do not accept imitations or substitutes. The name MASTIN'S on the yellow and black package is your protection. If you are not entirely satisfied with the results in your own case your money will be promptly refunded. You can get MASTIN'S VITAMON TABLETS at all good druggists.

HUSBAND SHOOTS WIFE SHIELDING BABY; KILLS SELF

Tragedy Follows Filing of Divorce Suit.

Mother love yesterday saved the life of baby Myrtle Hand, 17 months old, but may cost the life of the mother, Mrs. Gertrude Hand, 22 years old, who interposed her body when her husband, George Hand, was about to kill the baby. She was shot three times. The husband then killed himself.

The shooting occurred in the home of Mrs. Hand's mother, Mrs. Anna Johnson, at 1857 Orchard street, about 4 o'clock yesterday. Hand had been separated from his wife and living at 1467 Orchard street. He was 23, an expainter, and had been working as a welder.

Separated Last Summer.

They were married three years ago. According to Mrs. Johnson they got along admirably together until last summer. Mrs. Hand was forced to leave her husband, she said, and sued for a divorce. The case is still pending before Judge Charles A. McDonald.

An injunction restraining Hand from molesting his wife or trying to see the baby was modified so that he was permitted to see the child on Sundays only.

Last Sunday he threatened to kill little Myrtle unless his wife agreed to allow him to see the child oftener.

Follows Wife from Store.

Yesterday he followed his wife from the store and forced an entrance into the house after her. The baby and Mrs. Johnson were the only others in the house at the time.

"I'm going to kill Myrtle and myself," he said. "I can't live without her and the court won't give her to me."

The child was asleep in the bed and he pointed the revolver at it. Frantic with fear, the mother leaped to the bed and covered the child with her body just as the first shot was fired. Two bullets entered her back and one passed through her arm, but the baby was unharmed.

At St. Joseph's hospital last night it was said Mrs. Hand's condition is critical.

BEFORE THE TRAGEDY

There was nothing to indicate in this picture of George Hand and his wife, Gertrude, that his affection, so plainly portrayed, should turn to the emotion that yesterday led him to shoot her when she tried to protect with her body their baby girl, Myrtle, whom he was bent on shooting, and then kill himself. The tragedy occurred at her mother's home. The wife is seriously wounded three times.

TIME BULLETINS TO BE GIVEN BY RADIO TONIGHT

Radiophone fans who hook into the concert broadcasted by Westinghouse station KYW at 8 o'clock tonight are going to hear something they've been missing for the last few weeks—the "time" bulletins.

Yesterday Nathan Rosenberg of 3706 Lake Park avenue wrote to the management: "I'm sure that many amateurs took advantage of the chance and set their clocks accordingly. I know that I did and now I miss it. May I suggest that once during the middle of the concert and at the end of the news service the exact time be announced?"

And so tonight you'll have the time in addition to a concert and news bulletin.

Under the direction of Morgan L. Eastman, Olive June Lacey, soprano; Louis Kreidler, baritone; and Frederik Frederiksen, violinist, will give the following numbers:

1. "Depuis le Jour"..Olive June Lacey
2. Prologue from "Pagliacci"....Louis Kreidler
3. Canzona by Sauret....Frederik Frederiksen
4. "Danny Boy" and "Come Love Me"....Olive June Lacey
5. "The Blind Plowman"....Louis Kreidler
6. Meditation from "Thais"....Frederik Frederiksen
7. Lullaby from "Jocelyn"....Olive June Lacey
8. "The Time for Making Song Has Come"....Louis Kreidler
9. Hungarian dance in G minor..Frederik Frederiksen

ARBUCKLE CASE ABOUT READY FOR JURY NO. 2

Defendant Will Not Take Stand.

BY EDWARD DOHERTY.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The defense in the case of Roscoe Arbuckle, film comedian on trial for manslaughter, may finish the presentation of evidence tomorrow, and the case may go to the jury Monday or Tuesday.

It was expected the examination of Dr. G. Franklin Shiels, expert on bladder diseases, would be completed today, but when court adjourned the physician was still in the witness chair, and the state declared it had a number of questions yet to ask.

It is possible Arbuckle's attorneys may call Mrs. Minnie Neighbors or Irene Morgan tomorrow, but not probable. Mrs. Neighbors has been in attendance in the courtroom for some time, but Miss Morgan, the war nurse, has disappeared. It is said she may have returned to Sweden.

Both testified at the previous trial that Miss Virginia Rappe, for whose death the fat comedian is on trial, had suffered from bladder trouble.

The adjournment of court was greeted by a tremendous racket in Chinatown, where the Chinese New Year had just arrived.

Dr. Olaf Kaarboe, a medical expert, said he diagnosed Miss Rappe's case as one of alcoholism and that when he asked her if she had been hurt she shook her head to indicate a negative answer. Dr. M. E. Rumwell testified that he had diagnosed the ailment as alcoholism, but that a condition of peritonitis developed on the second day.

Dr. Asa Collins, called to give expert opinion, stated that persons suffering from peritonitis were more susceptible to bruises than other patients, and that the body of a peritonitis victim was usually bruised.

PACKING HOUSE WORKERS VOTE TO STAY OUT—LANE

Dennis Lane, secretary of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workers' union, announced last night that more than 90 per cent of the striking packing house employes had voted to continue the strike which has been in effect since Dec. 5.

These figures were based on the votes cast in East St. Louis, St. Joseph, Mo.; Oklahoma City, Kansas City, Omaha, Sioux City, Denver, Albert Lea, Minn., and a part of the Chicago vote.

The result of the vote announced last night is as follows:

City.	To continue strike.	To end strike.
East St. Louis	1,351	43
Oklahoma City	980	121
Chicago	490	21
Omaha	1,702	297
Sioux City	764	59
Denver	341	14
Kansas City	2,240	61

SUITOR OF HIGH SCHOOL GIRL HELD AS HER ABDUCTOR

Frances Waddell, pretty 19 year old daughter of Arthur L. Waddell, 2302 Lunt avenue, should have been graduated from Nicholas Senn High school last night, but she wasn't there.

Her mother admitted she did not know where Frances was. The only person who might be expected to know is Clayton Merwin, 25, solicitor, 308 North Wells street.

Merwin is held at the East Chicago avenue station on a charge of abduction. He had obtained Frances' release from the House of the Good Shepherd on a habeas corpus writ issued by Judge Fitch.

Mr. Waddell explained that he had placed his daughter in the home not on account of a quarrel, as was formerly stated, but in order that she might be protected from Merwin.

Since her release Frances has not been heard from.

Merwin, it is said, had wanted to marry Frances. Mr. Waddell inquired in Youngstown, O., Merwin's home, in regard to his character. The answer he received, it is alleged, was uncomplimentary enough to cause him to withhold his consent.

U. S. SYSTEM OF IMMIGRATION IS CALLED CRIMINAL

Evils Bared by Former Commissioner.

BY THE REV. W. B. NORTON.

Frederick A. Wallis, United States commissioner of immigration under Wilson, last night charged that America is "criminal" in bringing immigrants to this country without examination abroad. Mr. Wallis spoke at a banquet of the Presbyterian union at the Hotel Morrison.

Miss Genevieve Forbes in her recent articles in THE TRIBUNE on the evils of the immigration system and especially of Ellis island did not draw a more distressing picture than did Mr. Wallis.

"If any foreigner objects to our selection of the class of immigrants who shall come to our shore," he said, "let them keep the whole bunch at home. They come here to raise their standard of living, and there is no reason why on that account they should lower our standards."

Would Deport Unnaturalized.

Mr. Wallis also advocated the return to their native land of all foreigners who fail to naturalize as American citizens, declaring that all who enjoyed the privileges of our government should share in its responsibilities and burdens.

Speaking specifically of immigration and conditions in Ellis island during his experience, he said:

"The first time I went to Ellis island as commissioner I was insulted twice before my identity was revealed. When I was made known the guilty men fell on their knees.

"Ellis island is a vale of tears. In one room I saw 360 persons, with seats for only forty. Many women were standing holding babies in their arms. At the meals no water was given any one to drink, because, it was said, they would make the floor sloppy around the hydrants. Yet I found by inquiry that the floor of the room had not been cleaned for four months.

Fight Over Sugar.

"No sugar was allowed. When I ordered some there was such a riot in grabbing for the sugar in the dining room that three men were slugged and one had three ribs broken.

"When I objected to the heat and the vile air in the rooms the petty official excused the closed doors on the ground that if they were open the immigrants would want to talk. Mothers got cold and sour milk for their babies. Because of the failure to examine abroad we send back the unsuccessful applicants. They threaten suicide and we find it hard to keep mothers from throwing their babies overboard. It is tragedy. It is crime."

KILGALLEN WILL FILED; ESTATE GOES TO WIDOW

The will of the late Martin Kilgallen, wealthy south side land owner and builder of Chicago Heights, was filed for probate before Assistant Judge Paul Corkell yesterday disposing of an estate valued at $500,000.

Mrs. Anna T. Kilgallen, the widow, was named as the principal beneficiary. James Kilgallen, a brother, and Mrs. Agnes Perry, Mrs. Elizabeth Egan, and Mrs. Sarah Condon, sisters of Mr. Kilgallen, were named in the will with bequests of $5,000 each.

CITY ASKED TO BOOST WAGES OF 9,000 EMPLOYES

They Want $2,500,000 More.

Representatives of fifteen groups of city employés, totaling between 8,000 and 9,000 men and women, appeared before the council finance comittee yesterday and asked for pay increases which would cost the city $2,500,000.

CLAYTON F. SMITH.
[Matzene Photo.]

As the pay boosts were being asked City Treasurer Smith was in conference with City Controller Harding in an attempt to find money to meet the city pay rolls for the remainder of January and the month of February.

No More I. O. U.'s.

Later Mr. Smith sent a letter to the finance committee saying that the corporate fund is in bad condition and that, having loaned the city $7,000,000 from trust funds to meet pay rolls, he will accept no more I. O. U.'s for further loans.

Clouds of gloom overspread the finance committee faces as the aldermen began the long siege of salary demands. In all fifty-five groups are to be heard.

Michael J. Faherty, "expert on experts," dispelled some of the gloom by jokingly telling the aldermen that he appeared as "president of the experts' union."

It Would Seem So.

"And if other business agents treated their men as I treat my experts there would be no need of a hearing of this sort," he added. He wants more for his staff, who last year received $2,742,666.

Oscar F. Nelson, vice president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, began the series of requests for raises by asking that a maximum pay of janitors be made $125 instead of $107 a month.

Ex-Patrolman Michael O'Connor for the patrolmen and George B. Hargan, business agent for the firemen, asked increases from $2,000 to $2,280 a year for these groups.

HOUSE PASSES ANTI-LYNCHING BILL, 230 TO 119

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—The house today declared itself in favor of the federal government exerting its authority to stamp out lynching, passing by a vote of 230 to 119 the Dyer anti-lynching bill.

Seventeen Republicans joined 102 Democrats in voting in the opposition, while eight Democrats and one Socialist, London, New York, voted with 221 Republicans in favor of the measure. Among the Democrats who voted in the affirmative was Rainey of Illinois.

The bill provides life imprisonment or lesser penalties for persons who participate in lynchings and for state, county, and municipal officials who fail through negligence to prevent them. The measure also stipulates that the county in which mobs form or kill any one shall forfeit $10,000 to the family of the victim.

Democratic opponents of the bill, defeated in attempts to recommit it to the judiciary committee and to strike out the enacting clause, made no concerted effort to have amendments adopted. They declared "the vicious principle of the bill" could not be changed by amendments.

During debate opponents of the measure declared it would be unconstitutional invasion of states' rights and would have a tendency to increase rather than decrease lynching.

Room for Everyone Now in Henrici's

The beautiful new second floor addition to this restaurant is now open—and there is room for all.

This new room is unquestionably one of the most beautiful restaurant rooms in all America. But there is no premium upon its beauty—the service and prices are the same as on the main floor.

Access is by commodious elevator service and by a broad flight of easy steps leading from within the main part of the ground floor space.

In communications to follow, there will be explanation as to how it is possible and why it has been thought advisable to deviate from the usual custom of restaurants under similar circumstances and to maintain uniformity of prices throughout.

THE TRIBUNE'S PLATFORM FOR CHICAGO

1—Build the Subway Now.

DOWN TO BUSINESS ON THE SEAWAY.

The President, it is officially announced in Washington, has directed Secretary Hughes to negotiate a treaty with Great Britain under which the United States and Canada can jointly undertake the building of a shipway from the lakes through the St. Lawrence river to the Atlantic. That is getting down to business. It marks the last step but one toward realization of the greatest single project yet conceived for the upbuilding of the material welfare of the middle west, and so of the nation.

Negotiation in this case is tantamount to completion of a treaty. It is merely a formal statement of provisions which both parties will be glad to approve. It can virtually be accepted as accomplished. The only thing remaining to be done then will be congressional authorization of the improvement. The discussion of the treaty which must precede its ratification by the senate should be of value in educating both the senators and the general public in the matter of advantages to the country at large to be derived from the canal. Congressional approval of the project and provision for financing it should follow logically.

President Harding has revealed a true understanding of his responsibilities in this matter. He has recognized the proposed sea route from lake ports to the markets of the world as a concrete benefit to the farmers, manufacturers, and consumers of a vast section of the country. He has recognized that what is to the material advantage of such a vast section of the country must more or less directly prove of advantage to the other sections. Just as depression and lack of production throughout the great producing area of the middle west would necessarily result in the business depression of New York and other coast ports and regions, so will prosperity and activity in this great interior area necessarily result in stimulating the prosperity of the coast sections. The President is the chief executive of the entire country, not of any section or sections. His attitude in this matter proves his realization of that point.

If the business men, politicians, senators, and representatives of New York state have equal intelligence and patriotism the thing will go through with a rush. They have been and are the chief opponents of the improvement. That is short-sighted. New York and all coast points want ships. Ships are vital to the prosperity of such regions. It is accepted that we cannot develop an American merchant marine without a subsidy. If we get the canal the interior will approve a subsidy, because then we can use the ships. If we do not get the canal, probably we will not approve the subsidy and New York or other coast ports will not have the ships. If we are one nation working to one end we will get the canal, the subsidy, and the ships. That will mean reasonable expectation of prosperity for all.

President Harding's action has revealed his appreciation of these facts. It is now up to New York and other coast ports which have hitherto opposed the seaway to show similar intelligence. The greatest step yet conceived for the material advancement of the country will then be taken.

CANADIAN-AMERICAN WEEK.

Students of economics are generally agreed that Canada and the United States naturally form an economic unit. The diversity of their resources and climate, particularly since the timber lands of the United States have been so largely depleted, are such as to make the two countries supplementary, if not interdependent. The line which separates us is purely political. Unrestricted, we can trade and associate with mutual profit and without undue advantage to either.

To bring about such mutually profitable and enjoyable relations the development most needed is a better understanding on each side of the line of the opportunities, the character, the purposes, and the ideals existing on the other side. Contact between the business and political leaders of both countries is the first requisite to such understanding.

A definite step toward creating and maintaining such contact is planned in the "Canadian-American week" program of the international organization of Kiwanis clubs. This program is intended to bring Canadian political and business leaders to American cities to speak, and send similarly equipped Americans to Canada for the same purpose. The address of George Ross, commissioner of finance of Toronto, in Chicago on "Why a Canadian-American week" is illustrative of the carrying out of this program. We cannot fail to learn much of Canada to our advantage through such addresses, and Canada cannot fail to learn much of the United States to her advantage through similar addresses. It is a sane, friendly, and wise attitude for two good neighbors to take for their mutual advantage. It deserves approval and encouragement.

FLIMFLAMMING FILM FANS.

We are in receipt of a letter from counsel for the Actors' Equity association supporting the position of that organization in favor of a high protective tariff upon moving picture films and opposing a recent TRIBUNE editorial which advocated a lower tariff to improve the quality and reduce the price to patrons of moving pictures in America.

Our correspondent points out, among other things, that lack of a protective tariff will take, as it is taking, leading American producers abroad with their stars where they can produce at much smaller overhead cost. He holds that this development will imperil the livelihood of some 250,000 persons in the United States, and that of these persons dependent upon the moving picture industry 80 per cent receive less than the average living wage. His conclusion, obviously, is that these thousands of workers, including minor actors, carpenters, painters, electricians, etc., should not be made so to suffer.

In such a contention, we believe, a most important point has been overlooked. That is that while thousands of Americans may be earning a living in this industry, millions are attending the shows which they produce. These millions have rights and are entitled to defense as much as the thousands. It is these patrons of the moving pictures, not the carpenters and ordinary actors, who have made possible the development of the industry on its present mammoth scale. They are entitled to the best possible pictures at the most reasonable possible cost. They built up the industry by patronizing it in the days of the "nickel show." Those days are past. If the industry cannot maintain itself now in the days of the 25 cent and 50 cent and $1 show that is unfortunate for it, but we do not believe the patrons of the movies should be punished therefor.

It is not necessary to seek a high tariff to protect the art in America. The fact that Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, and others are known throughout the world, regardless of tariffs anywhere, is sufficient indication that art can protect itself. Their fame was a logical result of their talents as movie actors. Any other movie actor who can reveal equal talent can obtain equal fame. If Americans cannot do it, we should welcome Europeans.

If "made in Europe" films are not good we will keep them out as effectively by refusing patronage as we could keep them out by a tariff. If they are good, we want them, and at a reasonable price, which the proposed tariff would not allow. Our interest is in the product and in those who buy it at the box office rather than in those who produce an inferior article at higher cost here.

AN OFFICIAL APPEAL TO PARENTS.

The superintendent of schools has made a special appeal to parents to help correct the social habits and conditions of our young folk. That he should find it necessary or advisable to do so is gravely significant, and it is to be hoped parents will be wakened by it to a greater sense of responsibility or at least a more thoughtful observation of what is going on than many of them are showing.

Supt. Mortenson's statement, in our opinion, is thoroughly wise. It is true that jazz music is vitiating to musical taste and an analysis of its effect upon the nervous system and that morale which is directly affected by nerve excitation would show, we think, that it is subtly demoralizing. Accompanying the modern dances its effect is naturally intensified. The dances themselves are of more than dubious origin and lend themselves to abuse.

Supt. Mortenson cites extreme dress, cigaret smoking, drinking, late hours, joy riding and such remarkable signs of unrestraint as the "petting party."

There is no inclination, we are sure, to impose a blue code on our young people. There is every wish that they should enjoy the wholesome possibilities of youth with its high spirits and need for pleasure. But we think Supt. Mortenson has done an important public service in challenging the parents upon excesses which their good nature and rather careless optimism condone or ignore. It is not the young who are to blame, but their elders who are shirking parental responsibilities. The schools can do little unless they are backed by discipline and control at home. At present it seems parents have adopted the theory that whatever is, is right, and quiet such doubts as they have with the easy evasion "everybody's doing it." This places the situation wholly in the keeping of the youth who are least responsible, and the effect upon habit and conduct, on manners and morals cannot be good.

Editorial of the Day

CROP INSURANCE.

[Richard Spillane in Philadelphia Public Ledger.]

Theodore H. Price, in an open letter to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, suggests the establishment by the government of crop insurance. He points out what the British and American governments did in the war period to insure vessels and cargoes. Without this insurance commerce would have been extremely hazardous. Insurance, he explains, is true socialism, distributing the losses of the few among the many without diminishing the incentive to private efforts.

The farmer, more than any other business man, is compelled to take extreme risks against which he now cannot protect himself. Why, he asks, should he not be able to buy indemnity against crop losses as well as against the loss of his home or his barn by fire? The idea is already partially applied in the issuance of hail and rain insurance, but never has been developed broadly.

While opposed to putting the government in business, Mr. Price sees no reason why Washington should not establish a crop insurance bureau from which the farmer could buy policies that would indemnify him for his actual expenditures and from which, after a few years, the larger insurance companies could obtain data upon which to base rates.

"I believe," he says, "crop insurance organized and conducted by the government would, in time, become highly profitable."

Mr. Price has had experience in the insurance field, having been the owner and president of a company and supervisor of the insurance bureau organized by the railroad administration in the war period to carry various fire and other risks of the railroads. He appreciates the possibilities of abuse of the facilities offered by crop insurance, but they do not, he declares, present obstacles that are insurmountable.

If he has done nothing else, Mr. Price has offered a suggestion worthy of earnest study. The farm today is the most speculative of major industries. To minimize the risk in any degree would be of great benefit, for if the farm does not prosper all other branches of industry are more or less affected.

ASSURANCE.

The woman who was doing her marketing was difficult to please. She had overhauled everything in the shop and insisted on getting the best in stock at a cent a pound cheaper than the market price, and now it was a question of eggs.

"Are you quite sure these eggs are fresh?" she asked.

"They are, madam."

"Will you guarantee them?"

"I will, madam."

"But how am I to know that you know that they are fresh?"

"My dear lady," replied the exhausted shopman, with decisive emphasis, "if you will kindly step to the telephone and ring up our farm, you will hear the hens that laid the eggs still cackling."—Detroit Free Press.

THE ARMY'S NEW PINK PANTS.

Near pink breeches for command officers, tailored uniforms for buck privates, and new jaunty service caps are changes, in the United States army dress, announced from Governor's Island.—Yesterday's Trib.

In France we caught a lot of things,
Cooties, the Flu, and the Apash dance;
We got most all what the Frogs did have;
And now we get their bright pink pants.

We got croy de gares, meddle militares,
And lived in extravagance;
We cleaned Monsheer, but we're going back,
And grab his nice pink pants.

The army's going to be doiled up,
Cause of what we saw in France.
Our generals won't be happy,
Till they get them new pink pants.

As fightin' men you bet we're there,
"Let's go," and off we prance,
But officers said we looked like hell,
They'd have to have pink pants.

We licked the Boche, and licked him right,
But still there was a chance
We would have done it quicker if—
The staff had had pink pants.

We'll no doubt hear again, of course,
Our officers say "Advance!".
We won't be ready, but anyways,
They'll have on them pink pants.

AND THEY CERTAINLY OUGHT TO KNOW IT IF IT FELL ON THEM.

(W. P. G. Harding, governor federal reserve board.)

The criticism of the Federal Reserve Bank building which is now being indulged in is premature. I think that fair-minded men would be inclined to await the completion of the building. They can then determine upon inspection whether there has been waste of money in its construction, whether it is larger than the requirements demand, and whether it is adapted for the purpose for which it was designed. Dear R. H. NEWS ABOUT THE LIVER.

THE chemicals which the liver makes or helps to make and which are absorbed directly into the blood stream are of far more importance to health than those which are thrown off under the name of bile.

Of these none is more important than urea.

This substance is the one great waste product which contains nitrogen. Whenever albumin burns up in the body the product of the combustion is urea.

Urea is found by the liver. Absorbed into the blood, it is carried to all parts of the body, and, finally, reaches the kidneys.

These organs are stimulated by the urea in the blood which reaches them and partly as a result of this stimulation the various substances which, grouped together, make up the urine are abstracted from the blood and thrown into the uriniferous tubules.

Urea makes up more than one-half the total solids of the urine.

If there is any disease which arises because the liver has fallen down on its job of making urea, or if there is any medicine by taking which the liver is made to make more urea, I have never heard of it.

Glycogen is another of the important chemicals with which the liver has to do. This substance is closely akin to sugar and starch.

In fact, it is a storage form of sugar—a form in which it is readily stored away in the liver cells equipped with handles by which it can be expeditiously picked up and carted away for any use found necessary.

And there are important uses for glycogen. It is the great source of heat and energy.

Comes a cold day, the liver shovels more glycogen into the fire.

Comes a need for great volume of work, great speed, or supreme exertion for a short time, more glycogen is used to meet the demand.

If fasting empties the coal pile at the furnace gate the liver (the coal bin) is drawn on for glycogen enough to keep things going.

Then there is the function of the liver in protecting the body against poisons absorbed in the intestines.

A man eats some overripe meat. The putrefaction products it contains are made harmless by the liver.

The Indians and the African Negroes eat putrid meats and thrive on them. You and I would be killed by them.

The answer: They have livers specially trained for the purpose.

Buzzards, lions, dogs go them one better still.

AT LAST! MA'S RIGHT.

Rose G. writes: "1. I eat an awful lot of salt, and mother says it is not good for me.

"2. Is it harmful?"

REPLY.

Mother is right, for much condiment of any sort is harmful. This includes salt. Also sugar.

NAUSEA OF PREGNANCY.

Mrs. E. J. F. writes: "I am a young woman of 23. Am pregnant going on four months. I vomit at night, sometimes before retiring, and sometimes while in bed."

REPLY.

Many women overcome the nausea of pregnancy by eating an unusual amount of bread, cereals and sweets.

They eat some crackers before arising in the morning, also between meals during the day, and at bed time.

BOTH ARE HARMFUL.

Mrs. J. F. K. writes: "1. My husband has been taking baking soda before and after meals to keep his stomach in order. Do you think it is injurious or not?

"2. Do Epsom salts affect a person in any way?"

REPLY.

1. This is a very injurious habit. It upsets the mineral balance of the stomach and ruins the digestion.

2. The frequent use of Epsom salts does great harm.

DEPENDS ON THE DANCING.

H. R. writes: "I have been afflicted with pulmonary tuberculosis for about nine months and have become very stout.

"What I would like to know is whether I can do outdoor skating. Also, is dancing harmful?

"I walk a great deal during the day and am afraid it is harmful."

REPLY.

You seem to be getting along first rate. Have your physician decide how much exercise you can take with safety and what kind.

DO YOU WALK STRAIGHT?

E. C. S. writes: "1. Will you kindly advise me whether eating fruit, dates, figs, and bran biscuits is harmful to one's health if eaten between meals?

"2. Is there any method of making one grow taller, as I am undersized?"

REPLY.

1. These are excellent health giving foods. However, it is not a good idea to keep the stomach working all the time. It is contrary to the rules of the union.

2. No.

NOT EVEN IN A DRUG STORE.

Miss B. writes: "Is there anything that can be bought at a drug store to help one overcome speech defects that are caused by nervousness?"

REPLY.

No.

FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE

Letters to this department must be signed with names and addresses of the writers.

WHY THE ALLEYS ARE DIRTY.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—[Friend of the People.]—I wish to say something about the condition of our and other alleys in the city. About six years ago rubbish and ashes were picked up every week by the city wagons. Now it is taken away about every six weeks. I pay for private scavenger service, but the property next door, which depends on the city, has ashes and garbage and rubbish out in the alley, and it keeps the autos busy dodging broken bottles and cans. I am practically paying double for scavenger service, as that is included in my taxes. They must have a bum law regarding service in alley cleaning.

SOUTH SHORE.

The standard of cleanliness for streets and alleys is established in accordance with the amount of money appropriated for cleaning purposes. Since 1916 our appropriation has increased 28½ per cent, while our expense on account of increased wages and team hire has gone up 83 per cent, giving us in effect $1,400,000 less in 1921 than we had in 1916. This in the face of added burdens of increased population and miles of new streets. It is obvious that the decreased appropriation means less frequent refuse collections and consequently poorer service.

THOMAS H. BYRNE,
Superintendent of Streets.

NO APPEAL.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—If a chief clerk for a railroad company is fitted and has the proper seniority to accept agency at a station and is discriminated against by assignment of an official pet has he the right to an appeal through the United States railroad labor board? M. J. C.

No. TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

NO FUNDS.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I cashed two checks, one for $75 and one for $25, for a friend on a Houston (Tex.) bank. They came back marked no funds with a $2.89 protest on each. What method must I pursue to collect the money due me? P. F. C.

If you have facts showing that the drawer knew that he did not have funds to meet the checks, report the facts to the state's attorney for prosecution. Otherwise employ an attorney to sue in civil courts.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

FIFTY DOLLAR BOARD BILL.

Gary, Ind., Jan. 22.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I am holding a gold watch and an overcoat for a man for a bill of $50 room and board ever since last June. At that time I was living in Chicago, have since moved to Gary, I have written and written to him about the bill, but receive no answer. Can I sell the goods without further notice or will I have to advertise it? H. H.

You have no technical right to sell without legal proceedings, but it may be your best course to take a chance. Depends largely on the value of the property, as compared with your bill, the facts bearing on the probability of his return, the possibility of sentiment attached to the property, etc. In the ordinary case, if he sued for the damages he sustained by your disposing of his property you could protect yourself by setting off your bill.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

OKLAHOMA LANDS.

Manitowoc, Wis., Jan. 23.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—Will you kindly give more in detail the Oklahoma plan of purchasing homes in lieu of its bonus to soldiers of which you made mention in last Sunday's TRIBUNE? How can one make application to benefit by the offer? I enlisted in Oklahoma City. M. A. M.

Oklahoma gives no bonus.

We cannot print the details of the plan in this limited space. Write for particulars to the secretary of state, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

IN BUSINESS FOR HIMSELF.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I am on the market to buy a small business. What legal proceedings are required to protect my investment? Is it necessary to have a lawyer? A. B.

We cannot advise to advantage without knowing the nature of the business. If you are buying a stock in trade you should comply with the bulk sales law. Probably it will be advisable to employ an attorney.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Writers should confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Give full names and addresses. No manuscripts can be returned. Address Voice of the People, The Tribune.

PERHAPS THE SUPREME COURT EVENTUALLY WILL ANSWER THIS.

Oak Park, Ill., Jan. 24.—The papers are full of the controversy regarding the street car fare of Chicago and there is one phase of it that I don't understand.

There was a time when the street railways needed more revenue and the commission so decided and granted an increased fare.

Immediately the city's attorneys protested and brought suit to forbid such an order and insisted the company fulfill the contract it had with the city. This was carried through the various courts and the commission's order was sustained, and finally the Supreme court handed down a decision that the commission had the authority in such cases and that the question involved was out of the jurisdiction of the court. That settled the increased fare and the people accepted the ruling as final.

Now this question arises and this is what I don't understand. The commission that had the authority to grant an increase, that was sustained because of the commission's authority, when this same commission ordered a reduction it did not have the authority. It's a poor rule that don't work both ways. Are the people to be the goat always?

MEDICAL PRACTICE.

Blue Island, Ill., Jan. 24.—Of all of the laws enacted for public welfare, none are more shamefully disregarded than the laws which were intended to protect the public against incompetent and illegal practitioners of medicine.

Health is our supreme and inalienable aim in life and its supervision and regulation should not be intrusted to those with such a limited professional training as to be unable to pass the required medical examination to obtain a license to practice some chosen profession of the healing art.

I dare say that the dumb brutes of Illinois have greater protection against incompetent and illegal veterinary practitioners than our people have against unlicensed and illegal practitioners of medicine.

From a logical and humane standpoint it would seem that those who choose to advise and treat human ailments should be required to obtain a license to practice or be amenable to prosecution for such vital misdemeanors. HOWCUM.

DISGUSTED.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 20.—The New York Times says Big Bill starts "war on crime; asks all Chicagoans to aid." Whatell? Why did signed letters in TRIBUNE, complaining of officers (whose numbers were given) who would not apprehend offenders when complainant was willing to sign complaint, go unnoticed? Bah! once, and a couple fudges.

SAFETY FOR PAY ROLL.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—I have been in the banking business a great many years and watch with interest the many raids on banks, pay roll transfers, etc. Why should pay rolls be transferred? Why not pay by check?

The insurance company should look to the protection of life and property and insist on such protection, but it is my experience that they care little for the financial loss, for it really does not come out of the company, for they get together and count up the loss in dollars and cents and simply add said loss to the premium that must be paid for protection. The competition for business is too sharp to induce protection, when they had better be busy getting new business that is satisfied.

Flint, Mich., has reduced her holdups 75 per cent by the organizing of a citizens' club to patrol the streets and shoot to kill when the circumstances warrant it. HENRY WALKER.

"HANDS UP!"

Chicago, Jan. 23.—THE TRIBUNE of Jan. 13 contained the most startling piece of journalism that has ever been flashed in a newspaper, and yet we Chicagoans, a million or more business men, family men, the respectable element, don't seem a bit stirred, which leads me to believe that as citizens we are singularly lacking in red blooded manhood.

In times gone by a kinglet, protector, or mayhap a mayor finding that his executive machinery was out of gear or inadequate and that he could no longer protect his subjects, vassals, or citizens from plunderers, marauders, and such, threw up his hands and the warning "sauve qui peut" was not unknown in those days—long before we had newspapers—but the danger was always from the outside—foreign invasions and such.

But it was left for THE TRIBUNE to announce and illustrate Chief Hughes' advice to us how to act when being held up, the first recorded instance where a duly accredited authority of a city confessed to that city's people that it could no longer protect them, and that against attacks from within! In days of old the authorities at least had the grace to warn their citizens to protect themselves; in this case the advice is to arm one's self in his store or office, but on the street one must run if an approaching figure seems to be a holdup artist, and if cornered then one must virtually lie down and roll over, offering not the slightest opposition. Ye gods, what times these be! And not a word of comment.

Why, if we had an ounce of red blood in us our chamber of commerce, athletic clubs, and other such organizations would arm themselves, volunteer in a body as auxiliary police, and go forth and smite the enemy. That a million or more of us should supinely submit to a few hundred usually amateurish and half scared louts is a sad commentary indeed upon our civic manhood.

The police force is not to blame. We are; we have allowed our courts to become mere parodies of justice, straw bail bondsmen to rule, and conditions generally to be sinfully abominable. And unless something drastic is done soon we will be advised to leave our banks and vaults and homes unlocked that robbers and bandits may not be put to the trouble of breaking in. And still we pay just about as much as the "traffic can stand" in taxes for this and that, among which is the protection of life and property! O tempora, O mores!

"THE DIRT FARMER NONSENSE."

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Just read the editorial entitled "The Dirt Farmer Nonsense" and hasten to write you.

I am a graduate of the college of agriculture, University of Illinois, and own my farm, which I have worked since 1912. I do not think the real thinking farmers are back of the organizers whom you have been listening to this last year. The real leaders (Dean Davenport type) and the safe farm papers (Breeders' Gazette type) have always been sound. A few professional organizers who did not know what they were doing have occupied the center of the stage and preached a lot of foolishness. Many editors and congressmen mistook this noise for a real farmer sentiment and catered to it, much to the disgust of the bulk of the farmers. Just because the majority remained in the background does not mean they were not there all the time. "Deep waters run still."

With a little encouragement some real farm leaders will come out and state the true conditions, and then we will take a long step toward getting straight again. Bravo! Stick by your stand; you are right at last. MATT PARKHURST.

HOFFMAN SLATED FOR SHERIFF ON CROWE TICKET

Anti-City Hall Factions Sifting Candidates.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

State's Attorney Crowe's faction picked up a lap yesterday in the go-as-you-please Republican primary race and named two more candidates for county jobs on its slate, to oppose the city hall all along the line. Deneen-Brundage leaders were in conferences that are to continue today over matters connected with their proposed anti-city hall slate that is now scheduled for completion early next week.

GEORGE K. SCHMIDT. [Hornby & Freiberg Photo.]

The Crowe selections, as announced by the state's attorney, following an all day confab of the seventeen former city hall committeemen, are these:

For sheriff—Coroner Peter M. Hoffman of the country towns.

For member board of review—George K. Schmidt of the Twenty-fifth ward, retiring member of the board of assessors.

Further details of the Crowe ticket are to be announced today. One thing determined yesterday was that there is to be no Crowe candidate for Probate judge. "Everybody is satisfied with Horner," Mr. Crowe said, "so why make a fight against him?"

"We decided today," the state's attorney added, "to support to the limit any candidate the Deneen-Brundage combination enters against County Judge Righeimer."

Olson Could Have Place.

Brundage-Deneen discussions center around the County judgeship. If Edwin A. Olson, a Brundage man, wishes to make the race again, the place undoubtedly is his, and a decision is to be reached today. Probabilities are strong that he will decline.

Agreement has been reached to reslate retiring Republicans, including John F. Devine for clerk of the Probate court, Edward R. Litsinger for board of review, and a candidate for sheriff to succeed Sheriff Peters, who cannot succeed himself, all from the Deneen wing.

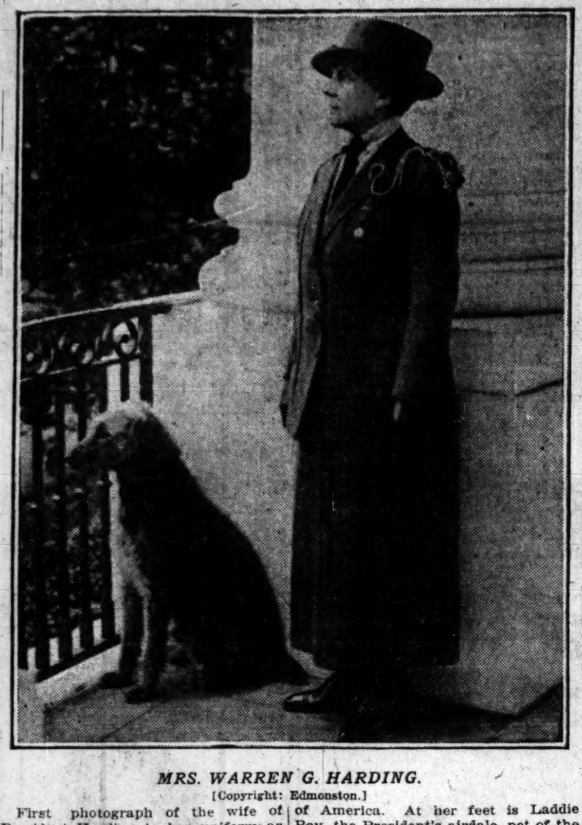

Parker to Be Reslated.

From the Brundage camp William R. Parker, clerk of the Criminal court, is already reslated. To Brundage undoubtedly will be allotted candidates for judge of the Probate court, member of the board of assessors, and two of the "big four" offices, one of which may be the county judge.

The proposition is to cut the county board fifty-fifty, with one Brundage and two Deneen men for the sanitary district board.

No further negotiations were reported as between the Brundage-Deneen and the Crowe headquarters.

POLITICAL NOTES

William P. Holaday of Georgetown has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for congress in the Danville district—Uncle Joe Cannon's—and has started his campaign. It is said this action was not taken without a definite understanding that Mr. Cannon does not desire a renomination.

Edward E. Adams, Republican of Taylorville, won the special election for the constitutional convention in the Fortieth district over Francis M. Guinn, Democrat of Vandalia, by a vote of 1,875 to 1,833, by the official returns. In the six special elections, the Republicans won five of the seats and the Democrats one, a net gain of two Republican places.

Lawrence H. Oldon of the Fourteenth ward, was announced yesterday as a candidate for Republican nomination for the house of representatives in the Twenty-first senatorial district. George H. Fischer, former sergeant in Motor Company No. 11, M. C., is a candidate for the Republican house nomination in the First senatorial district.

Niels Juul, former congressman, now collector of customs, is to be honor guest at a dinner to be given by 600 Republicans next Thursday night at Hotel Sherman.

GUESTS FLEE IN HOTEL FIRE.

Long Beach, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Hotel Nassau on the board walk was damaged today and 200 guests had to abandon their rooms when a fire destroyed two adjoining frame structures. Total damage of the fire was estimated at $100,000.

DEMOCRATS RUSH TO HEAR MAYOR ON TRACTION BILL

BY PARKE BROWN.

Mayor Thompson's offer, regardless of party, qualifications, or records—to throw his support to all legislators who voted for his "transportation district" bill in the last session was extended yesterday to a number of state senators and representatives at a meeting in his office.

He invited all the Cook county men who voted with him last year, and politically the surprise of the occasion was the alacrity with which most of the Democrats on his list hurried to his office. To their friends they tried to explain that this step did not make them "Thompson Democrats," as they had construed the invitation to be an offer of help from the Republican side if they "went along" and a threat to oppose them if they balked.

Contend They Are Not Bound.

They further argued that the meeting did not in any way constitute an alliance which would bind them to the city hall's legislative program in the next session. But before they left the mayor's office they had been compelled at least tacitly to pledge themselves to vote for the mayor's traction bill again.

Democrats seen at the meeting, or reported to have been present for a part of the session at least, included the following senators:

Dist.		Dist.
9	P. J. Carroll.	17	E. J. Gladden
15	J. J. Bohm.	19	John T. Denvir.

Democratic representatives seen there or reported to have been present were:

Dist.		Dist.
1	John Griffin.	17	Charles Cola.
5	John F. Healy.	19	John F. Berry.
6	Robert E. Wilson.	27	Joseph Petlak.
7	J. W. McCarthy.		Jos. A. Trandel.
9	Joseph Placek.	29	L. C. O'Brien.
11	Frank J. Ryan.

Here's the Mayor's Offer.

In painstakingly reading a prepared manuscript, the contents of which had been published in advance, the mayor made his offer in this language:

"I want every member of the house and senate to know that I stand ready to support, irrespective of party, the men who voted with the people when this legislation was on roll call in the house and senate at Springfield."

WOMEN ORGANIZE TO GET PLACES ON COUNTY BOARD

Form Nonpolitical Committee.

Representative women of Cook county, regardless of politics, got together yesterday in an independent movement to crystallize all available voting strength to secure the election of women to the Cook county board of commissioners.

GRACE E. TEMPLE. [Maizene Photo.]

While the "woman's citizens' committee," as announced by Miss Grace E. Temple, president of the Chicago Woman's club, was being formed political headquarters where primary slates are under discussion were besieged by women active in the respective political organizations.

The Regular Democratic Women's ward organization, through a committee of seven, submitted to the Committee of Fifteen the names of four woman candidates for county commissioners from the city and two from the country towns and four candidates for Municipal court judge.

Mrs. Bass Withdraws.

Mrs. George Bass, one of those recommended for county commissioner, later withdrew her name. Mrs. Bass is one of the signatories to the resolutions bringing forward the "woman's citizens' committee."

In the Deneen-Brundage Republican camp, plans were reported in the making to slate a woman for county superintendent or schools in addition to places on the county board ticket.

These on Committee.

The "joint voluntary committee of clubwomen," announced last night by Miss Temple, includes these women: Miss Grace E. Temple, Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen, Mrs. Edward Gudeman, Mrs. Henry W. Cheney, Mrs. George Mathes, Mrs. Robert B. Ennis, Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, Mrs. George Bass, Mrs. Harold L. Ickes, Miss Harriett Vittum, Mrs. A. C. Tyler, Mrs. George R. Dean, and Mrs. W. S. Hefferan.

The resolutions state the committee indorses the "candidature of women for election to any public office for which they are qualified," and stands for "the selection of all candidates, men or women, on the basis of fitness for the particular office to be filled." They conclude:

"We are convinced the board of commissioners more than any other governmental function needs women in its membership, because it has in its immediate charge all the dependents of the county, including those in the county hospital, the poor in Oak Forest, the insane at Dunning, and wards of the Juvenile court system."

Bandits Loot Mail Sacks at Station in Colorado

Berthoud, Colo., Jan. 26.—Bandits last night broke into the Berthoud depot and rifled fourteen pouches of mail which were awaiting outbound trains. The pouches contained dozens of registered parcels, officials said. The loss has not been estimated.

'ORPHANS OF THE STORM'

It was adapted from "THE TWO ORPHANS" by arrangement with Kate Claxton. The stage play has been presented in America alone over one hundred thousand times, and nearly every country in the world has thrilled with the romance of the old story.

Mr. Griffith has endeavored to develop the French revolutionary background of the story so that the film version may have a broader appeal. To do this he built a replica of Paris at the time, and reproduced a revolution which cost more than the original.

It took enough electricity to light Chicago for a day; enough building materials to erect a skyscraper; and has as many people in it as pass a State street corner Saturday afternoon.

It is a spectacular drama, but not a spectacle!

It is fresh and vigorous!

It is timely, yet permanent!

It is decent, clean, inspiring!

It is an effort to tell more than a petty story of idle men and restless women!

"Those Who Dance Must Pay The Fiddler"

There's a settlement in profit or loss, for nearly every indulgence.

Sometimes the pay-day is long deferred, and in that case the settlement may bear compound interest.

Often a payment in ill health is required for the dance had with tea or coffee during earlier years. Sometimes the collection comes in sleeplessness, sometimes in headaches, sometimes in high blood pressure, or in nervous indigestion—sometimes in all these penalties.

Nerves won't always stand the whipping of tea and coffee's drug, caffeine.

If you've been dancing to tea or coffee's fiddling, why keep on till payment time comes? If you're beginning to pay, now, why not cancel the contract?

There's an easy and pleasant way to avoid tea and coffee's penalties, as thousands have found who have changed to Postum. It is a delight with any meal—rich, comforting and satisfying—and it never harms. Even the little children can have a breakfast cup of Postum, with no fear for what may happen to sensitive nerves.

Instead of paying penalties for your meal-time drink, let it pay benefits to you, by giving natural health a full chance—and begin the new arrangement today. Any grocer will sell you, or any good restaurant will serve you Postum.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Be Sure You Get a Full Pound

You used to ask for a large can of baking powder and get 16 oz.—a full pound. You can't depend on getting a full pound today because some baking powders are now put up in 12 oz. or 3/4 pound cans, and are 4 oz. short of a pound.

Never ask for a can of baking powder — always say "give me 16 oz., or full pound."

A large can of Calumet always did and still does contain 16 oz. or a full pound.

Form the habit of careful buying—be sure you get full value for your money.

Calumet lasts longer and goes farther—you save when you buy it—you save when you use it.

Don't regret — use Calumet.

The more you tell the quicker you sell!

·THE · TRIBUNE'S · WANT · AD · SLOGAN·

MRS. W—— will testify to the wisdom of The Tribune's Want Ad slogan, "the more you tell, the quicker you sell." She had been running this Want Ad in the Board & Lodging classification for a week and had received but two phone calls, neither of which amounted to anything:

PARK-AV., —. 3D—LRG. PLEAS.; NR. Garf. Pk.; excel. table; best trans. Kedzie 000.

A Tribune Adtaker phoned her—asked a few questions—and between the two of them they rewrote the Want Ad. It seems that not only was the apartment "large, pleasant, and near Garfield Park"; but there were three rooms, living room, bedroom, and a model kitchen; two beds completely furnished; just the place for four girls to get together, share the expense, and have a fine, cozy time of it! But her Want Ad had not contained a word of this information, so necessary if any one was to know just what she was offering!

PARK-AV., —. 3D—TO RENT—3 ROOM apt.; real kitch., pantry, ice box, porcelain sink, porch, liv. rm. and bedrm., 2 beds comp. furn.; suit. for club of 4 girls; very desir.; $5 per week each. Kedzie —.

This was the Want Ad as rewritten. Where the first ad had run for a week without results, this one rented the place the day it appeared! The reason is simple: the market was there; the apartment was a good one; the price reasonable; it remained for Mrs. W—— to tell it right! When she did, she got results. The more you tell, the quicker you sell!

WHEN YOUR SPINE "JIGGLES" PLAY IS GOOD, SAYS CRITIC

Stevens Tells Medillians How to Judge Drama.

BY EYE WITNESS.

Young Ashton Stevens had a success at Medill School of Journalism last night.

He talked to standing room only, and he made them laugh in his first sentence, repeating that compulsion about every 100 words thereafter in a total of 5,000. So he was satisfied, because, old showman in words and in thoughts as he is, he knows that when you make them laugh you also are making them listen.

The audience, even the part perched on window ledges and earing in at doorways, was satisfied, too, because every time it laughed it was conscious of a thought behind the laugh.

Epitome of Two Secrets.

Young Ashton Stevens (about 50 years young I should say) is an untired, unvexed epitome of two important secrets of successful journalism. The first is that any man tremendously interested in his work can make that work interesting to anybody. The second is Keep Young. New subscribers are always being born. Old Subscriber seldom dies, but he does not necessarily make a majority.

Young Ashton spoke from the point of view of twenty-five years of dramatic criticism—that was his subject, "Dramatic Criticism for a Daily"—and you would have thought that he was just beginning to feel himself firmly in the saddle and riding pretty. He did not tell them that the stage castle is only painted cloth and that the leading lady does not really die.

No, it was more like this:

"If you, boys and girls, are anything like the reporter who is talking to you it will be your spine which will tell you when you have met a master play. I've found that my spinal column is the best dramatic critic in my family. When it thrills, when it jiggles, I ask no further proof. Something good has happened in the theater."

He Was Old Once.

And yet he was old once—long, long ago. He confessed it—thus:

"I remember when first I thrilled to the acting of McIntyre and Heath in their vaudeville sketch called "The Georgia Minstrels." But I didn't have sense enough to let my spinal column thrill in my dramatic column. I was more than half my adult life a professional critic before I had enough theater-sense to know that McIntyre and Heath's hard-luck Negroes were as important to the stage as Forbes-Robertson's Dane. McIntyre and Heath are the Old Masters of the only school of comedy acting ever born in this country. They are as original as the banjo of Mark Twain. They might be creations of Mark Twain."

Once young Ashton—then old Ashton—had signal proof that "the good critic is the good reporter," that "a good criticism is a good 'story.'" One night he was caught in "a near fire and a nearer panic" at a theater and was the only eye witness present for his paper. Then he found out how good you've got to be to be a good reporter; how you have to have eyes, ears, nose, and throat; how, in short, you "have to be all there." Next morning he read the fire-panic criticism of his hated rival, and——

As Reporter to Reporter.

"I found out from its score of excellencies, its point of view, its nervous, unpainted language, its straight, dramatic drive, why he was a better dramatic critic than I was. He had been, he was, a reporter. Ever since that night I've tried to be a reporter in the theater, and I'm talking to you tonight as reporter to reporter."

Such was the fresh, frank, untired point of view of our friend of the Herald and Examiner.

For the rest of his S. R. O. discourse, a few sentences must suffice:

Know, if God gives you patience, the dramatic critics all the way from the burnished William Hazlitt to the varnished George Jean Nathan, but don't obtrude your culture. It will show by implication, for your culture is yourself.

Don't leave it to the weeklies and monthlies to report the production of a new master play. That story is all the more thrilling for having in it the most magical pair of words in the vocabulary of journalism—"last night."

It won't hurt you in the appraising of plays to write a play yourself. Of course you can destroy it. You can make that your first good deed as a drama critic.

Honesty is dramatic criticism's first value to a newspaper. Honesty is dramatic criticism's box score—and you know how long a newspaper could fool its readers with false box scores.

Try things on the stage for what they try to be.

The American stage is like the American newspaper—a little bit of everything.

And, toward parting time, young Ashton left with the impending Greeleys this deathless recipe for good acting that Beerbohm Tree had given him: "Be natural and keep your vowels open."

RED HARANGUES PASSE NOW WITH CITY'S FLOATERS

Unfortunates Realize All World's in a Pickle.

This is the third in a series of articles by Mr. Evans recounting his observations among the "floaters" in the west side flop and lodging house district, his material being gained first hand during three days and nights he lived among them.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

The torch of radicalism among Chicago's 20,000 "floaters" this year seems to have been blown out. The sojourner among them finds little of the "spirit of unrest." The old "seething discontent among the submerged tenth" that used to work like yeast in other periods of depression no longer does the keynoting.

The "reds" seem to have vanished or to have been struck dumb. Not even the "sunset pinks" appear to draw an audience. In three days in the "flops," the "scratch houses," the Bible missions, and the cheap lodging houses and hotels only two "wobbly" lecturers were observed spreading their stuff. In each case the response from the groups around the hot stove was, "Aw, where d'ye get that stuff?"

Jobs the Main Topic.

What they are talking about now is the search for a job, how to get the next dime, or where the best flop and eats can be had for the least cost. The pressing problem of "getting by" absorbs their attention. One hears groups devoting almost as much discussion to the elusive dime as Secretary Mellon gives to the soldiers' bonus or adjusted compensation.

In other slumps—from the early '90s to the sag of 1914-'15—one used to hear much talk among them against "the capitalist system." The unemployed spoke vaguely of a "revolution" in the brew. In 1918 at Fargo and Bismarck, N. D., at Omaha, Chicago, and elsewhere, one heard them talking of "proletarian control."

In 1919, in the time of the Seattle and Winnipeg troubles, the "one big union" took the sweepstakes in the patter talk. But this year, with the fat in the fire, moderation tones the talk.

Whole World in Pickle.

What they are saying is that the whole world is in a pickle just now and that America is better off than other countries. "We're up against it hard, but nobody is actually starving yet," they say. "Things will mend in the spring, if only we can get by till then."

A better articulation of industries to avoid peaks and valleys of employment, better distribution of work, a real agency to connect the floating worker with the casual or seasonal job are some things many are talking about. Another is the formation by governments, state, federal, or municipal, of greater reservoirs of employment on public improvements for dull seasons.

"This country has got to have some fluid labor," remarked a coal heaver at the Dawes hotel. "Without the floater, where would the farmer get off at harvest time, or the logging camps in the winter, or the railroads? We seem to get these slumps every few years; it's up and down like the ocean. Something ought to be done to straighten things out to make employment more even. Then land the man at the job as the season comes along at the least expense for transportation and the least time lost."

(They talk like ordinary folks down in the flop district—one hears little of the jargon and argot so beloved of the magazine writers.)

OIL MEN WANT TO "BLACKBALL" MEXICO, CHARGE

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—Congressional investigation of charges that an "extensive campaign of propaganda," has been waged in both the United States and Mexico by "agents and representatives of certain American oil interests" for the purpose of "discrediting the present government of Mexico and preventing its recognition by the United States," was called for today in a resolution introduced by Representative Connally, Democrat, Texas.

Mr. Connally proposed that the house foreign affairs committee make an exhaustive inquiry into the personnel and activities of the National Association for the Protection of American Rights in Mexico, and the Association of American Owners of Land in Mexico.

CLEVELAND ASKS NEW OBSTACLE TO BUYING OF CARS

Would Rescind Order of Old Board.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

More than two years ago the city controller, on advice of Special City Counsel Chester E. Cleveland, refused to sign bonds of the Chicago Railways company. And he has refused to sign any since.

W. H. SEXTON.

The railways company has charged that this refusal has hampered in it obtaining money for new cars, extensions, and other additions to its property, because it cannot sell its bonds until countersigned by the city controller, as its franchise provides.

Because of this attitude on the part of the city administration and also because the company's bonds were selling around 65 the old state utilities commission issued an order in July, 1920, permitting the company to use the money it would otherwise pay into its depreciation and renewal fund to purchase new cars. Accordingly it has purchased 101 new trailers and about a dozen one man cars. For these there was expended $751,660. This information is shown in the sworn evidence before the Illinois commerce commission.

Order Practice Stopped.

In entering its order for a 5 cent fare the commission decreed that no payments should be made into the renewal fund until the further order of the commission, because the commission asserted that the $11,672,598 then in that fund was sufficient to take care of the immediate needs of the surface lines. Federal Judges Carpenter, Evans, and Page enjoined the enforcement of that part of the commission's order. The judges held that the surface lines have a property right in that fund which cannot be denied them.

S. A. FOSTER.

The commission in its order for a nickel urged cooperation between the city and the companies and suggested that the city authorize the issuance of securities as provided by the franchise ordinance.

Now it develops that Chester E. Cleveland desires that the commission shall rescind the order of the old utilities commission. He recommends this in his petition for a reopening of the 5 cent fare case.

Would Handicap Lines.

If the commission approves of that request, the Chicago Railways company will be in a tighter position than at present to get money for new cars, extensions, or other added facilities. The rerouting plan, which goes into effect next Sunday, by which more cars can be placed on the tracks, will be a joke unless the companies put more cars into service and provide more seats. One of the chief complaints of the city administration and the commission is against the service of the surface lines.

While the fight goes on, the present 8 cent fare and service continues, and little progress has been made towards getting rapid transit facilities for the community.

However, the local transportation committee of the city council decided yesterday to employ three lawyers to advise it whether a transportation program can be worked out without additional legislation. These lawyers are: Stephen A. Foster, former Municipal judge; William H. Sexton, former corporation counsel, and Jerome Frank. They are to be paid $125 a day.

Now's the time of year when revised prices not only serve to keep things humming, but afford a good chance to replenish a fellow's wardrobe!

BRITONS SEEK TO LURE JACK INTO CARPENTIER BOUT

TRIBUNE DECISIONS

Decisions of The Tribune boxing representatives are:

At Sioux City, Ia.—Pal Moore beat Earl McArthur [10]; Connie Currie knocked out Duke De Val, [4].

At Janesville, Wis.—Bobby Ward beat Norman Benz, [10]; Frankie Kick beat Al Dale, [10]; Jack Keating stopped Charley Riley, [2]; Buck Mullen beat Leo Trainer, [6].

At Baltimore, Md.—Johnny Dundee beat Frankie Rice, [12].

New York, Jan. 26.—A purse "equal to the one he received for the Jersey City fight last summer" has been offered Jack Dempsey for a second bout with Georges Carpentier in London in July, Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, announced tonight.

JACK KEARNS. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Dempsey's share in the championship fight with the Frenchman July 2 last was said to have been $300,000, the largest stake ever offered a pugilist. Carpentier's share was $200,000.

"This offer, of course, is more than tempting," Kearns said, "and I will announce my decision soon."

The London offer was made by a syndicate of sportsmen, Kearns said. It came on the heels of a message from William A. Brady expressing his desire to match Dempsey and Harry Wills in London.

BRADY OFFERS $200,000

BY HARRY NEWMAN.

New York, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—It begins to look more and more like a Dempsey-Wills match every day. Along comes Billy Brady, famed theatrical manager, with the announcement today that he stands ready to offer a purse of $200,000 for Dempsey and Wills to do some boxing for the heavyweight championship of the world. Brady is no stranger to the fistic game, having during his long public career managed such great fighters as Jim Corbett and Jim Jeffries.

Brady is sincere in the belief that there is a public demand for a match between the colored champion and the big Utah mauler. The offer of $200,000, he thinks, is much more than Dempsey could hope to gather for a return battle with Georges Carpentier, which has been suggested for London next summer.

Wills to Box Norfolk.

A match was made today which may lead up to a definite arrangement for the Wills-Dempsey contest. Tex Rickard signed up Wills and Kid Norfolk to do battle in the garden for fifteen rounds on Thursday, March 2. No doubt the winner of this bout will be selected as the logical candidate to oppose Dempsey for the proposed big match.

Rickard announced after completing the necessary details for the Norfolk-Wills bout that he might revise his opinion about a mixed match and that if the public desired it he would be very glad to have Dempsey matched with the winner of the Norfolk-Wills bout.

TATE'S MANAGER SPEAKS

When informed last night that New York promoters were bidding on a match between Dempsey and Wills, Kid Howard, manager of Bill Tate, colored heavyweight champion, spouted right out loud.

"Bill Tate is colored heavyweight champion of the world by virtue of a win over Wills recently in Portland, Ore." the Kid said, "and should have first consideration when it comes to a mixed match for the championship. Tate can whip Wills any time they step into the ring and, regardless of my man's connection with the Dempsey camp on various occasions, he would give a tiptop account of himself with the champion.

"Tate's victory over Wills has given the big fellow the confidence he lacked before. He is ripe for the big show, and as manager of the colored heavyweight champion I contend that he should be given the first chance if Dempsey agrees to a mixed match."

$50,000 IS PAID FOR R. PECKINPAUGH

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—Cash to the amount of $50,000 was involved in the deal by which the Washington club of the American league acquired the services of Roger Peckinpaugh, veteran shortstop, Clark C. Griffith, president of the club, announced in an address today before the Kiwanis club.

Other considerations in the deal, he told the club, were the transfer of Frank O'Rourke to Boston, which held Peckinpaugh's contract, and José Acosta and "Bing" Miller to the Philadelphia Athletics.

Griffith did not say whether the $50,000 was divided between the Boston and Philadelphia clubs or went to only one of them.

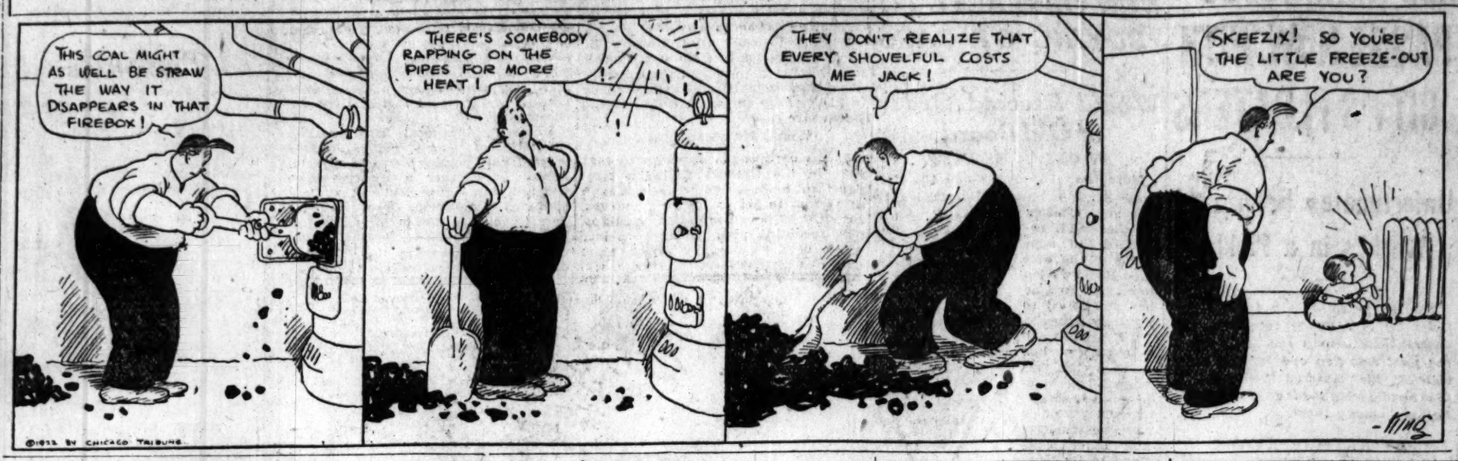

ENGEL DEFEATS PREHN IN MAT GO

Dubuque, Ia., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—Heinie Engel, Dubuque middleweight wrestling champion, defeated Paul Prehn, wrestling instructor at Illinois, in two straight falls in their match here tonight. Engel took the first fall in fifty-two minutes with a reverse wristlock and the second in seven minutes with a head scissors and arm lock. It was the hardest match on record here.

Lou Talaber to Wrestle with Cy Martin Tonight

Lou Talaber, contender for the middleweight title held by Johnny Meyers, and Cy Martin of the west side, will take holds in the main bout of the wrestling show to be staged by the North Side A. C. at Wicker Park hall tonight. In another contest of importance Adam Weismueller will meet Tommy Cannon, wresling partner of Meyers. The contests will be conducted under the White rules, and the first match will start at 8:15 o'clock.

GASOLINE ALLEY—A LITTLE SERVICE, PLEASE

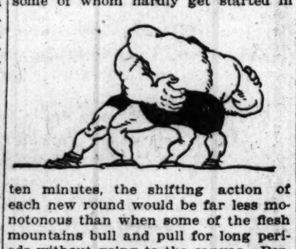

IN the WAKE of the NEWS

WRESTLING BY ROUNDS.

WRESTLING for ten minute periods instead of until a fall is secured proved satisfactory in Wednesday night's show. This was partially because Meyers threw Kilonis in the fourth round. If they had gone the full fifteen rounds—two and one-half hours of wrestling—without a fall it probably would not have been quite as satisfactory to the crowd. On the other hand, even if the bout had gone the limit, there would have been a decision of winner or loser.

While we think wrestling by rounds is better adapted to lightweights and middleweights than to heavyweights, some of whom hardly get started in ten minutes, the shifting action of each new round would be far less monotonous than when some of the flesh mountains bull and pull for long periods without going to the canvas. Perhaps the new rules have not had sufficient test, but The Wake approves the thought back of them.

We are one of those who think managers and promoters have been more at fault in discrediting the mat game than the grapplers themselves.

The Sassy Sassafras.

[Dedicated to Lonnie.]

O Son! Go on! You make me laugh
With all this anti-suffrage chaff.
You do not mean those words at all—
You love the ladies, short or tall.
You're finding fault, but there's a reason,
And that's because it's just the season
When that magician, Gentle Spring,
Is waiting for his chance to bring
The thawing hand to all those mumbles
Which Winter freezes into grumbles.
Then your complaints will melt away,
Your thoughts and poems be more gay,
For ALL of Nature's best display
Will please you—just because it's May.

And, say, if Harvey lets this pass—
I'd recommend some sassafras. Maxie.

Comiskey in San Francisco; Cancels Honolulu Trip

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 26.—Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox baseball team, is in San Francisco on his way to Paso Robles, Cal. Mr. Comiskey had intended going to Honolulu this spring, but canceled the trip on account of his wife's health.

LANGFORD TRAINING SCHAEFFER FOR BOUT

When Frankie Schaeffer of the south side trades punches with Joe Burman of the west side, in Kenosha, Wis., on Feb. 3, Schaeffer will be a more finished fighter than his friends have been accustomed to seeing.

This was the statement made yesterday by Sam Langford, veteran of many hard ring battles, who will prepare Frankie for this contest. According to Langford, the south side battler can sock with his right hand, but he does not know how to use it for protection. Sam also stated that Frankie does not know much about leading with his left and working his man into a position to cross the right. The colored fighter asserted he will remedy these weaknesses before the fight.

Burman Out for Kayo.

When Burman learned of Langford's intentions, he merely stated Sam had better teach Schaeffer to protect his jaw because he intends to start several blows in that direction. Burman is satisfied to go along and slug with sparring partners every day at the Arcade and believes he will be the winner inside of ten rounds.

There is a brisk demand for tickets, especially around the stockyards, where Schaeffer is a strong favorite. Seats will be on sale today at 153 N. Clark street, where Sammy Wolfe has the exclusive loop sale.

Bouts on Commodore Tonight.

Local fistic fans will wend their way across the Randolph street viaduct tonight to see the ten round bout between Johnny Schauer of St. Paul and Otto Wallace of Milwaukee, feature of the boxing show to be staged by the naval post of the American Legion aboard the U. S. S. Commodore. The main event will be supported by three other contests.

Sailor Freedman and Manager Miller leave today for the east where Sailor will complete training for his twelve round bout with Benny Cohen in Newark on Feb. 3. Freedman will stop off in Philadelphia to close a pending match with Bobby Barrett for Feb. 13.

Jack Duffy, local middleweight, who will meet Goats Doig of Spring Valley in the main even of Jimmy Keyes' show at La Salle on Feb. 2, is training daily at the Arcade. Jack boxed six rounds yesterday with two different sparring partners and went at a fast clip all the way.

Mullen to Manage Mason.

Frankie Mason, Fort Wayne, Ind., flyweight, has placed himself under the management of Jim Mullen. Frankie may be one of the principals in the semi-windup to the Schaeffer-Burman fight at Kenosha.

FARM AND GARDEN BY FRANK RIDGWAY

USE ALARM CLOCK TO WAKE HENS AND SNAP ON LIGHTS.

IT'S easy to double the production of eggs in your flock by using lights. Dozens of letters have been written by flock owners to the "Farm and Garden" department during the last few days, telling how an electric light or a lantern has caused their hens to shell out the eggs in cold weather. James Winston Taylor, Rochester, Wis., writes that his thirty-three hens were loafing along, laying one or two eggs a day. He put lights in his henhouse several weeks ago and is now getting from twenty to twenty-seven eggs a day.

Mr. Taylor does not have to worry about getting up early so that his hens will put in a full day's work. He uses an alarm clock, which is attached to the light switch in the henhouse. The alarm goes off at 4 o'clock each morning, turning on the electric lights, and every hen rolls off the roost and begins digging in the litter for her feed.

As soon as it begins to get dark the lights are turned on again and left on until 7 o'clock.

"We feed our hens all they will eat in the evening just before we turn off the lights," Mr. Taylor writes. "After the lights are turned off at night we throw around a mixture of corn, oats, buckwheat, etc., on the floor of the henhouse. We keep dry laying mash and oyster shells and plenty of fresh water where the hens can help themselves all day."

EVELETH HOCKEYS WIN.

Eveleth, Minn. Jan. 26.—The Eveleth hockey sextet, in a clean, fast game, won from Fort William, 9 to 6, here tonight.

'CAP' ANSON TO PILOT DIXMOOR GOLF CLUB

Capt. Adrian C. Anson, veteran baseball player, trap shooter, billiardist, bowler, golfer and vaudeville artist, is to branch out in a new sphere, having been engaged as manager of the course and clubhouse of the new Dixmoor Golf club.

"CAP" ANSON. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

The club is located on the Dixie highway at 175th street, just south of the new Calumet Country club.

Construction of the course will start in the spring, and it is expected it will be ready for play by Aug. 1, at which time Anson will assume his duties. Meanwhile he is interested in promoting the membership.

The captain never went into any branch of sport that he did not work hard at, and he admits that of all the games he has tried golf has given him the most bother. But for a number of years, except when on his theatrical tours, he has played golf almost daily through the summer.

The club membership is filling rapidly and it looks as if the limit will be reached within the next sixty days. While the general public will be allowed to play the first five days of the week, only members will be permitted on Saturdays and Sundays.

PAL MOORE FINDS AN EASY VICTIM IN EARL M'ARTHUR

Sioux City, Ia., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—Pal Moore of Chicago had a wide margin over Earl McArthur of this city in their ten round bout tonight. Moore hit McArthur at will, though he lacked power behind his punches to land the desired k. o.

McArthur was aggressive early in the contest, hoping to land one of his sleep producers.

Toward the end of the bout he showed the effect of the Chicagoan's constant pecking. Moore, however, showed as much pep in the last round as in the first stanza. It is doubtful if McArthur could have stood the strain much longer.

GARDNER-LINN LOSE IN FIRST RACKETS PLAY

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 26.—Two New York teams, one from Chicago and one from Philadelphia survived the first round matches today in the national racquets doubles championship tournament, all the victors winning their contests comparatively easy.

BOB GARDNER. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

C. C. Pell and Stanley Mortimer, New York, the title holders, defeated Robert A. Gardner and Howard Linn, Chicago, 17—7, 15—9, 15—8; Jay Gould and J. W. Wear, Philadelphia, former champions, eliminated Roger Cutler and Hewitt Morgan, New York, 15—7, 18—14, 15—10; F. T. Frelinghuysen and Maurice Heckscher, New York, beat Stanley W. Pearson and Charles Bromley, Philadelphia, 6—15, 15—5, 15—5, 15—4, and H. L. Dixon and E. H. Reynold, Chicago, won by default from Fulton Cutting and partner, New York.

In one of the semi-finals tomorrow Pell and Mortimer will meet Frelinghuysen and Heckscher, and in the other Gould and Wear will play Dixon and Reynolds.

The final round will be played Saturday.

McWHIRTER WINS NATIONAL TITLE IN SKATE RACES

Plattsburg, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Roy McWhirter of the Alverno A. A. of Chicago won the national outdoor skating championship here today, with a total of 110 points. Charles Jewstraw of Lake Placid was second with 80, and Richard ("Duke") Donovan of St. Paul, third, with 50.

Other Point Winners.

The other point winners in the senior events for the three days' meet, which closed today, were:

Fred Buendgen, Chicago, 40; Charles Gorman, St. John, N. B., 20; William Murphy, New York, 20; Joe Moore, New York, 20; Edward Gloster, Toronto, 20.

Juniors who won points:

SIXTEEN YEAR OLD CLASS—Orlie Green, Saranac Lake, 80; Edward Reed, Chicago, 70; Harold Fortune, Lake Placid, 40; Earl Norton, Saranac Lake, 20; John Darrah, Lake Placid, 10; Richard Bloomfield, Montreal, 10; William A. Smith, Montreal, 10.

FOURTEEN YEAR OLD CLASS — Earl Finch, Lake Placid, 70; Ernest Graves, Saranac Lake, 60; Carlton Parody, Lake Placid, 40; Will Logan, St. John, N. B., 10.

TWELVE YEAR OLD CLASS—Jack Shea, Lake Placid, 80; Wesley Champagne, Plattsburg, 40; Raymond Murray, New York, 30; William Leonard, St. John, N. B., 10; Ned Mulfur, Saranac Lake, 10.

TEN YEAR OLD CLASS—Eugene Shea, Lake Placid, 60; Sydney Spiegel Jr., Plattsburg, 40; Edward Werner, Plattsburg, 10; Martin Tierney Jr., Plattsburg, 10.

Donovan in Close Finish.

There were more than forty starters in the senior three mile event and it was a hard fought race throughout. Jewstraw led for a considerable distance, but Donovan spurted in the last half mile, closely followed by Joe Moore and Edward Gloster, and all three passed the Lake Placid man. Donovan won by approximately three feet.

Raymond Murray of New York fell in a preliminary of the junior 220 yard race for 12 year olds and so lost all chances of adding to his points won on previous days.

Miss Robinson in Fast Race.

An exhibition 220 yard dash by Miss Gladys Robinson of Toronto, who is the holder of the international professional championship for women, was made in :23. She was paced by Arthur Staff, American professional champion, who skated backwards most of the distance. Summaries:

SENIOR ½ MILE—Won by Roy McWhirter, Chicago; Fred Buendgen, Chicago, second; Charles Jewstraw, Lake Placid, third. Time, 1:35 3-5.

SENIOR 3 MILE—Won by Richard Donovan, St. Paul; Joe Moore, New York, second; Edward Gloster, Toronto, third. Time, 9:31 2-5.

JUNIOR [16 YEARS], 1 mile—Won by Orlie Green, Saranac Lake; Edward Reed, Chicago, second; Harold Fortune, Lake Placid, third. Time, 2:59 4-5.

JUNIOR [12 YEARS], 220 YARDS—Won by Jack Shea, Saranac Lake; Ned Mulfur, Saranac Lake, second; Wesley Champagne, Plattsburg, third. Time, :25 2-5.

JUNIOR [14 YEARS], 440 YARDS—Won by Carlton Parody, Lake Placid; Ernest Graves, Saranac Lake, second; Earl Finch, Lake Placid, third. Time, :42 3-5.

ILLINI MAY LOSE LAURIE WALQUIST ON BIG TEN RULE

Urbana, Ill., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The eligibility status of Laurie Walquist, guard on the University of Illinois basketball team and last year's football captain, was taken under advisement by the local school eligibility committee today.

Walquist is said to have participated in an American Legion benefit grid game at Taylorville, Ill., after the close of the conference season, for which service he received no money. Under the Big Ten rules, no player while attending school is permitted to play on an outside team and at the same time participate in college athletics.

No definite action was taken by the board today, the matter being deferred until the early part of next week.

GOPHER ALUMNI BACK LEUHRING

Chicago unit of the Minnesota Alumni association gathered at a luncheon at the Great Northern hotel yesterday and indorsed the appointments of Fred Luehring as athletic director and William Spaulding as head football coach.

Changes which led up to the readjustment of the Gopher athletic department were explained by Arthur Larkin and the consensus was that Minnesota will soon regain its place with the ranking athletic institutions of the western conference.

TRIBUNE DERBY STEP TO ICE TITLES

ROY M'WHIRTER.

[TRIBUNE Photos.]

ART STAFF.

THAT THE TRIBUNE'S Silver Skates Derbies, which will be held on Feb. 5 this year at Humboldt park, are productive of champions is shown by the victory of Roy McWhirter of the Alverno A. A. in yesterday's national championships at Plattsburg, N. Y.

McWhirter won the men's Silver Skates derby in 1920, and, in addition to winning the national championship, won the western title this season.

Art Staff, national professional champion, was brought into the skating limelight by winning THE TRIBUNE'S first Silver Skates derby in 1917. Staff is now preparing to meet Oscar Mathisen of Norway for the world's professional title.

Playground Skaters Join Host Entered in Chicago Tribune Silver Skates Derbies

With only three days remaining before entries close for THE TRIBUNE'S annual Silver Skates Derbies to be held over a six lap course on the Humboldt park lageon on Feb. 5, playground directors are taking an unusual interest in this year's races.

Directors of the city's playgrounds and the fire department are deserving of a lot of credit for the interest being taken in skating by the younger boys and girls. The directors take personal pride in their pupils, and they are leaving nothing undone to teach entrants in THE TRIBUNE Derbies how to take the turns and how to leave the mark by running on their skates for five or ten yards.

Fred Schwind, director of Mozart playground, has entered a number of star racers, including Janette Moe, who will be a contender for honors in the girls' senior race. Miss Moe finished third in this event last year, and it will take excellent skating on the part of other contestants to keep her out of the prize list.

A. E. Bergmann, who has had success with developing boys and girls for all kinds of athletics at Agassiz playground, has nominated twenty-three speedsters for the boys' junior and senior derbies. Like other directors, Bergmann has been teaching his skaters the fine points of the game, and expects to win a prize for his playground.

S. C. Jensen, known in swimming circles as "Nails," has nominated nineteen boys for the derbies from Washington playground. Jensen plays goal on the championship I. A. C. water polo team which will go to New York in March to defend its title. The Washington director asserted his boys have been practicing for the event ever since it was announced nearly a month ago.

Lawrence Quirk, a leading local skater, who is captain of the Austin-Columbia A. A. team, has nominated six for the senior race—George Cadotte, Harry De Wyze, Edward Kokot, Louis Lembke, James Quinlan, and himself.

The Buccaneer A. C., another strong local club, will be represented by eight starters in the senior derby. The club entry was made by J. Bourne, manager of the team, who expects some of his men to be in the running for the solid silver trophies for first place.

When all entries are listed after the nominations close Sunday at midnight the largest entry list ever received for a skating meet in this country will be sent to the printer in charge of the program. Those desiring to enter should lose no time in clipping the coupons on the sports pages and should mail them immediately, as no entries will be accepted after Sunday.

PURPLE TANKERS SINK FORT WAYNE "Y" CHAMPS, 53-15

A crowd which packed the poolside in Patten gymnasium last night saw the Purple crew of natators swamp the Y. M. C. A. college team of Fort Wayne by a score of 53 to 15. As the Fort Wayne swimmers are Indiana state champions, the one sided victory was somewhat of an achievement, and the Purple paddlers may now consider themselves in fettle for the opening conference dual meet with Iowa at Evanston on Feb. 10.

Northwestern won every event on the program except one, and in that, the fancy diving, a Purple swimmer tied with an Indiana man for first place. Summaries:

160 yard relay—Won by Northwestern [Thompson, Childs, M. Hayford, Paver]. Time, 1:23 4-5.

Fancy diving—Taylor, Fort Wayne, and Lowe, Northwestern, tied for first; Corbett, Northwestern, third.

40 yard swim—Won by Childs, Northwestern; Boeris, Fort Wayne, second; Thompson, Northwestern, third. Time, :20 1-5.

220 yard breast stroke—Won by Bleahm, Northwestern; Russell, Fort Wayne, second; Cle, Fort Wayne, third. Time, 3:02 2-5.

220 yard swim—Won by Paver, Northwestern; M. Hayford, Northwestern, second; Boeris, Fort Wayne, third. Time, 2:39 1-5.

Plunge for distance—Won by Dickson, Northwestern; Scarborough, Northwestern, second; Russell, Fort Wayne, third. Distance, 50 feet.

100 yards back stroke—Won by Agnew, Northwestern; J. Hayford, Northwestern, second; McCurdy, Northwestern, third. Time, 1:15 1-5.

100 yard swim—Won by Childs, Northwestern; Paver, Northwestern, second; Haley, Fort Wayne, third. Time, 59 4-5.

THREE TIE FOR LEAD IN STATE CUE TITLE PLAY

Three players are tied for the championship in the loop district of the state amateur three cushion tournament played at Mussey's Monroe street room, Green, Sanchez, and Forrey each having won seven games and lost two. The three will play off their tie tonight, and the winner will go into the semi-finals with the winners of seven other districts in the state, which will be staged at Mussey's room, starting on Monday. Results of last night's matches:

Hine, 35; Green, 29. Sanchez, 35; Sampson, 23. Halperin, 35; Conklin, 33. Green, 35; Forrey, 29. Sampson, 35; Trisdale, 26. Sanchez, 35; Grimm, 31. Triadale, 35; Halperin, 33. Conklin, 35; Sampson, 30. Forrey, 35; Sanchez, 28.

Two games in the Chicago league three cushion race was payed last night. At Singer and Spokes, Holzer [42] defeated Johnson [42], 42 to 27, in sixty-three innings. Holzer had a high run of 5, while Johnson ran 3. At Leffingwell's Wilson avenue room Henry [42] defeated Lookabaugh [48], 42 to 27, in fifty-four innings. Henry ran 6, while Lookabaugh's high run was 4. Two games are carded for tonight, Legros [50] playing Tredick [50] at the Casino, and Lookabaugh [50] playing Harris [48] at Reading's.

Heine Grauman will meet Maj. White in an exhibition pocket billiard match at the Riviera rooms tonight.

At Foley's, Correlison [35] defeated De Lorme [35] at three cushions, 35 to 15. Mann and Pivan play tonight.

Sampson, by defeating Rawlings, 40 to 34, won third place in the local three cushion tournament at Bensinger's Wabash avenue rooms.

RELAY RACE FEATURES I. A. C. MEET TONIGHT

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Relay teams representing the University of Chicago and Iowa State, generally known as Ames, will meet tonight in a special two mile match race, the feature of the fifth annual indoor handicap track and field games of the I. A. C. to be held in the Broadway armory.

JOIE RAY. [Photo: Und. & Und.]

The Hawkeye quartet will be composed of three members of last year's team which established a new world's two mile relay record at the Drake games early in the spring. O. O. Higgins, rated as one of the best ends in the Missouri Valley conference last fall, will be a member of the visiting team and will probably run in the anchor position. The Ames athletes in charge of Coach Smith will arrive in the city this morning.

Coach Stagg of Chicago will probably send Shorey, Carter, Bowers, and Roberts to the mark. These runners have been averaging around 2:03 for half miles on the track in Bartlett gymnasium. As tonight's race will be decided on a flat track with unbanked turns, runners of both teams will be at a disadvantage, but it should be an interesting race regardless of conditions.

Among well known stars who will compete in the open handicap events are Joie Ray and Loren Murchison of the I. A. C., members of the last American Olympic team; Chuck Meller of Logan Square A. C., who represented America in the last Olympiad; Grausnick of Northwestern, Blackwood of De Paul, and Meehan and Knourek of the tricolor club.

Pullman Tech Quintet Trims Calumet, 53 to 11

In a game featured by the great passing and tight guarding of the victors, the Pullman Tech quintet defeated Calumet High, 53 to 11, at the Pullman gym. Augustine and Bourke led the scoring for Pullman, Augustine sinking ten baskets and Bourke eleven.

Indiana Basket Team Defeats De Pauw, 36-32

Woods and Waters by BOB BECKER

DON'T TRY TO FOOL BUYER; CURE PELTS RIGHT.

YOU can't fool an old time fur buyer, but you can make him pay top prices for your pelts if you cure them properly and have them in good shape when it comes time to sell. Every step in curing pelts must be carefully made if the pelts are to be pulled off the stretchers in good marketable condition.

Begin with the skin as soon as it is broken loose from the carcass' nose and never allow it to dry in wrinkles. Get it on to the stretcher as soon as possible.

Make the stretchers to fit the pelt of cased skins. A board two and a half feet long and not more than four or four and a half inches at one end and three and a half inches wide at the other, tapering to a point, makes a good stretcher for a mink skin. The skins of most of the animals that are trapped in this part of the country are stretched around boards. The raccoon and beaver, however, are split and stretch flat on the board.

Pelts have a tendency to wrinkle unless they are tacked on the stretchers. A tack at the base of the tail and in each one of the hind feet keeps the skin stretched tightly until it is dry.

M'NAMARA LISTS ENTRY FOR SIX DAY BIKE RACE

Reggie McNamara, a great favorite with the local six day bike fans, came through with his entry yesterday for the 144 hour grind which starts at the Coliseum on Feb. 13. Manager "Paddy" Harmon says he hopes to team the Australian star with a local boy.

McNamara's last start here was at the stockyards several years ago when he came through in front. He is generally recognized as one of the best long distance men in the game.

The entry of McNamara gives Harmon the following entries up to date:

Willie Kell, Eddie Madden, Pete Drobach, Ray Eaton, Alfred Grenda, Harry Horan, Tom Fitzsimmons, and McNamara.

John M. Chapman, who is associated with the Madison Square Garden races in New York, will be here tomorrow with a bunch of additional entries.

Edward Doyle, vice president of the Hawthorne club, composed of 30,000 employes of the Western Electric company, says that about 15,000 of the members will be present the opening night of the race. The club has taken that many tickets for the opening.

Maroon Quintet to Leave Tonight for Gopher Game

Coach Nels Norgren and a squad of eight University of Chicago basketball men leave tonight at 6:30 for Minneapolis to clash with the Minnesota team in a Big Ten conference game there tomorrow night. The men who are making the trip are:

Capt. Halladay, Hurlburt, Ratcliff, Yardley, Stahr, Romney, Dickson, McGuire.

FIREMEN REACH FINAL ROUND OF HANDBALL MEET

The semi-finals in the firemen's handball tournament were completed last night at engine company No. 32's court, 59 East South Water street, by the following scores:

Maher and Moran	21	21	21
Garvey and Clark	16	14	15
Biggy and Keegan	21	21	21
Cody and Sweeney	6	2	12

The finals, between Maher and Moran and Biggy and Keegan, will be played next week at the same court. The winners will be presented with gold medals by John F. Cullerton, business manager of the fire department. The losing team will receive silver medals.

POWELL AGAIN IS IN CHARGE OF C. A. A. ATHLETICS

Announcement of the reappointment of William H. Powell as chairman of the athletic committee of the C. A. A. was made yesterday by President George B. Dryden.

WM. H. POWELL. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Following the appointment Chairman Powell announced the club will continue to be represented by teams in all meets of importance and that former policies of the athletic committee will be pursued.

"The C. A. A. will remain in athletics despite rumors and stories to the contrary," Chairman Powell said. "It is not necessary for us to send our team into every meet. Our boys hold responsible positions and do not care to take time from their work to train.

"Director S. H. Darwent has already started his men to train for the Central A. A. U. indoor championships and First Regiment A. A. games."

ELMER M'DEVITT HAS APPENDICITIS

Conway Tearle Kills 'Em Dead as Soldier of Fortune

"SHADOWS OF THE SEA."
Produced by Selznick.
Directed by Alan Crosland.
Presented at the State-Lake.

THE CAST.

Capt. Dick Carson	Conway Tearle
Shivering Sam	Jack Dounier
Andrews	Crauford Kent
Ralph Dean	Arthur Housman
Dr. Jordan	Jr Barney Sherry
Dorothy	Doris Kenyon
Molly	Frankie Man
Capt. Hobbs	William Nally

By Mae Tinée.

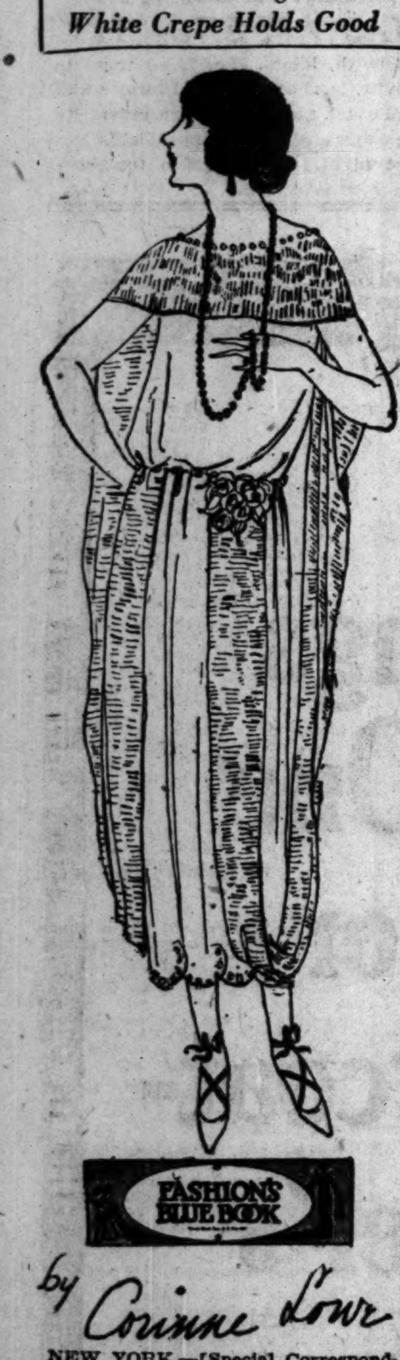

Conway Tearle, "sailing, sailing over the bounding main," rescuing small, unheard of countries from the hand of oppressors, never had a picture better suited to display his manly charms and his undoubted histrionic ability than "Shadows of the Sea."

Here is a soldier of fortune, with a come hither smile, a nice sense of right, and a narsty wallop. He is Captain Carson, wanted in our country for carelessly evading and breaking a few laws "in the cause he thought was right." Right bravely, however, on business bent, he lands in California and meets trouble—and his fate. Latter—and former also—represented by Doris Kenyon.

He gets out of the trouble, but when the film ends Miss Kenyon is still with him.

The photography is not so good, but otherwise the picture can be recommended as a program offering that holds the interest because the story has several unexpected angles and because the cast is a good one.

For the Evening Gown White Crepe Holds Good

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—A soft chiffon turneth away wrath—but not suitors. That is the system of philosophy which has prevailed successfully all winter and it will probably lose none of its force this spring. Chiffons and crêpes, crêpes and chiffons—it is "A Winter's Tale," just as it probably will be "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

For the evening gown white chiffon and various white crepes have abdicated none of their former favor. They are nearly always fashioned after the simplest lines, and the only avenue for variety is provided through the trimming. As this is more closely confined than ever to beads and sequins, however, such individuality of effect is increasingly hard to achieve.

In today's model it is done by an attractive management of opalescent sequins, forming a yoke effect in front which merges in the back into the two long panels looped up at either side front. The girdle of small silk roses terminates in a cluster of large flowers.

HAROLD TEEN—ISN'T HE UNREASONABLE?

CLOSEUPS

"Kissed" is the name of a coming Marie Prevost picture. Sound thrilling?

Barbara Bedford plays with Charlie Ray in a coming comedy drama which as yet has no name.

Florence Vidor has commenced work on the adaptation of Henry Kitchell Webster's "The Real Adventure." That sounds like something to look forward to.

Wesley Barry arrives in town tomorrow, and will make personal appearances at the Chicago theater while "Penrod" is being shown. In this little Mr. Freckle Face stars. The film is an adaptation from stories by Booth Tarkington.

Kiwanis Club Program.

"On the Way to Better Business" and "Say It with Jobs" are the two programs inaugurated by the Kiwanis Club International during the last year, which will be carried on through the coming year, according to the opening address of Vice President Victor M. Johnson, Rockford, at the midyear business meeting of the international council at the Congress hotel yesterday.

MEN'S FASHIONS

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

BY A. T. GALLICO.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—One of the most important details of the business man's dress is his shoes. There is no use in looking spruce and neat from the head down if the plan is not carried out to the bottom.

Among the younger generation and a certain part of the older the low shoe has usurped the place of the high in the winter and is worn with woolen socks. But high shoes are still correct. Both high and low are made with and without perforated decoration. The heavy, thick soled brogues are extremely popular, particularly with the younger men.

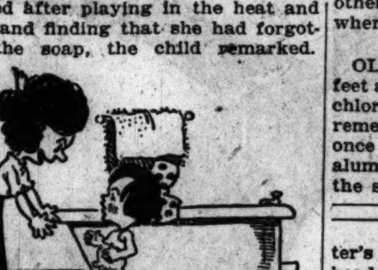

The slipper in the illustration is not, as you may be wondering, a new shoe for the office. But it is an innovation in a house slipper into which the business man can slip his tired feet when he gets home at night. It is of camel's hair cloth, which is being introduced more and more into clothing in all forms. This one is fleece lined and is tan colored.

RILEY C.: I should suggest a dark gray or a dark blue suit in a worsted, perhaps of the popular herringbone design. Or you can wear a lighter gray in a rough tweed or homespun. I think that brown would be less becoming to you because of your blue eyes. You can match the hat to the overcoat or have a contrasting color. Gray would be a good hat for you, with perhaps a dark blue or a gray overcoat, or even a black one. Since you are inclined to be stout, a belted overcoat is better than a plain one, as it is less apt to accentuate your figure.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $1 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Please write on one side of the paper. Address Bright Sayings to Aunty Bee, Tribune, Chicago.

Sadie was taken by her aunt to be washed after playing in the heat and dust, and finding that she had forgotten the soap, the child remarked.

"Aunt Helen, I'm awful dirty. I don't believe you can get me clean with just the dry water. H. L. S.

The other day as I was walking down the street near my home I saw my sister's little boy on his sled, with his head between his hands. He seemed to be thinking seriously about something, so I asked him what the trouble was.

"Nothing," he answered, "jest thinking."

"Well, what are you thinking about? It seems to be a serious matter."

"O, I was jest thinking about when mom's going to feed me," was the reply. R. E. S.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

PEGGY: YOU CAN WASH THE powder puffs quite successfully in warm soapy and rinse in fresh water that is still a little soapy. The soapy rinse preserves the fluff. There's no other way of keeping them clean, but by washing them frequently. We are all guilty of a dirty puff now and then, but some of us are worse than others, and it's an inexcusable thing when soap and water are cheap.

OLIVER O.: FOR PERSPIRING feet a 25 per cent solution of aluminum chloride in distilled water is a good remedy. Apply for three nights, then once a week. Or dust with powdered alum or baking soda, putting some in the shoes and stockings daily.

Ring Corn Muffins.

The corn muffin recipes with one cup of corn meal, one-half cup of wheat flour, two eggs, one-half teaspoon of salt, one teaspoon of baking powder, may have an extra half cup of milk added, making in all a cup and a half of milk put together, baked on a well heated and greased griddle in greased muffin rings. It will make something that is charming and dainty to look at. Fill the rings about two-thirds full of the batter, or use just enough of the batter to give a ring even full when it rises. Bake ten minutes on one side and then turn. The first side will be a seal brown and spongy, and the other side will look like an English muffin.

In addition to the above ingredients it is perhaps best to add one tablespoon of sugar, so that what you get is fairly midway between cake and bread. You need the two tablespoons of melted butter, added after the whites of the eggs have been beaten stiff and folded in.

It seems to me these make charming brown disks of a creamy consistency which are excellent with plain butter or sirup for breakfast, or with gravy for dinner, in place of one of the vegetables.

Remember to heat the griddle slowly and have it evenly hot, but not hot enough to do more than give the muffins a seal brown surface. You may bake this batter, but should use tiny gem pans.

A FRIEND IN NEED

Three Little Kittens.

"I have three gray and white kittens a month old that I would like to give to some one who will give them a good home. I have had their mother for nine years, and I cannot part with her or keep all four in an apartment. I do hope some one will take one or more of them, for I know they will be great pets. MRS. E. J. A."

If you wish a little kitten in your home, write to me for Mrs. E. J. A.'s address.

Call for Cinderella.

"I would like to give away a pair of new black satin slippers, size 2A. "K. W."

If you can wear the size stated please make early application.

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER: The Curse of Riches

Palmer Ball Most Brilliant Affair of the Season

The last, but far from the least, of the debutante balls of the winter was the one given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Honoré Palmer at the Congress hotel for their cousin, Miss Bertha Honoré. The ball was one of the largest and most brilliant of the winter and was a fitting climax to a season so full of festivities and gayeties that even the energetic little "debs" whose fond mothers allow them to sleep until noon each day, so that they can dance from midnight until morning, are ready to call a halt and take a rest cure.

Rambler roses decorated the ballroom, hanging in festoons from the balcony. The same roses were used to ornament the tables at which a midnight supper was served.

Miss Honoré, one of the most beautiful as well as one of the most popular of the debutantes, wore a white charmeuse gown and carried orchids. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and Miss Honoré was the latter's mother, Mrs. Lockwood Honoré.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer returned yesterday morning from an eastern visit, bringing with them a number of relatives and friends, who came west for the ball.

Among those at the ball were the Palmers' house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Keyser, and George Brown, all of Baltimore; Mrs. Richard T. Wilson, Prince and Princess Iswolsky, Count de Perigny, Mrs. E. N. Breitung, Capt. Quicke, Robert McKee, Henry Dornblazer, and Joseph Kennedy, all of New York; Miss Katherine Field and Mr. Rodman and the young people who will attend them at their wedding.

There were in all about 400 guests.

Over a hundred tables already have been sold for the bridge party to be held next Monday at the Ambassador for the benefit of Lawrence Hall for Boys. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Wayne Chatfield-Taylor, Mrs. D. Mark Cummings, Mrs. Samuel D. Flood, Mrs. Frederick T. Haskell, Mrs. Angus Hibbard, Mrs. George W. Meeker, and Mrs. Theodore W. Robinson.

Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy, Mrs. Lester Armour, Mrs. Tracy C. Drake, Mrs. George W. Dixon, Mrs. Moise Dreyfus, Mrs. Edward A. Leight, Mrs. Arthur Meeker, Mrs. Silas H. Strawn, Mrs. Charles G. King, and Mrs. Mason Bross are among the patronesses for a concert to be given under the auspices of the Alliance Française Tuesday evening, Feb. 7, at the Drake hotel. The proceeds will go to a fund which supplies lecturers for free programs given Saturdays in Fullerton hall, Art institute, during the winter season.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Reynolds of 1444 Lake Shore drive are leaving Sunday to spend three months in Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip W. Hamill of Medford, Ore., are spending a few days with Mrs. Hamill's sister, Mrs. Alfred T. Martin of 11 Scott street.

Mrs. Charles M. Hewitt of 1411 State parkway will leave for Pasadena early in February.

Mrs. Noble B. Judah of 60 Scott street will return tomorrow from a brief visit in Dayton, O. Mr. and Mrs. Judah are planning to take a trip to Bermuda early in February.

Mrs. George W. Blossom of Hubbard Woods has gone to New York for a brief visit. Later in the winter Mrs. Blossom probably will go to Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Eckhart of 1530 Lake Shore drive are planning to leave shortly for Pasadena, Cal. Their daughter, Mrs. Truman W. Brophy Jr., went to California shortly after New Year's to place her small son, Billy, in school at Monticito. Mrs. Brophy will pass the season at Castle Hot Springs, Ariz.

Mrs. William Prescott Hunt Jr. and Miss Marie J. Rozet of 1006 North La Salle avenue have left for Orlando, Fla., to remain until late spring.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Bernice Arline Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Watson of 7223 Euclid avenue, to Lawrence Carey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Carey of Memphis, Tenn.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Tribune will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." Address Embarrassing Moments, Chicago Tribune. Write on one side of the paper. No manuscript returned.

Just Between Friends.

It was at a bazaar. They were selling aprons and many other home made articles. While dining with some of my friends, one apron was held up for sale. It was a gay pink one with large roses in it.

My friend at one side of me said, "You ought to buy that apron. It will just fit you."

"If my husband saw me wearing that, he would leave me sure," I said.

"Well, that is nice. I made it," she replied. J. B.

Queen of the May.

It was the day of days—the day of the big May festival, and I was queen of the May. All went well and I was the center of all eyes, when I turned from the coronation to gracefully sit upon the improvised throne. I probably sat down too energetically, because the throne toppled and I went tumbling with it to land in a heap behind the decorated raised platform. It was the height of mortification, for the spectators numbered over a thousand. L. B.

Popular Concert at Symphony Is Invigorating Music

BY EDWARD MOORE.

There is reason to suspect that Mr. Stock likes the audiences at the popular concerts of the Chicago Symphony better than he does the others—unless perhaps those at the children's concerts. Then he has the best time of all.

Probably the liking is returned. At any rate, there is a distinct atmosphere of friendliness about the "pops." It ought to be in the air at all musical events, but sometimes it is not. Mr. Stock announces and explains encores, requests his auditors to keep quiet, and orders them to stop coughing.

They respond in the same spirit, and applaud with an invigorating spontaneity. More and more the feeling grows that at the subscription concerts the orchestra plays for the sake of the music; at the "pops," for the sake of the audience. There is a difference.

I have heard Victor Herbert's "Irish Rhapsody" received in what was hardly more than a half-hearted way by a subscription audience. I heard it last night received in a way that made continuance of the concert impossible until an encore was played.

Of the two, last night's reception was by far the better criticism. The tunes upon which Herbert built his piece are honest, sincere, and intended for the delight of mankind. But to get the proper reaction from them you must be in the mood where music is entertainment first and uplift only secondarily.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The President and Mrs. Harding were hosts tonight at the second of the series of state receptions entertaining in honor of the judiciary. Attorney General Daugherty, who celebrated today his 62d birthday, received with them.

The French ambassador and Mme. Jusserand were the honor guests at dinner tonight of the minister of Sweden and Mme. Wallenberg.

Miss Varady is the house guest of Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, who entertained for her at dinner tonight, taking their guests afterward to the musicale at the Hungarian legation.

The minister of China and Mme. Sze were dinner guests tonight of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denby.

Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant gave a luncheon today.

DAILY HOROSCOPE
Doris Blake Says:

If your birthday is today, you are AMBITIOUS.

"Intensely ambitious, willing to sacrifice everything for money and position" is the verdict for you. Kaiser Wilhelm was born on this day—and his ambition carries its own lesson, does it not? Unless you want your life to be a failure, you have to learn to appreciate the fact that money and position are not the things that make for happiness.

Thinking of Beaux.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am 16 years of age. Do you think I am too young to go out with a fellow? IRENE."

That would depend upon a number of things, most important of which is your mother's views on the subject. It would depend, too, upon how well and how long you knew the young male person involved and whether he meets with mother's approval as an escort.

Alumni Meet

MISS JOSEPHINE T. ALLIN.
[Moffett Photo.]

Miss Josephine T. Allin, dean of girls at the Englewood High school, is in charge of the activities of the alumni association of the school, which will hold its semi-annual meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the school. Election of officers will be held and there will be a program.

Author's Club Finds Robison's Poems Best

New York, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The Authors' club tonight announced a large majority of its 260 members had voted that the book published during 1921 that was of the most enduring value to American literature was "The Collected Poems of Edward Arlington Robison."

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—Mme. da Gama, who recently returned to her apartment at the Plaza hotel after a brief visit in Washington, will sail for England on Feb. 7 to join M. da Gama, who is Brazilian ambassador to the court of St. James. M. da Gama was formerly ambassador at Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taft of 30 West 48th street will soon occupy their new apartment at Louis Sherry's, 300 Park avenue.

Mrs. Oliver Harriman will entertain a party of friends tomorrow evening at the banquet to be given in connection with the National Campfire Girls' conference at the Ambassador hotel.

OBITUARY.

WALTER H. AITKEN, prominent in Masonic circles, will be buried tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m. from the chapel at 3324 West Madison street. Mr. Aitken, who was 68, was a member of Humboldt Park lodge No. 813, A. F. & A. M.; Madison and Monroe lodge No. 10, Columbia Circle; Calumet Tribe of I. O. R., and of the Chicago Typographical union No. 16. He resided at 936 North Lockwood avenue and is survived by his widow and two children. Interment will be at Rosehill.

Chicago Fire Fans Hold Dance for 3 Families

Tonight the Chicago Fire Fans' association will dance at Dreamland to raise a fund for the families of three firemen who were killed New Year's night while answering a false alarm of fire on the north side.

P. M. GOODWILLIE.
[Moffett Photo.]

The association is made up of men from all lines of business, but who neglect that business to go to a fire. James Kirkley, grandson of former Fire Marshal D. J. Swenie, is president of the association. Associated with him in directing the affairs of the fans are P. M. Goodwillie and Homer V. Boyd of the Goodwillie Box company, and Gene Chartrand, salesman for the Well-McLain Plumbing Supply company.

FARM PRODUCTS TO EUROPE ON CREDIT URGED

Solution Is Seen to U. S. Crop Troubles.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The marketing of American surplus agricultural products in Europe on credit was advocated in the farm conference today by Carl Vrooman of Illinois, former assistant secretary of agriculture, who asserted that American bankers are loaning money to Europe which purchases farm products in Argentina while American produce rots on the farms. He was introduced by Representative Sidney Anderson, chairman of the conference.

REPRESENTATIVE SIDNEY ANDERSON. [P. and A. Photo.]

"Markets for the farmers' surplus crops are the only things that can save our country from an impending financial smash," said Mr. Vrooman. "Domestic credit with which to hold crops on a falling market is a pitfall, not a remedy.

Surplus Only Five Per Cent.

"Our agricultural surpluses, for which there is neither an effective domestic demand nor a foreign cash demand, amount to only about 5 per cent of our total crops and are worth only about a billion dollars. Yet they have depressed the value of the other 95 per cent of our crops at least four or five billion dollars.

"When we loan Europe money or defer the payment of interest due Europe can and does take that money and with it purchase Argentine corn cattle and wheat, while our surpluses continue to rot on the farms, for lack of foreign markets.

"If we continue to follow the latter plan our international bankers will continue to make big commissions out of Europe's necessities, while American economic conditions will go rapidly from bad to worse."

La Follette Scores Remedies.

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin sharply criticized the agricultural conference program in the senate today. President Harding and other speakers at the conference reveal a lack of appreciation of the farmers' condition, he said.

"It may be possible to bring temporary relief to the farmer by some of the remedies sugested," La Follette declared, "but no mere palliative measures will serve to make agriculture the great stable and productive industry it deserves to be."

BILL PROPOSES "ALL AMERICAN" NEW YORK CANAL

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—As a counter proposal to the projected Great Lakes-St. Lawrence seaway, Representative Reed of New York today introduced in congress a bill creating the "All-American route," a ship canal which would run from Buffalo to the Hudson river just south of Albany. This system would be built by private enterprise, the promoters charging no tolls to traffic but deriving their revenue from the sale of hydro-electric power.

Under the terms of the bill Millard F. Bowen and his associates would be given authority to build a canal 30 feet deep and 200 feet wide, with a headway of 100 feet. He reserves the right to divert 26,000 feet of water per second above Niagara Falls into the shipway.

Construction of the canal would begin in three years and completion within seven years would be planned. The Reed bill gives Mr. Bowen and his associates rights over properties in this "lakes to Hudson ship canal" for fifty years with an option of twenty years additional, providing congress gives approval. At the end of the full seventy years the government would have authority to take over the waterway on payment of the equities.

AWARDED $77,453.

A verdict of $77,453 was returned in favor of Frank H. Collins, La Salle street broker, for commissions on sales against the Cherokee Oil company, by a jury in Judge Hugo Pam's court yesterday.

MAGNA CHARTA IS DEFACED BY U. S. LAWS, JUDGE SAYS

Medieval Conditions Now Existent.

America has retrogressed to the petty tyranny of medieval England. The times call for a new Magna Charta, Judge Frank Johnston Jr., yesterday told the Lion's club, 332 South Michigan avenue, in a luncheon address.

JUDGE FRANK JOHNSTON JR.

Quoting from an editorial, "The New Fight for Liberty," he said THE TRIBUNE was to be commended in its fight for individual freedom. He demanded home rule for Chicago and home rule for the state. The club pledged itself to oppose all congressional encroachment of home rule rights of the people.

"Legislative Loco."

"Neither city nor state sovereignty is any longer secure," he said. "We object to Chicago's affairs being controlled at Springfield. We also object to our state affairs being regulated at Washington. The reformers have gone legislative loco.

"The maternity bill has been passed, and educational bills, Sunday blue laws, censorship of movies, censorship of the press, are some of the matters now proposed for congressional action. It looks as though the country is to have federal supervision and inspection of everything. I would like to see every citizen jealous of his independence and resentful of any undue interference with it. He will then feel he has a liberty worth preserving and a country worth fighting for.

Too Many Do's and Don'ts.

"But with laws which shackle him hand and foot, permit espionage of his private affairs, and invasion of his home, will not his affection for his country wane? If our government insists on treating individuals like so many children for whose physical and moral salvation it feels responsible, life will become unbearable for independent, liberty loving people."

There are now altogether too many do's and don'ts, he pointed out, in referring to the bureaucracy which has developed in America since the war, and he does not wish "to be escorted through life with an agent of the law on either side of me, one telling me what I shall do.

STRIOUSLY BURNED.

Peter Stine, 37 years old, was seriously burned yesterday when he threw a rag soaked with gasoline into a stove in the Clybourn garage, 1592 Clybourn avenue. His clothing caught fire from the burst of flame.

ATTORNEY F. D. AYERS RESIGNS POSITION WITH SCHOOL BOARD

Attorney Frank D. Ayers, who has held various positions with the municipal government since 1903, resigned yesterday as assistant attorney for the board of education. Mr. Ayers denied a report that he had broken politically with the Thompson-Lundin interests and that he was leaving as the result of friction between him and the administration.

FRANK D. AYERS. [Wallszer Photo.]

"I am simply leaving to return to my private law practice," he said. "This position pays only $5,000 a year, and I can make more money practicing law. The school board, which spends more money and has almost as many duties to perform as the city government, has only six attorneys, while there are 147 in the corporation counsel's office."

LEGION OPPOSES FURTHER CUT IN AMERICAN ARMY

Pershing's Stand on U. S. Force Indorsed.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The American Legion, through its spokesmen before the house military affairs committee, today indorsed Gen. Pershing's recommendation against any further cut in the enlisted strength of the regular army and in favor of weeding out the commissioned personnel.

"The American Legion recognizes the national demand for retrenchment and reduction in governmental expenditures, but as practical men, who have learned the lessons of preparedness by the hard experience of war, we are confident that it would be a great mistake, at this time, to limit the proper functioning of the national defense act by a reduction in the estimates as submitted by the war department and approved by the budget committee," said the Legion representatives.

"We are convinced that in the preparation of these estimates the economic demands of the country have received the fullest and most careful consideration by the secretary of war and any material cut will seriously affect an adequate national defense."

LANDIS CALLS WAGE PARLEY FOR TOMORROW

Will Discuss 1922 Scale with Contractors.

Judge Landis will confer with officials of the Associated Builders of Chicago and the Building Construction Employers' association—the two large associations of contractors — tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock to arrange for a new scale for the building trade unions to become effective for the year starting June 1.

The representatives of the two contractors' associations will meet Judge Landis in his suite at the Chicago Beach hotel, where for the last week the jurist has been confined with a severe cold. The adjustment of a new building trade wage scale will be the first public business the judge has transacted since he became ill.

That the contractors will request no change in the provisions of the original Landis award was intimated recently in a resolution adopted by the Associated Builders. This resolution averred that under no circumstance would they consent to the withdrawal of Judge Landis as arbitrator, as proposed by leaders of the wage award malcontents.

Seek Agreement by Feb. 1.

Similar action has been taken by the Building Construction Employers' association.

Last June, when Judge Landis was selected by the building trade organizations as arbiter to settle their wage controversy with the contractors, it was specified that all wage and working disputes between the unions and the employers should be settled by Feb. 1, so building activities would not be hampered in the spring. The meeting tomorrow was called by Judge Landis to comply with that provision.

It is said the newly elected officials of the Chicago Building Trades council will not attend the conference. At the election of officers of the trades council at the last meeting William A. Curran, business agent of the Plumbers' union and leader of the anti-Landis award group of unions, was chosen president, to succeed Thomas A. Kearney, who refused to repudiate the Landis award.

Moreschi Also Anti-Landis.

Joseph Moreschi, president of the Laborers' District council, who recently returned from his winter home on the Pacific coast to attend to his labor affairs, replaced Peter Shaughnessy of the bricklayers as vice president of the council. Moreschi is an anti-Landis award leader.

The only official of the trades council who could appear before Judge Landis to plead the cause of the building mechanics is James J. Conroy, business agent of the Tile Layers' union, who was retained as secretary of the council. His organization didn't openly defy the Landis award.

The insurgent faction of the council which consists of twenty-eight of the thirty-two affiliated unions, has already sent a petition to Judge Landis, asking him to resign as arbitrator.

Tie Up Work in Oak Park.

Building construction in Oak Park to the amount of more than $1,000,000, was halted yesterday when several business agents of building trades unions persuaded members of the laborers' union to leave their jobs. When the laborers walked out, it automatically forced the bricklayers to discontinue work.

Among the buildings tied up are the addition to the Oak Park High school and the West Suburban hospital.

John Bolen, business agent of the laborers' unions, said the strikes were called in protest against the Landis award.

WIFE OF MAYOR OF EVANSTON IN DIVORCE COURT

Judge Joseph Sabath indicated yesterday he would grant a decree of divorce to Mrs. Frances K. Pearsons, wife of Harry Putnam Pearsons, mayor of Evanston.

Mr. Pearsons was not in court at the hearing of the testimony of his wife. He was represented by his counsel, Robert N. Holt.

"It was in Florence, Italy, while we were on a trip abroad," said Mrs. Pearsons on the witness stand, "that we came to the parting of the ways. That was in 1914. We agreed that we could not live together any longer and concluded to separate. We have not lived together since."

In response to the questioning of her attorney, Sidney S. Gorham, she told the court she was married Feb. 8, 1900, in the fashionable north shore village of Kenilworth.

Mrs. Pearsons is the daughter of Rollin A. Keyes, 1210 Foster avenue, Evanston, whose family has been socially prominent in north shore suburbs for many years. She has made her home with her father for the past few weeks while the divorce litigation has been pending and has her twenty year old daughter, Marion, with her.

Harris Trust Gives Big Sum for Aged Employes

Contribution of $100,000 by Albert W. Harris, president of the Harris Trust and Savings bank, to the employes' profit sharing fund, for use in pensioning disabled workers too old to qualify through long service, was announced yesterday. The fund was not established until 1916, and as a result some of the older employés of the bank will not have the opportunity to enjoy its benefits long enough to qualify for a competence.

MISSING U. OF C. FRESHMAN FOUND; APHASIA VICTIM

ELMER LAMPE.

Elmer Lampe, 21 years old, University of Chicago freshman, who has been missing since Monday, was found asleep yesterday in the lobby of the Jackson Park hotel, 1539 East 63d street, by Rollin Atwood and Robert McDonald, members of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity, of which Lampe is a pledge.

When taken to the fraternity house Lampe immediately felt asleep before he could give more than an incoherent account of his actions since Monday. Attending physicians say he is a victim of aphasia, induced by ulceration of the stomach.

Atwood and McDonald said Lampe told them he felt an attack of sickness coming on as he was returning from a talk with a classmate. He started to run, hoping to reach home before the attack overcame him. That is the last he remembers.

Lampe was a member of the freshman basketball and football teams, although he had suffered from attacks of a similar nature before. His home is in Eveleth, Minn.

BRUTAL MURDER SEEN IN DEATH OF EXPRESSMAN

Philip Biondelillo, 47, 355 Locust street, an expressman, was found dead in a burning barn in the rear of his home yesterday morning by firemen. Circumstances pointed to a brutal murder, possibly by the Black Hand, with the fire an attempt to cover up the crime.

Deputy Coroner Charles F. Kennedy, who conducted an inquest over the body in the afternoon, said the man was first strangled and his throat then cut. A small rope was found around the neck and two inches below the rope was a wound such as might have been made with a sharp instrument.

Mrs. Josephine Biondelillo, wife of the dead man, said he had three orders to deliver during the morning, and arose at 5 o'clock. He kept his horse and wagon across the alley from his home, 354 West Chestnut street. He usually took a lantern with him, she said, but yesterday took a candle.

It was first believed that Biondelillo had been kicked to death by a vicious horse and that the lantern or candle had fallen from his hand into the hay.

TENANT LEAGUES MEET TO START SPRING FIGHTS

Delegates representing thirty-five branches of the Tenants' and the Householders' leagues met last night at the headquarters at 112 North La Salle street and formulated plans to combat the possibility of a raise in rentals this spring.

They voted for the enactment of a law for the compensation of tenants who are ejected from their homes on "sixty day" clauses in their leases and adopted the slogan, "Rents must come down."

The organizations decided to combine their efforts and do everything in their power to alleviate the suffering of tenants while every preparation would be made to prevent a raise in rentals.

Evanston Fights New Route for North Shore

Plans of the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Electric railroad to reroute its right of way through Wilmette and Evanston received a temporary setback yesterday. The Evanston East End Improvement association, representing 250 property owners, which opposes the rerouting, obtained a continuance before the Illinois commerce commission to submit its case in detail.

Crowd Flees Loop Theater When Fire Starts Nearby

Fire of unknown origin in the basement of a three story building at 525-527 South State street last night caused spectators in the State and Congress theater, 531 South State street, to flee from the theater. No one was injured.

RICH MEN SOUGHT FOR INQUIRY IN MYSTERY DEATHS

Believed They Can Explain Supposed Suicides.

A search for men, many of them said to be well to do residents of midwestern and southern cities, was begun yesterday by the coroner's office in a final attempt to clear up the mystery surrounding the death last Saturday of Mrs. Ursula Thompson Rogers, former Kenilworth society girl.

The names of the men were found in the effects of Alfred Nichols, "roving" actor, strikebreaker, and dope addict, who was found dying in the same bedroom in the cheap hotel with Mrs. Rogers. It is the theory of Coroner Hoffman that these men are friends of Nichols and that he made his living by introducing well to do men to pretty girls.

Believe They Can Aid Inquiry.

It is believed questioning of them will shed light on the circumstances of the couple's death. Thus far the police only know the couple died together after Nichols had admitted taking poison. Their theory is that it was a double suicide, but no motive has been adduced.

Sergt. Scrivener of the coroner's office said he was not satisfied Mrs. Thompson killed herself. "I am of the opinion that further questioning will show that other persons aside from the attendants at the hotel knew of the death party," he said

Coroner Hoffman yesterday telegraphed to George Thompson, a brother of the dead woman, asking him to come to Chicago for questioning concerning the missing fortune of his sister.

Stories of Fortune Conflict.

Thompson, in a statement made to THE TRIBUNE, said he had taken over all of his sister's estate last summer. He said she had once possessed something like $300,000, but that it had dwindled to $13,000 when she arrived in Chicago.

In contradiction to this the Louisville Trust company notified Coroner Hoffman that something more than $150,000 was turned over to Thompson by the bank within the last six months.

CULLERTON IS PRESIDENT OF FIREMEN'S AID

The Firemen's Mutual Aid and Benefit association yesterday elected John F. Cullerton, business manager of the fire department, as president. Previous to the election Mr. Cullerton had offered his resignation, but it was shown the reserve fund of the association had increased from $66,000 to $120,000 during his administration and he was unanimously renamed for the presidency.

JOHN F. CULLERTON.

Other officers elected at the meeting are: Jeremiah Murphy, vice president; Nicholas Murray, secretary; Gus Hopp, treasurer. Trustees at large are Peter Hom, William Gibson, and Carl Hartman.

Wife Sues 'Other Woman' for $50,000 Damages

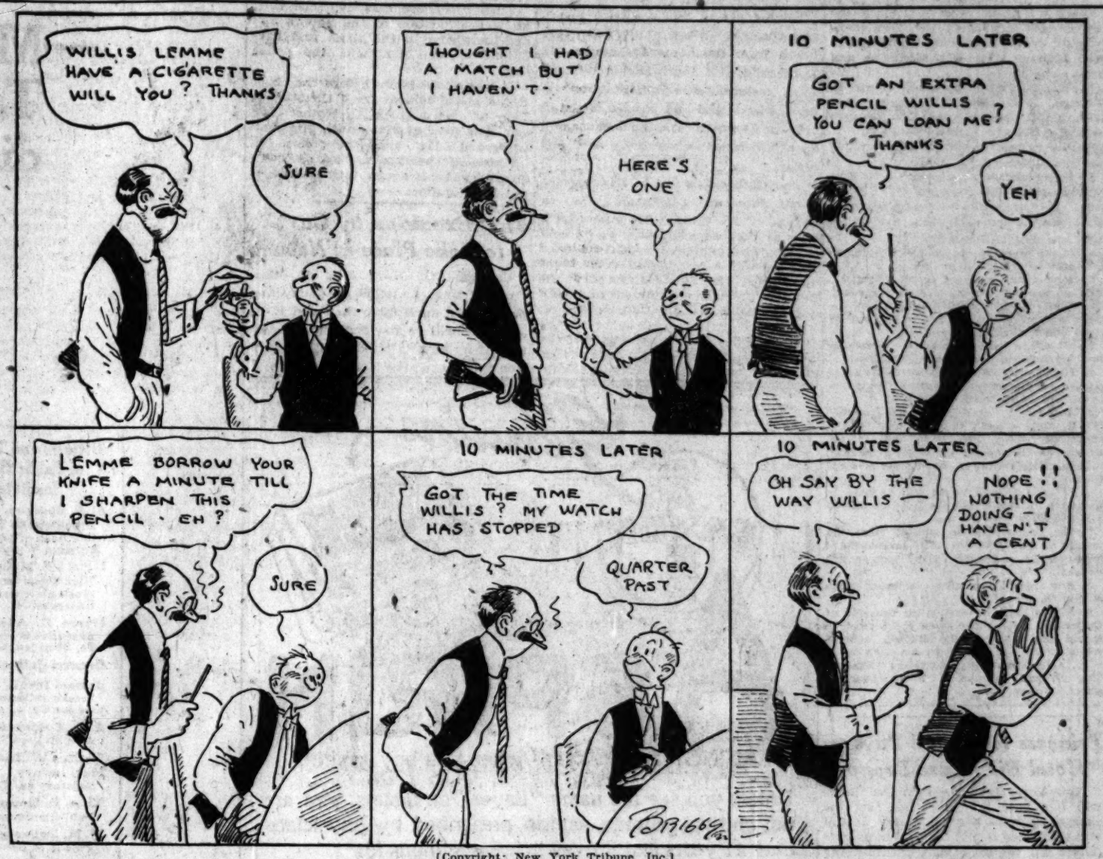

Mrs. Margaret Hummell, 1131 North Robey street, yesterday in the Circuit court, filed suit for $50,000 damages for alienation of affections against Miss Katherine Winthauser, 1032 North Trumbull avenue, and suit for separate maintenance against her husband, John H. Hummell. Hummell is president of the Hummell Teaming company and treasurer of the Central Hardwood Lumber company.

BEG YOUR PARDON

The name of James Wiedersburg, 3045 South Canal street, appeared in THE TRIBUNE last Sunday, and it was stated he was arrested for safe blowing. This was an error. The police say he was arrested for stealing an automobile and was booked. Mr. Wiedersburg says he was arrested as a "suspect," and asked for a continuance of the case until Feb. 8.

In yesterday's TRIBUNE it was stated that the entertainment being given by the Good Fellowship club of Ben Franklin lodge at the Aryan Grotto would end Friday night. The last performance will be Saturday night.

THE VENGEANCE OF HENRY JARROMAN

Blue Ribbon Fiction

BY ROY VICKERS

SYNOPSIS.

Henry Jarroman, released from prison, to which he was sentenced twenty years before for the murder of Charles Eddis, learns that John Camden, his one time friend, who stole his wife, killed Eddis, and fastened the crime on him, is dead. He has nourished his hatred of Camden all the long years in prison, and now his embittered heart bids him make Camden's daughter a victim in place of her father.

Camden's daughter, who believes her name to be Nadia Quest, is employed as a typist by the Hon. Wilfred Stranack. He loves her and asks her to marry him. Lord Doucester, Stranack's father, is startled when he recognizes a ring Nadia wears and knows who she is.

Claudine Crayne, the wife who dishonored and deserted Jarroman and their young daughter, is the proprietor of a smart gambling establishment. Theed, Jarroman's rascally solicitor, visits her and tells her Jarroman desires to find his daughter. They conspire to substitute Nadia for the real daughter, with the idea of getting Jarroman's fortune for themselves.

Theed brings Nadia and Jarroman together. Jarroman, too, recognizes Camden's ring, and knows Nadia is not his daughter, but Camden's. He rejoices that the victim of his hate is delivered into his hands.

INSTALLMENT XXII.

AN ARMFUL OF ROSES.

He found to his disgust that in London one cannot walk into a shop and buy a car as one buys a packet of tobacco. He learned that there were vast and teasing complications regarding tonneau, upholstery and accessories he had never heard of. He was about to leave the agency in disgust when the salesman revealed the fact that one could hire a thousand guinea motor, with a competent chauffeur, for an indefinite period, during which one could make arrangements for one's own car at leisure.

Jarroman eagerly accepted the compromise. He returned to Nadia, ordered tea, and by the time they had finished it the car was waiting.

The interior of the car was like a small drawing room lounge. They settled themselves in it, Jarroman watching the girl. She leaned back on the divan, her eyes half closed, and he knew that he was looking at a woman who was unhappy in her love. He nodded to himself. The love affair must be attended to, or he would find that he was building a castle on sand. He began to plan.

"You are kind to me," she said suddenly. "Don't think me unappreciative—but I am so tired."

"I know," he said. His voice conveyed the suggestion that he guessed the full extent of her trouble and was sorry. He glanced unobtrusively at her; her long lashes were making violet shadows on her cheeks, her flowerlike mouth was parted, as if she were exhausted.

Lovely. Very lovely. It should make his work easier. This loveliness; once this love business was settled it would be easy, easy.

The car slipped through the villages at the discreet speed required of it, but on the roads between it gathered itself into an impressive sixty miles an hour. It was therefore not yet 7 o'clock when Nadia and Jarroman descended at the doors of the Colossal.

Nadia's fatigue had stolen from her as the miles had fled; the soothing movement of the great car had cast a spell upon her. She looked far more alert, and a flush of excitement came to her face as she glimpsed the vast lounge of the hotel, its palms and lifts, and, above all, its guests.

The flush deepened when she and Jarroman were conducted to their suite. It was on the first floor, its flower filled balconies overlooking the sea. It consisted of two bedrooms, with their bathrooms and dressing rooms, and two spacious sitting rooms, all giving on to a short corridor that in turn led to the chief corridor of the first floor.

"Why, it's like a flat!" exclaimed Nadia. She explored it, her enthusiasm growing as each perfection of luxury revealed itself.

"Do you think you will like it?" inquired Jarroman. His satisfaction, keeping pace with hers, was pounding into his veins. The first step; the step.

"I never dreamed any place could be so beautiful."

They were in the larger of the two sitting rooms—a wonderful boudoir rioting in blues and lavenders, with strange splashes of a burnt amber that glowed like tropic suns.

"This room will be yours," Jarroman said quietly. "The other, which, as you remember, is furnished more like a study, will suit me capitally. And this is your bedroom. Now, when you have unpacked, we can settle down. I daresay you would like some dinner."

He was watching her intently and saw her look at her simple blue frock.

"We will dine up here tonight, don't you think?" he suggested. "We are both tired."

"I have no evening dresses," admitted Nadia. "I ought to have bought things before I left London—as you asked me to do—but I——" Her voice shook.

"You will have ample time and opportunity to get anything you want here," interposed Jarroman tactfully. "Then, when you have all you need, we must find friends for you, companions of your own age. You have none at all, I think you told me? Have you made no friends?"

"Lord and Lady Doucester were kind to me while I was working for—for their son, but they could hardly be called friends." The girl's voice was far too casual.

"Besides, they must be middle aged. Their son—Mr Stranack, isn't it?—must be a few years older than yourself. I remember the Doucesters vaguely. My—we used to have a mutual friend. Is this Stranack a promising young man?"

"Very clever, indeed, I believe," he heard her answer steadily. Then she vanished into the adjoining bedroom, and he heard her lock the door. He seemed to hear the sound of sobbing.

The morning after Nadia's arrival in Brighton broke cloudless, with a faint fragrance in the air that comes only at the height of summer. Something in Nadia responded to it, and drove away for a time the gray thoughts which had tortured her the day before.

Breakfast was brought to her in her own sitting room After a moment's shyness she inquired whether her father was up yet.

"I never dreamed any place could be so beautiful."

"Mr. Jarroman breakfasted an hour ago, madam, and went out These have come for you, madam."

Nadia stifled an exclamation of surprise and delight. In a box lined with delicate tissue paper lay an armful of long stemmed crimson roses.

Nadia told herself Jarroman had had them sent to her; but the cloistered self in her that still thrilled to the thought of Wilfred Stranack saw in these blood red blossoms the gift of a lover, not a father.

She was preparing to set out on a shopping expedition when Jarroman returned. He greeted her with the affection that somehow puzzled her, and to which she could not yet bring herself to respond.

"I have been arranging for your riding lessons, my dear," he said. "I have left it that you begin next Monday." Before she could thank him he caught sight of the roses. "How beautiful! The color of blood!" He laughed in a grating way that filled her with a vague alarm. "The color of blood!"

Jarroman stooped and picked up a card. Nadia, her hands full of roses, could not take it, and Jarroman laid it on the table face upward. The name of Stranack was plainly visible to both.

Neither spoke. Nadia arranged the roses in a vase and went to her own room to put on her hat.

"I am going shopping," she said, when she returned, and hesitated.

"I have letters to write," said Jarroman. "I shall hope to see you at lurch time." Taking up the house telephone, he gave an order for his car to be brought around. "If it would amuse you," he said, turning to Nadia, who was looking rather impressed, "I will get you a little two seater, which you can drive yourself."

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Question.

Do you believe in fate?

Where Asked.

At the Brownleigh club, 23 North Michigan avenue.

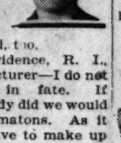

The Answers.

Miss Florence Earle, 85 North Elm street, Hinsdale, dancing teacher—I believe in fate, and that each day is ordained for us, irrespective of our will or effort. I believe that what will be will be, and I think that it is usually for the best.

Fernando Bridat, 21 North La Salle street, Cuban consul—I believe everybody was born with his fate fixed, and no matter what you do, your fate will have its way. The unlucky will be unlucky always, and the lucky will be lucky. A man may go out for something he wants, but he will not get it unless fate so decrees.

Mrs. Myrtle Armstrong, 4063 Sheridan road — Decidedly no! If you sit around and wait for fate to take care of you, you will come out empty handed. If I make up my mind to do things, things will be done. That's a worth while thought to keep in mind, too.

Monroe Block, Providence, R. I., manufacturer—I do not believe in fate. If everybody did we would be automatons. As it is we have to make up our minds and follow our inclinations. Then we have more ambition, and ambition and work only will get one anywhere. It's we, not fate, that do things.

Miss Emily Hallman, 5037 Dorchester avenue, proprietor of hairdressing establishment—No. I almost pity those who do believe in that fatalistic theory. To my mind we make our own lives. There isn't anything forced upon us. Big people of the world did not trust in fate.

Mother of Five Arrested for Murder; Admits Killing

Mrs. Stella Haynoski, 30 years old, the mother of five children, was arrested here last night on a charge of murder at the request of Gary, W. Va., officials. She admitted she had killed a man named Lupenosky and said she did it because he had attacked her reputation.

YOUTH ADMITS TURNING IN 4 FALSE ALARMS

"Guess I Was Nuts," His Explanation.

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Judge William L. Morgan in the Boys' court will be asked by Fire Attorney Shirley T. High this morning to visit the full extent of the law upon Herbert Mogge, 4826 West Rice street, the 17 year old youth who amused himself yesterday morning by turning in false fire alarms.

Mogge turned in four false alarms in less than an hour. He might have set the entire fire department agog had it not been for his capture, resulting from the efficient work of Fire Operator Joseph O'Grady and Henry Martin of the fire attorney's office.

Will Ask Full Penalty.

Fire Attorney High declared he will insist Mogge be given the extreme penalty as set forth in a special statute enacted a year ago. This calls for a fine of $200 and a year in prison or both.

Mogge when captured readily confessed. He apparently could not, however, state why he had done so. He failed even to state how, why, or when the impulse to turn in false alarms had taken possession of him. A reporter asked him in his cell at the Central detail station why he had done it.

"Aw-ww, I guess I was nuts," he said, sheepishly.

The lad turned in his first call at 9:50 in the morning. Calling from a drug store at 1800 West Chicago avenue, he asked for the general fire alarm number, "Main O."

Reports Big Fire.

"There's a big fire at 1822 West Huron street!" he shouted into the receiver to O'Grady. A few minutes later the chief of the Sixth battalion reported the call as a false alarm. At 10:30 came the second call.

"Say, there's a big fire at 1822 West Chicago avenue. Send the fire department quick; there's a couple of kids hanging out of the window"

In a few minutes a third call came from a drug store at Chicago avenue and Paulina street, and a few minutes later a fourth from the same place.

"Right!" said O'Grady. "Right away. The engines are on the way there now. By the way, where are you calling from?"

"O, from a drug store out here," came the answer, and immediately Operative Martin was sent forth. The arrest of Mogge followed. The boy denies he turned in the alarm which recently caused the death of three firemen.

ECONOMIC ILLS' BEST REMEDY IS WORK--SEN. EDGE

"Industrial America will profit more by getting back to work than by depending on legislation to restore economic health," Senator Walter E. Edge of New Jersey said last night, in speaking to members of the Industrial club.

SENATOR EDGE. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Senator Edge attacked the agricultural bloc in the senate, terming it a failure of the members to represent the whole country and an effort for general rather than class legislation. He referred to it as an organization of a powerful group to work for legislation to benefit their own local communities rather than the nation. The senator praised the work of the disarmament conference.

ADMITS PLANNING TO KILL SISTER HE HAD ROBBED

Walter Ozimina, 28 years old, 1812 South Troy street, stood before Judge John A. Bugee in the Maxwell street court yesterday and told how he had planned to murder his sister, Mrs. Mary Ladek, 2440 South Whipple street, whom he had robbed of jewelry and merchandise valued at $2,000. It was on this charge that he was arraigned. The sister was in court.

"Yes, I meant to kill her," he said. "She had some more stuff I wanted. I was going to strangle her with this rope."

Judge Bugee ordered him held to the grand jury in bonds of $5,000. As the bailiff was leading him away, Mrs. Ladek arose, threw her arms about Ozimina's neck, and cried:

"Don't - take him away. Please, don't. I love him. He won't do it again."

"He won't have a chance for a while," murmured the judge.

Borowski's Assailant to Be Examined Again

Raymond Oberndorf, 1327 Fulton street, the young pianist who attempted to shoot Prof. Felix Borowski, president of the Chicago Musical college, was arraigned before Judge Jacobs in the Sheffield avenue court yesterday on a charge of assault with intent to kill. At the request of his attorney, Charles N. Goodnow, the case was continued until Feb. 1 in order that further observation might be made of the defendant's mental condition.

THE CHILDREN AND GEORGE WASHINGTON

More Entries in the Race for $11,650 in The Tribune's Prize for School Children and Teachers.

Here are more of the essays by boys and girls entered in the George Washington prize contest being conducted by The Tribune. The contest closes on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22.

A Patriot Who Gave All.

To the young and old and to those who love liberty, the memory of Washington is an incentive to love and admiration.

He was a hero whose sword was never raised except in defense of the cause of his country—which cause was intrusted to his keeping—and whose courage was firm and indomitable. With a small force of men he gave a blow to the proudest and pluckiest people of all Europe, the English, and they surrendered unconditionally. How was it accomplished? By Washington's strategy and undaunted and devoted spirit, which not only won the hearts of his countrymen but stirred a flame of admiration in France.

He was a patriot who gave all for his country. His was that patriotism which catches its inspiration from God. Now select the greatest general of today, take away his trained troops, show him a small army of farmers, unpaid, starved, and ragged; let him see a large and well governed army against him, and see if he will stand out with the calm, courageous, and undaunted love for his country as Washington did.

Washington was a statesman whose devoted and unselfish counsel, tender sympathies for his fellow citizens and reverence for the laws of peace command universal respect. The empires of many great generals have perished, but the republic established by this great general still endures. He may be justly regarded as a sacred symbol of our advancing nation, for by him was achieved the independence of America.

The Ideal Manhood.

If it should behoove us to meditate over the pages of the histories which were used by our fathers we would discover that Washington was a gallant general, who, through his marvelous warring abilities, became the father of our country.

Today, as our statesmen confer on the limitation of armaments, we realize that we entertained a disillusion; that it was not war which gave Washington his superiority, for not as a warrior was he unsurpassed, but, as Tennyson expresses it, he was "Ideal manhood clothed in real man."

Unmindful of his silk stockings and powdered wig, in a time when life was purer and faith stronger, he was simplicity itself while making friends with God. His religion, unlike Cromwell's, did not allow him to fear death, but to proffer his hand to it as a token of peace.

And when the world bemoaned his departure no one could say, as did Antony to Caesar's corpse: "Are all thy conquests, glories, triumphs, spoils shrunk to this little measure?" For, with all his bravado, it is not a descendant of Cain that we hallow, but a creator—the cornerstone of a great, new nation.

M. L. ROTHSCHILD HOME LOOTED OF $10,000 IN LIQUOR

Fifty cases of liquor, choice wines, and cordials, valued at $10,000, were taken from the home of Maurice L. Rothschild, 3725 South Michigan boulevard, yesterday morning by three robbers, who bound and gagged a chauffeur, garageman and houseman and then proceeded leisurely to loot the cellar.

The Rothschilds are in Minneapolis. Oscar Johnson, caretaker, was in charge of the house. He answered a ring at the basement door and found a man who exhibited a gold star and said he was a prohibition officer sent to inspect the liquor supply in the house. Johnson demurred and was forced inside at the point of a revolver.

Meanwhile similar treatment was given Joseph Neff, 4856 Champlain avenue, the chauffeur, and August Camporini, garageman, who lives over the garage. Both were in the garage when two men entered and produced revolvers, forcing them to go into the basement of the home. There all were tightly bound and carried to the second floor.

To reach the liquors it was necessary for the robbers to break through a steel door. A flat iron was used to knock off the handle, after which the door was battered in until the bolt snapped.

Their procedure was evidence they knew the location of the liquors and had knowledge of the plans and conditions of the household, the police say.

It was three hours before the three Rothschild employés freed themselves. They at once notified Mr. Rothschild's son, who lives at 3705 South Michigan boulevard. He called the police.

Lieut. Michael Grady of the detective bureau and his squad took charge of the investigation.

Princess Radziwill Pays Hotel Bill; Case Dropped

New York, Jan. 26.—Princess Radziwill has paid her hotel bill, so the charge against her in Coney Island was dismissed today. The princess contended all the time that she had the money and would pay as soon as she could get her allowance from banks in London, but Charles Alexander, the landlord, was a strict business man and had the princess arrested last October because she owed him $352.

Thrift means a higher standard of living without added expense, the dignity of serving oneself, and domestic independnce.

One of a series of articles contributed by editorial writers of Chicago's leading newspapers, evidencing their interest in domestic thrift and independence.

Liberty for the housewife

Nation-wide interest in good housekeeping is fittingly evident during this period of economic adjustment. Domestic science is no longer a topic of discussion restricted to women's magazines. Today we find the problems of home-making given consideration by such organs of financial trend as the Chicago Journal of Commerce from which the following editorial is reprinted.

THE nation has turned to a study of economics with a zeal that is akin to a passion for the subject. One has but to question a clerk in any book store, or to turn the pages of a popular magazine, to understand this awakening of the business sense of America. Men and women who have been laggard a lifetime in their attention to the necessary efficiencies of life are suddenly eager to learn. Yet in all this development there is scarce a trace of attention to the economics of the home.

The broom and dust pan have no more place in a home that might accommodate a vacuum sweeper than has the flail on a Kansas wheat farm. The tub and washboard have as little excuse for haunting the modern home as has the spinning wheel. A sorry slave to the traditions of the past is the woman who stands over the old fashioned kitchen range wielding hot sadirons when an electric iron might emancipate her.

There can be no doubt that an able efficiency engineer, could he bring himself to believe that the kitchen and the laundry are not beneath the dignity of his profession, could remove half the drudgery of the so-called modern home in a fortnight, and eventually practically eliminate it. He would marshal to his purposes the washing machine, the ironing machine, the vacuum sweeper, the dishwasher, the self-regulating range, instantaneous water heater, the fireless cooker; and all the known but little appreciated instruments of household efficiency.

These would be but the beginning. Stimulated by an army of appreciative housewives, he would invent and perfect other refinements of household machines now in use, that prove how primitive is our present development in this direction.

These are not idle theories. Some master salesman, some evangelist of home mechanics, will sell the women of the country on the idea of efficiency in the home. He will be the Thomas A. Edison of the home. He will banish the tools of drudgery as Edison chased kerosene lights off the streets and oil lamps from parlor tables. He will give the women of the nation more time for recreation and self-improvement, for child rearing and civic endeavor.

In the meantime the educational campaigns conducted by the utility companies and the manufacturers of household machinery and labor-saving devices, are doing excellent work in this direction. No sales effort in the world has a greater sociological appeal.

He's a New Man

—Mentally, physically, financially. Taking treatment for his "social" disease accomplished wonders!

Here is the story of how a few dollars a week invested in medical treatment for a "social" disease brought a man $50 more a month in salary.

The man in question was employed in a Chicago office. He may have thought he was working at full efficiency, but he was not. He was not nearly doing justice to himself.

Anxious to rid himself of the disease and learning of the work of the Public Health Institute and the small cost of the medical treatment, he came here with his problems.

Not long after commencing treatment, there came decided improvement in the man's condition. He began to look and feel like a new man. He showed new activity, new efficiency in his work. He made himself so much more useful to his employer as to draw an increase of $50 a month in salary.

This is but one example showing how materially it pays the infected person to see to it that he gets the proper medical care and attention.

Officers and Trustees of Public Health Institute:

A. A. Sprague, President & Treasurer Chairman of Board Sprague, Warner & Co.
Harold F. McCormick, Vice-President President International Harvester Co.
Myron E. Adams, Sec. Executive Manager Ft. Sheridan Association
General James A. Ryan
Samuel Insull, President Commonwealth Edison Co.
A. A. Carpenter, Ayer & Lord Tie Co.
Nathan William MacChesney, Attorney and Counsellor.
Thos. R. Gowenlock Publicity Counsellor.
H. M. Byllesby, Pres. H. M. Byllesby & Co.

To Help Every Infected Person

The Public Health Institute wants to help every person who is venereally diseased. In doing so, it is benefiting the public at large. It is reducing the danger of infection. Besides giving medical treatment at small cost, the Institute also carries on valuable educational work on the prevention of venereal disease in the interest of the common good and welfare.

Anybody—man or woman—suffering from a venereal disease, no matter how acute or chronic, is invited to come to the Institute for treatment. The facilities for diagnosis and treatment are the finest to be had.

There is no embarrassment experienced in calling at the Institute. Everything is private. No unnecessary delay or waiting in a reception room full of people. The Institute can handle 30 patients at a time, each in a private treatment room. Special department for women.

Hours from 10 in the morning until 8 in the evening. Arrange your treatments to suit your own convenience. If you can't come during the day, come in the evening after working hours.

Complete explanatory booklet sent by mail (under plain cover) postpaid and free. If you are suffering from a venereal disease act instantly for your own sake and for the sake of others near and dear to you. Your treatment affords them protection.

SLIGHT CHANGES MARK TRADING IN ALL GRAINS

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Wheat prices are fluctuating rapidly without getting far in either direction. The average for the day was lower, at the inside showing ⅝@¾c under the finish of the previous day, but toward the last evening up on the part of the local element made a rally and the close was ¼c lower on May and ⅛c higher on the July. Removal of hedges failed to help the corn market and that grain and oats closed ¼c lower, while rye was off ⅛c.

Foreign markets came lower at the start and the trade was in a mood where bearish developments more than offset those of a strengthening character.

It was not until near the close that the price got above the previous day's finish, and the market was dull until around noon, holding within a range of about ⅛c up to that time.

Corn Hedges Removed.

Removal of hedges on around 800,000 bu cash corn sold for export, including grits for Russian relief failed to help the market for futures and the undertone was rather easy with the close at the bottom.

Country offerings were fair and domestic demand slow. Argentine cables were mixed with reports of locusts doing some damage in the province of Cordoba, and late messages indicated that rain would be welcome over the entire belt.

Foreign demand for oats was again in evidence with sales of 20,000 bu at the seaboard and inquiries for 250,000 bu more, but with corn lower early and selling by some of the buyers of last week prices declined readily.

A broader export interest was noted in rye, but there were no bids of consequence received in the west, and the bulk of trade in futures was of a local character.

Provision Prices Lower.

Freer offerings from longs and some selling by packers brought about a lower range of provision prices. Support was lacking until near the last. Lard closed 12½c lower to 2½c higher and short ribs unchanged to 22½c lower, the latter on May. Deliveries on January contracts were 500 brls pork, 100,000 lbs lard and 50,000 lbs short ribs. Cash trade was slower than of late. Prices follow:

CASH·GRAIN N'EWS

Estimated sales of wheat at the seaboard yesterday were 200,000 bu and of corn 500,000 bu. There were some inquiries for rye, and a vessel is loading 1,200 tons at New York and another will load 4,000 tons at Baltimore shortly with another to load 4,000 tons at Baltimore for Riga. Export sales of flour aggregated 50,000 brls aside from Russian relief purchases.

Chicago handlers sold around 800,000 bu corn in all positions. Domestic shipping sales, 7,000 bu wheat, 25,000 bu corn and 142,000 bu oats.

Offerings of spot wheat at Chicago small, and hard winters were a little firmer with No. 2 quoted at May to 1c under while No. 1 red was 7@8¼c over. Receipts, 12 cars. St. Louis advanced 1@2c; Kansas City, unchanged to 1c lower; Omaha, unchanged; Minneapolis, premiums unchanged to 3c lower with the poorer kinds leading.

Cash corn prices at Chicago unchanged to ½c lower with the basis slightly firmer compared with the May. No. 2 grades sold at 46¼c under; No. 3 grades at 5¼@5½c under and No. 4 grades at 6¼@6½c under the future. Receipts, 584 cars. Outside markets easy and unchanged to ½c lower.

Demand for cash oats only fair with sample values unchanged, to ¼c lower. No. 2 white brought 1½@2c and No. 3 white 4@5c under May. Receipts 82 cars.

PIT VOTES TODAY ON NEW CLEARING HOUSE SYSTEM

The board of trade is torn up over the movement for a new clearing house plan. Four or more previous attempts to change to a different clearing house system have been defeated. A vote is to be taken today on the proposition to give the directors power to establish a clearing house corporation subject to their approval.

A meeting was held yesterday at which leading features of the proposed plan were discussed. S. P. Arnot, who has been a strong exponent of a new system for years, explained the main points. He said that in case the new plan does not work satisfactorily return to the old might be made at any time, adding that in other markets where it has been tried there has been no desire to go back.

A. L. Lindley of Clement, Curtis & Co. said the proposed system would greatly simplify matters. R. I. Mansfield and S. C. Harris told of their experiences under the Chicago system as compared with that in Minneapolis.

One strong point brought out was that the sheets sent into the clearing house under the new plan could be used as the basis of taxes and would also answer requirements of the Capper-Tincher bill, that certain records be kept.

John Hill Jr. led the opposition to the proposed plan and claimed that under it the average "pit trader" might be technically guilty of violating the "bucket shop" law of Illinois.

"The proposed new system if adopted would mark the end of the 'scalper' who each day aims to quit even," he said.

WORLD'S·GRAIN MARKET·NEWS

It is expected that the fight over the new clearing house movement which comes up for a ballot vote today will draw attention from trading, and many look for lower prices for grains unless there is a decided increase in the outside trade which has lagred of late. For several days the markets have acted tired, meeting selling on all bulges, and new factors are needed to stimulate buying and bring higher prices.

Several local operators who have studied the statistics closely say they are willing to wait thirty days or more for the wheat market to begin to show the effect of the unprecedented situation as they regard it. By that time they believe that it will assert itself and broaden the trade so that values will advance. For the present they expect that prices will hold near the present level, working up and down a few cents until something happens to make a change.

Opinions as to the continued large movement of corn vary. One interest close to the country says farmers will sell corn right along regardless of prices. Another says farmers are holding their corn above market levels and consigning fairly. Another that Illinois farmers who have held for 40 cents have sold the bulk of their grain. A traveling man for a commission house says farmers will sell freely at that level. Consignments are liberal.

A revision in the world's statistical position of wheat will be necessary, due to the final estimate on the Canadian crop which reduced the theoretical surplus of that country by 30,000,000 bu to a total of 200,000,000 bu. North America is expected to clear around 450,000,00 bu for the crop year, and Australia 80,000,000 bu, while the Argentine surplus is still in doubt and ranges from 125,000,000 to 168,000,000 bu. On the basis of 150,000,000 bu, this would give an apparent world's surplus of 680,000,000 bu, compared with the general accepted import needs of other countries of around 600,000,000 to 625,000,000 bu. This is regarded as a very close adjustment of supply to demand, especially in view of the poor outlook for the winter wheat crop in the American southwest and the unfavorable start in some of the European countries.

Conflicting reports as to moisture conditions are coming from Argentina. One cable yesterday indicated that rain had damaged the wheat crop, while another said rains were needed over the corn belt.

"Grain men compare the present condition of winter wheat with that of 1916-'17, when drought prevailed up to Feb. 1," wired Thomson & McKinnon's Wichita, Kas., office. "After that date copious rains fell and the crop greened up beautifully. About May 1 the crop started to go back because of poor root development and the final yield was 47,000,000 bu."

Purchases of 5,000 tons corn grits were said to have been made by the Russian relief Wednesday in preference to taking corn. Hedges on 300,000 bu corn were bought in here yesterday against most of these grits. Since the buying movement for Russian relief started around 15,000 tons of grits have been taken. By taking grits the relief commission gets its corn in bags already for shipment and in shape to be unloaded without delay for immediate distribution among the famine sections in Russia. Grits were taken by the near eastern and Austrian relief last year and proved highly satisfactory, especially for children's food. They arrived in good shape and passed into consumption at once.

Board of Trade memberships have sold the last few days at $3,500, $4,000, and $5,000 net to the buyer.

BETHLEHEM TO PUT 25 MILLION IN NEW PLANTS

New York, Jan. 26.—Notwithstanding that the plants of the corporation are running at only one-third their normal capacity, the board of directors of the Bethlehem Steel corporation today voted to appropriate $25,000,000 for the construction of additional works.

This was announced tonight by Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board, in an address before the Hotel Men's Association of New York. This action was taken, he said, because he has faith in the people and the government of the country, which he described as "the workshop of the world."

The outstanding feature of Mr. Schwab's address was a plea for less interference in business by the government.

Want Government "Hands Off."

"Business would be helped with less legislation," he said. "We must have true economy as a basis in government. We'll never have successful business unless the initiative and enterprise of business men is enlisted in the work of reconstruction.

"Let railroad men have a free hand in the development of transportation and the first great step toward a successful rehabilitation of business will have taken place."

The financier went on to say that the government must not interfere with business by stating how much money men should be paid a day, unless it made certain that men "did a real day's work for a real day's pay."

He always found times of business stagnation the most interesting, he said, because it was then only that business men displayed their greatest acumen and ingenuity.

"Depression," he said, "provides all the more reason for working hard to restore the business equilibrium."

Heavy Drop in Earnings.

Gross sales and earnings of the Bethlehem corporation for 1921 amounted to $147,794,353, against $274,431,236 in 1920, according to a preliminary report which was issued today. Total net earnings of $25,754,678 compared with $36,351,554 in the previous year, and net income of $10,332,804 was less by $4,126,000.

The net income represented earnings of 7.6 per cent on the common stock, after payment of regular dividends on both classes of preferred issues, these having been declared for the four quarters of the current year.

President E. G. Grace said the plants are operating at about 30 per cent of capacity, while the activities in the shipbuilding plant are limited to completion of a few old contracts and a moderate amount of repair business.

"Just as soon as the country can give cheaper transportation, cheaper fuels, and cheaper building operations through the lowering of high labor rates in these important industries," added President Grace, "we should start forward, provided necessary revisions are made in existing tax laws and the American merchant marine is made possible for economical and efficient distribution throughout the world of our farm and manufactured products."

The Meaning of Service—

Service, to the Marquette Company, means something more than a mere word or a vague ideal. It stands for the devotion of men who have spent their working lives in bringing Marquette Cement to its high quality level. It is also exemplified by the promptness and willingness with which this company anticipates and meets the needs of its customers. Marquette Service is an added factor for success on every building project.

The New York Times.

New York, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—On the stock exchange today the result of the overdoing of their work by professional manipulators was indicated in a general decline, mostly fractional, but in some of the recent subjects of speculation from 1 to 3 points.

Exchange on European continental markets was in most cases lower, but sterling touched $4.23 for the first time in a fortnight.

The fall in cotton to the lowest since last August—today's spot price of 16.70c was touched only once in the intervening period, Nov. 12—was the outstanding event in commodity markets. The trade is evidently postponing purchases, whether wisely or not we shall know later on.

Bond Market Erratic.

There were both advances and declines in the market for investment bonds. While the Liberty bonds in general declined a fraction, the Victory 4¾ per cents rose to 100.30, the highest price ever reached by them. The advance was caused by the treasury's important announcement in connection with its offer of $400,000,000 new three year notes, that Victory bonds will not only be received in payment in lieu of cash for subscription to that amount but will be accepted for an additional $200,000,000.

Since the Victory bonds fall due May 20, 1923, and the new short notes in March, 1925, such conversion would be equivalent to an extension of not quite two years in the life of the bonds used for such subscription.

Purpose of Conversion.

The purpose of this conversion is clear. The Victory loan, amounting originally to $4,495,000,000, has since been reduced through treasury repurchases to $3,548,000,000; but even redemption between now and date of maturity at a similar rate would leave more than $2,500,000,000 for payment or refunding a year from next May. Any such amount is too large to pay off or refund at any one time; hence the treasury's policy of extending, through the proposed $200,000,000 conversion, the maturity of some hundreds of millions of the outstanding Victory loan.

That the price of the outstanding Victory bonds should have advanced on the announcement was due to the fact that the near maturity of the existing loan had barred any considerable premium and had kept away the larger investing institutions.

Consolidated Drop Laid to No Action on the Dividend

New York, Jan. 26.—The drop in Consolidated Gas from 91 to 87 today, the low for the year, with a closing price of 87¾, was attributed to the adjournment of the board without taking definite action on the dividend. The dividend matter was referred to the executive committee for action next Tuesday. This was held by many persons to indicate a desire by the management to base dividend action on the Supreme court's decision regarding the company's rates and earnings, which is expected Monday.

FINANCIAL NOTES

Advices received in Wall street from Pittsburgh are that the steel circles are in receipt of information that the proposed merger of three of the independent steel companies, the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, Inland Steel company, and the Steel and Tube Company of America has fallen through with the proposed merger of seven companies which was to include the above, Republic, Lackawanna, Midvale, and Brier Hill Steel. The information had a depressing effect on the steel stocks. One of the reasons for the calling off of the merger is said to be the inability of those concerned to agree on valuations.

Another group of companies was added to the long list of concerns which are expected to merge during the coming year. Thus far the street has heard of all sorts of consolidations. Now Wall street hears that "collars and shirts" are to be consolidated. According to reports, the Cluett, Peabody company, Manhattan Shirt company, and Phillips & Jones are to be consolidated. The entrance of new banking interests to one of the companies mentioned has given rise to the report.

The strength in New Haven in face of weakness in the rest of the list yesterday was based upon reports to the effect that the government has decided to return the trolley companies to the New Haven but that an announcement to that effect will not be made public for a week or so.

Canada's fur industry fell off 52 per cent during the year 1920-21, according to reports made public by the dominion's bureau of statistics. Furs valued at $10,122,571 were taken during the last year, while the previous annual yield was $21,387,005. The pelts of fur bearing animals numbered only 2,924,500, a decrease of 18 per cent.

It is reported that the First National bank of New York and associates have arranged to make an $8,000,000 one year 6 per cent bank loan to the Tidewater Oil company. The loan is said to carry an option of payment by Aug. 1.

The Denver Gas and Electric Light company has made arrangements for the payment at maturity of the $2,000,000 two year 7 per cent notes of that company maturing on March 1.

Frederick T. Chandler Jr., board member of the brokerage firm of Chandler Brothers & Co., now in receivership, was expelled from the New York stock exchange. The exchange governing committee announced that the firm's failure was caused by "reckless and unbusinesslike dealings."

Suit in equity has been filed in Pittsburgh by stockholders to recover $240,000 from E. W. Harrison and C. H. Forster, respectively president and vice president-treasurer of the Superior Steel corporation. The bill charges that at alleged illegal and void meetings of the board of directors of the corporation in 1918, 1919, and 1920 sums aggregating the amount sued for were voted to Harrison and Forster as "extra compensation or commissions." In 1920, it is alleged, a regular percentage scheme for paying Harrison and Forster was entered into.

Transit committee of New York approved the application of Receiver Garrison of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company for permission to extend the maturity date from Feb. 1, 1922, to Feb. 1, 1923, of $16,000,000 receivers' certificates, and to increase the interest theron for the extended period from 6 to 8 per cent.

Word has been received from Washington that the government has reduced its claim for back taxes against the Lincoln Motor company from $4,500,000 to $610,000. Judge Tuttle, at the request of the receivers for the company, has issued an order making the back taxes a preferred claim.

The American Petroleum institute estimates the daily average gross crude oil production in the United States for the week ended Jan. 21 was 1,416,300 barrels, compared with 1,430,710 barrels for the last preceding week.

A syndicate has been formed to offer $1,500,000 of Selberling Rubber company 8 per cent preferred stock in blocks of four shares of preferred and sixty shares of no-par common for $1,000. Assets are listed at $4,300,000.

Directors of the Taylor-Wharton Iron and Steel company have voted to pass the quarterly distribution on the preferred shares, due at this time. Regular quarterly dividends of 1¾ per cent have been paid on this issue for years.

V. S. Swigger of Oil City, Pa., has been elected secretary of the Southwest Pennsylvania pipe lines to succeed C. A. McLouth, resigned.

E. H. Rollins & Sons elected John W. Esmond vice president and manager of the Chicago office and L. A. Gridley as director and assistant manager at Chicago.

C. F. Noble, president, and all directors of the C. F. Noble Oil and Gas company have resigned, and an entirely new board, comprised of prominent Michigan bankers and business men, has been elected.

RAILROAD NOTES

The Interstate commerce commission yesterday modified its order authorizing the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy to sell $30,000,000 of first and refunding mortgage bonds by providing that the bonds shall be sold at not less than 92½ per cent of the par value and accrued interest and at a total cost not to exceed 5½ per cent cost.

Sale of railroad equipment trust certificates in the amount of $6,077,400 was announced in Washington, making a total of $218,132,100 of these obligations disposed of by the government to date. The sales consisted of blocks of Kansas City terminal, Terminal Railroad association of St. Louis, Indiana Harbor Belt, Monongahela railway, Pere Marquette railway, and Maine Central railway certificates. At the same time the war finance corporation announced that its advance of $2,355,000 to the Southern Railway company, made in 1918, has been repaid in full.

An application to the interstate commerce commission from the Illinois Central railroad seeks approval of a contract which the road proposes to make with the Pullman company, by which it will acquire 650 new refrigerator cars at a cost of $1,748,000, payment to be completed in ten years.

Reductions ranging as high as 33 1-3 per cent on many commodities from New York to California, terminals and intermediate points via Southern Pacific lines have been announced. The effective date will be announced shortly.

The American Railway association reports that on Jan. 15 there were 583,298 idle cars, compared with 646,673 on Jan. 8.

Capitalization (after completion present financing)

	Authorized	To be Outstanding
15-Year 8% Notes (this issue)	$ 500,000	$500,000
8% Participating Preferred Stock ($500,000 reserved for conversion of these Notes)	1,000,000	75,000
Common Stock	1,000,000	750,000

From a letter of Fred Wardell, President of the Company, are summarized the following salient facts:

Security: These notes are the only funded debt of the Company with total assets $2,227,979, and are secured by closed first mortgage on the Company's store and office property at 1521 Broadway, in the downtown business section of Detroit, and on the new manufecturing site of the Company at Dewey and Greenwood Avenues, Detroit, these properties being valued by the American Appraisal Company at $462,974. The notes are also secured by a pledge of the lease of the Company's present factory, this lease having about 8 years yet to run with a purchase option below present values.

Sinking Fund: A Sinking Fund of 10% of net earnings but not exceeding amount necessary to redeem $50,000 par value of notes, with a minimum of $35,000, to be applied for each year starting with 1923 to the redemption of notes by purchase or call at above prices. This sinking fund is calculated to retire entire issue by or before maturity.

This Company is one of the three largest companies of the sort in this country. Net earnings available for interest and Federal taxes during the past four years have averaged over 7½ times interest requirements. In 1921 they were over 14 times requirements.

Quick Asset Requirements: The indenture requires that the Company maintain at all times net quick assets of 150% of this note issue and that quick assets be maintained of at least twice current liabilities. The present ratios exceed these requirements. Net assets equal $2,976 per $1,000 note and net quick assets equal $1,557 per $1,000 note.

Purpose of Issue: The present financing is incidental to providing capital requirements of this growing business.

Management: No change is contemplated in the management which has been in charge throughout the life of the Company.

The accounts of the Company are audited by Messrs. Ernst & Ernst. All legal matters are subject to approval by Messrs. Yerkes, Simons & Goddard, Detroit, counsel for the Company, and Messrs. Campbell, Bulkley & Ledyard, Detroit, counsel for the bankers.

Series 71-A to 71-E, Inclusive

Dated January 15, 1920, to mature in fifteen equal annual installments. Redeemable as a whole on any interest date, at the option of the Railway Company, at 103 and interest, on sixty days' previous notice. Interest payable January 15 and July 15. Principal and interest payable in U. S. Gold in New York City.

Coupon Notes in denomination of $1,000 each, registerable as to principal only.

These Notes are a direct obligation of The St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company under Equipment Trust Agreements between the Director General of Railroads, the Railway Company and the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, trustee. The title to the equipment under the respective agreements remain in the trustee until all of the Notes have been paid. Through supplemental agreements, dated January 15, 1922, 33⅓% of the Notes of each maturity, held by the Director General, are to be stamped so as to give preference and priority to the above offered unstamped Notes out of any moneys received or collected by the trustee under the Equipment Trust Agreements in case of default. Upon the execution of the supplemental agreements, the unstamped Notes will be outstanding to the extent of only about 58% of the original cost of the equipment, viz.: over $14,383,500 on which they are secured.

The original issue of these Notes amounted to $14,383,500, of which there have been paid off on January 15, 1921, and January 15, 1922, $1,917,800, leaving still outstanding $12,465,700. Under the supplemental agreements referred to above, one-third of each maturity, aggregating $4,155,200, is to be subordinated to the remaining $8,310,500 Notes now offered by us.

The equipment consists of:

33 Light Mikado Locomotives.
7 Light Switching Locomotives.
3,500 Double Sheathed 40-ton box cars.
1,000 Composite 50-ton Gondola Cars.

For the eleven months ending November 30, 1921, the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company reports net income after taxes, rentals, etc., available for fixed interest charges $16,105,637, whereas the fixed interest charges, including interest on the above Equipment Trust Notes, amounted to only $8,785,959 for that period.

We offer the above notes, subject to prior sale if, as and when received by us, at the following prices:

RESERVE BANKS' REPORT SHOWS STEADY GAINS

BY O. A. MATHER.

The banking situation of the country is about back to its pre-war strength. In fact, the weekly statement of the federal reserve system shows its reserve position at the highest point since April, 1917, when the United States went to war with Germany. This constantly improving condition should pave the way for another reduction in rediscount rates, although such reduction may not take place until early spring.

The current statement, like its predecessors for a number of months, shows steady deflation of credits and paper currency represented by federal reserve notes. Compared with a year ago, this paper currency has contracted about 43 per cent, while rediscounts have been reduced more than 50 per cent.

Statement of Twelve Banks.

The consolidated statement of the twelve federal reserve banks shows loans dropped $63,649,000, those on government obligations and on commercial paper declining $30,751,000 and $32,898,000, respectively. Bills bought receded $12,235,000. Total bills declined $75,884,000. Holdings of government securities expanded $23,064,000. Total earning assets receded $52,830,000. Gold and total reserves increased $5,556,000 and $7,352,000, respectively.

Total deposits receded $6,098,000, the member banks' reserve credits declining $21,520,000, government deposits increasing $18,181,000, and other deposits receding $2,759,000. Federal reserve note circulation fell $45,676,000. The ratio of total reserves to deposit and federal reserve note liabilities combined rose to 77.2 from 76 per cent in the preceding week.

Condition of New York Bank.

The statement of the New York federal reserve bank shows sharp improvement. Gold and total reserves expanded $27,206,000 and $25,065,000 respectively. Loans receded $25,960,000, those on government obligations and on commercial paper declining $21,668,000 and $4,292,000 respectively. Bills bought receded $7,375,000. Total bills declined $33,336,000. Total earning assets receded $25,145,000.

Total deposits declined $4,382,000, although the member banks' reserve credits increased $862,000. Federal reserve note circulation receded $6,709,000. The ratio of total reserves to deposit and federal reserve note liabilities combined rose to 89.6 from 87.6 per cent in the preceding week.

Chicago Banks' Report.

The statement of the Chicago federal reserve bank shows no change in its reserve position. Gold and total reserves declined $6,226,000 and $7,964,000 respectively. Loans receded $8,216,000, those on government obligations and on commercial paper declining $545,000 and $7,671,000 respectively. Bills bought receded $1,617,000. Total bills declined $9,832,000. Total earning assets receded $2,409,000.

Total deposits receded $2,643,000, due entirely to the member banks' reserve credits declining $6,678,000. Federal reserve note circulation receded $8,546,000. The ratio of total reserves to deposit and federal reserve note liabilities combined remained stationary at 72.8 per cent.

CHICAGO STOCK TRANSACTIONS

The tendency of Chicago stocks yesterday was firm. Stewart-Warner and Wahl led the activity with gains of ⅝ and ⅛ respectively. National Leather was up a minor fraction. Libby was steady. Union Carbide dropped half a point. On small sales, American Radiator preferred advanced 2 points, while Wrigley and Ward preferred were up 1½ each. American Shipbuilding dropped 3 points while Thompson was off 1⅛. People's Gas dropped a point and was off 1⅛ on the New York exchange.

The directors of the Wahl company yesterday increased the annual dividend on the common stock from $4.00 to $6.00 by declaring a quarterly dividend of $1.50, payable April 1 to stockholders of record March 23. At the same time they inaugurated monthly dividends by declaring dividends of 50 cents a share, payable on the first day of May, June, and July to stockholders of record on the 22d day of preceding months.

Considerable strength featured the hog trade yesterday, with the finish best time of the day, notwithstanding a large number were carried over by speculators. Late shipping orders added tone to the situation. All outside western markets advanced sharply, while the east ruled weak to lower.

Top hogs advanced 10c here, with best lights at $9.00. General average price moved up 15c to $8.65, the spread in values being narrowest in some time. Today's receipts are estimated at 30,000, including 8,000 consigned to packers from outside markets. With anything like a letup in the next week's hog supplies most traders are counting on a sharp upturn in values.

Big Steers at $8.00.

Yesterday's cattle trade was featured by the sale of 32 head of 2,054 lb bullocks to Swift at $8.00 per 100 lbs, or over $164 per head. They were unusually heavy and attracted considerable attention. Best grades of cattle were little changed from Wednesday, with other kinds weak to 25c lower. Best steers offered sold at $9.25, averaging 1,410 lbs.

Some 103 lb aged sheep sold yesterday at $9.50 and fancy 86 lb lambs at $13.85. Sheep were generally steady, while lambs closed 20@35c lower, few selling above $13.50. Western ewes reached $7.75. Feeding lambs sold at $11.75@12.50.

Seven western markets received 28,000 cattle, 113,000 hogs, and 35,000 sheep, against 24,000 cattle, 118,000 hogs, and 44,000 sheep the previous Thursday, and 35,000 cattle, 114,000 hogs, and 56,000 sheep a year ago.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 5,000 cattle, 30,000 hogs, and 12,000 sheep, against 4,757 cattle, 29,672 hogs, and 15,740 sheep the corresponding Friday a year ago.

Beneficial Loan Society.

W. G. P.—The Beneficial Loan society was incorporated in Delaware Dec. 27, 1913. It has capital stock of $350,000 of $10 par value, all issued. This is paying 7 per cent per annum in semi-annual payments of 3½ per cent. It has outstanding about $3,500,000 of 6 per cent debenture bonds dated Jan. 1, 1914, due Dec. 31, 1938. With each bond is issued a certificate which entitles the holder to pro rata share of at least one-third of net profits yearly. The society reports for the year ended Nov. 30, 1921, net income of $362,780, or over two and one-half times interest charges on the debentures. It reports $102,578 paid to profit sharing certificate holders and $24,247 paid in dividends on the stock. Surplus and undivided profits are given as $140,671. The debentures are unsecured. Interest is being earned by a good margin.

South Bend Watch.

O. D., Herbert, Ill.—The $250,000 South Bend Watch company 7½ per cent bonds, due Dec. 15, 1931, are secured by a closed first mortgage on all the company's property, valued at $608,486, or over 2.4 times the issue. Tangible assets as of Oct. 31, 1921, giving effect to this financing, were over 4.8 times these bonds. Net earnings before depreciation, interest, and taxes for 1920 were over eight and one-half times interest charges on these bonds, and for three years to Dec. 31, 1920, such earnings averaged over seven times these charges. The 1921 figures are not yet available, but the bonds appear to have a wide margin of safety. They are a business man's investment.

BOSTROM TO TELL REALTORS ABOUT CHICAGO ZONING

BY AL CHASE.

Building Commissioner Charles Bostrom, chairman of the Chicago zoning commission, is going to tell what already has been accomplished toward getting Chicago ready for zoning and also explain with the aid of maps what zoning is going to mean to Chicago at a luncheon today at the Chicago real estate board.

"It's going to be one of the most important and significant talks Chicago realtors have listened to in a long while and one which every property owner should hear as well as every realtor," said J. Soule Warterfield, business manager of the Chicago real estate board.

Realty Market Dull.

Chicago's realty market this week is taking a rest and trying to get its breath after the burst of speed it showed the first part of the month. The only good sized deals are flat buildings, and the largest of yesterday was the sale of the forty-fiver at 3720-28 Pine Grove avenue, at what appears to be a profit of $35,000. This was sold by Plotke & Grosby last March to Harry E. Schmidt of Columbus, O., for a reported $225,000. Now the gentleman from the Buckeye state has disposed of it to two residents of West Virginia, A. Solot and J. N. Pollet of Charlestown, for an indicated $260,000, subject to $190,000. The property is 100x225.

Another good sized north side deal was the twenty-four flat building at 4908-18 Glenwood avenue, 145x120, bought by George A. Lee from W. H. Moorhead for $150,000.

State Street Shop Lease.

Harry and Julius Greengard, who now operate the Green grill in the Great Northern building, have leased the store at 189 North State street, across from the State-Lake theater, and will remodel and use as a men's coffee shop and grill. The space is 14x70. Hefter & Wells represented all parties. James F. Porter was lessor.

The actual consideration paid for the 170x177 at the southwest corner of Prairie and 20th, as a site for a $600,000 printing plant of the Atwell Printing and Binding company, was $72,500 cash, according to E. Orris Hart & Co. At the time the deal was reported in this department it was understood the consideration was $85,000.

BUSINESS NEWS IN BRIEF

COPYRIGHT: 1922 BY FAIRCHILD NEWS SERVICE.

NEW YORK.—The New York fur industry is in a furore over developments following government's charges of $2,000,000 tax frauds in the industry last year. Melville G. Newmark, actuary of the American Fur Dealers' association, was arrested and held in $5,000 bail pending the government investigation. Thirty unnamed manufacturers met today to organize a united defense based on the ground that they were duped by fraudulent tax collectors. Revenue agents from Washington arrived and started a door to door quest for information.

NEW YORK.—The Associated Dress Industries of America, at its annual meeting, decide to establish a purchasing department. It will function in the piece goods market.

NEW YORK.—Indications point to a better demand for higher grade men's underwear. Lower prices to the consumer, however, appear as far off as ever.

NEW YORK.—Retailers, arriving in the linen market to find "bargains" for winding up "white sales," report low prices can be found despite the officially higher trend.

PHILADELPHIA.—Cotton yarn rates weakened again Thursday. In some instances prices were down a cent and a half a pound from Wednesday.

LONDON.—Wool values softened as much as 5 per cent at Wednesday's auction. Bradford expresses belief prices have reached the peak.

NEW YORK.—The American Protective and Credit Service corporation has sued the National Association of Credit Men and its secretary, J. Harry Tregoe. Damages asked are $150,000. Counsel for complainant intimates the defendants committed a libel in reporting on the American corporation.

NEW YORK.—New serge prices are generally considered low. Quotations may be advanced shortly.

NEW YORK.—Retail clothiers who are "past due" in their accounts for winter merchandise are being turned down on spring orders. An ultra-conservative policy is in effect in the New York market.

NEW YORK.—An American railway has placed an order in Belfast for 9,000 pounds of napkin cloth, Belfast dispatches state, but do not give name of railway.

NEW YORK.—French top coats of English fabrics soon will be brought here in sufficient quantities to deliver at the rate of 10,000 weekly. Distribution may be made on the coöperative plan. Coats can be retailed at $15.

NEW YORK.—Cotton's slump on Thursday caused a sympathetic price movement in gray goods. At the close a few lots of 39 inch, 64x60, 5.35 yards to the pound, sold at 8 cents a yard. All print cloth prices went down. Following are closing quotations: 68x72, 4.75 yard, 9¼ cents; 72x76, 4.25 yard, 10¼ cents; 80x80, 4.00 yard, 11¼ cents.

Enormous Trading Marks Advance in Victory Issues

New York, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—The feature in the bond market today marked the advance in the United States Victory 3¾s and 4¾s per cent issues to new high records. Transactions in the 4¾s were on an enormous scale and aggregated a par value of $3,000,000 in the first two hours. They sold at 100.30, or 4c above the previous top. The 3¾s reached 100.28.

A few extraordinary gains took place among rails, Chicago and Western Indiana 5s having a pronounced movement of 2 points. New York Central debenture 4s advanced a point and the Burlington 6½s reached 107, up ½, followed by a reaction. Like fluctuations were witnessed in Louisville and Nashville 6½s, the Frisco bonds and the Baltimore and Ohio convertible 4½s.

CANADIAN WHEAT FIGURES.

Latest official figures on last year's wheat crop in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta are 280,908,000 bu, against 233,000,000 bu the previous year and 29,000,000 bu under the previous estimates this year. Oats, 284,000,000 bu, against 314,000,000 bu the previous year. Barley, 44,681,000 bu, an increase of 4,000,000 bu, and flax 4,945,00 bu, a loss of 3,000,000 bu. The Winnipeg wheat market closed easier and oats higher than Wednesday.

LEGAL NOTICES.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF ONTARIO.

Between:
CLARENCE D. HOWE and WILLIAM H. SOUBA, carrying on business under the firm name and style of "C. D. Howe & Company," Plaintiffs, and
THE MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF PORT ARTHUR, THE BOARD OF PARK MANAGEMENT OF THE CITY OF PORT ARTHUR, THE KAMINISTIQUA PULP AND PAPER COMPANY, LIMITED, and THE CAPITAL TRUST CORPORATION, Defendants.

Pursuant to the judgment herein and the order of Reference bearing date the 25th day of July, 1921, there will be offered for sale by public auction at the Court House in the City of Port Arthur, in the District of Thunder Bay, in the Province of Ontario, Canada, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon, on Monday, the 20th day of February, 1922, all the estate, right, title, and interest of the defendants, the Kaministiqua Pulp and Paper Company, Limited, under the Lease to the said Company from the defendants, the Board of Park Management of the City of Port Arthur, and also all the estate, right, title, and interest of the defendants the Capital Trust Corporation, under the mortgage from the defendant, the Kaministiqua Pulp and Paper Company, Limited, on that certain parcel or tract of land and premises described as follows:

"Property includes a 99 year leasehold on approximately twelve [12] acres of land and four [4] acres of land covered by water having a harbor frontage of 401.2 feet. Ground wood pulp mill is of reinforced concrete construction throughout, except roof of grinder and wet rooms, which is mill construction type on steel trusses. Building includes complete equipment of transformers, motors, grinders, wet machines, pumps, hydraulic presses, bailer, heating plant for ground wood mill having daily capacity of thirty [30] tons of dry pulp. Layout is modern and equipment first class. Mill is ready for immediate operation. Wood room is steel and corrugated iron construction on concrete foundations with equipment for slashing and barking forty [40] cords of wood per ten hours. Boiler house is of steel and corrugated iron construction on concrete foundations with boiler capacity of 220 h. p. Mill is located within two miles of Port Arthur postoffice and main line street railway passes site."

The said lands and premises being more particularly described by metes and bounds in the lease and mortgage registered in the Registry Office for the said City of Port Arthur and copies of which will be produced at time of sale and on which property are said to be erected a building suitable for the manufacture of ground wood pulp, as described in the above particulars.

Inspection of the said premises may be had at any time during the day, prior to the day of sale, by any intending purchaser on application to the solicitor for the Vendors.

The property will be offered for sale subject to a reserved bid.

The purchaser will be required to pay down the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars on the day of sale as a deposit on account of the purchase money. This deposit will be forfeited by the purchaser if he fails to carry out the purchase on a good title being made under the terms and conditions of the lease on which the property is being offered for sale. The purchaser shall pay a further sum within sixty days after the day of sale to make with the said deposit the sum of thirty per cent. of the purchase price, and the balance of the purchase money in two equal installments of thirty-five per cent of the purchase price, in six and twelve months from the day of sale. All the deferred payments are to bear interest at the rate of seven per cent from the day of sale and to be secured by mortgage on the property sold.

The purchaser shall search the title at his own expense and shall have fifteen days from the day of sale in which to make objections. If no objection be made within that time the purchaser shall be deemed to have then accepted the title. In case the purchaser shall make any objection which the vendors shall be unable or unwilling to answer the vendors may by notice in writing, delivered or mailed to the purchaser or his solicitor, cancel the agreement of sale and return to the purchaser the deposit money without interest, costs, damages, or other compensation.

The Vendors shall not be bound to produce any abstract of title or any deeds or evidences of title other than those in their possession or control.

Taxes, rates, and assessments, if any, including local improvement rates, insurance premiums, and rentals, shall be apportioned to the date of completion of sale.

In all other respects the conditions of sale are the standing conditions of sale of the Court.

Further particulars may be had from A. J. McComber, 415 Whalen Building, Port Arthur, vendors' solicitor.

Dated at Port Arthur this nineteenth day of January, 1922.
HUGH O'LEARY,
Local Master at Port Arthur.

CADILLAC'S 9 BARGAINS

PACKARD TWIN-SIX LIMOUSINE, MODEL 1-25. This Packard car has mounted on it a Kimball custom made limousine body. Is equipped with an excellent set of cord tires, one extra, seat covers, bumper, clock, etc. Also has open touring car body. Has been privately owned and is being turned in to us in very fine condition throughout. If you are looking for a Packard Limousine at 'way below the market price, this car will surely please you. Special for this sale, $500.

BIDDLE TOWN LIMOUSINE. Here is a small, light 4-passenger Town Car that is very desirable for city use or high class taxi work. Equipped with 5 Rudge-Whitworth wire wheels, set of excellent tires, one extra, seat covers, etc. In exceptionally fine mechanical condition. Paint is very good. If you are looking for a small, high grade town car that handles well in congested traffic, this car will surely please you. Special for this sale, $800.

WINTON BROUGHAM, 1920. This is a comfortable 5 passenger short-coupled Sedan and it is coming into our hands in almost new car condition. Painted a special color of dust-proof gray, with velour upholstery to match. Has a bumper front and rear, spare tire, clock, etc. This car will bear most rigid examination and demonstration, in fact, we believe it to be like new. It will pay you to examine this car thoroughly because it not only has the appearance of a new car but the upholstery and paint show practically no wear. We are offering this car at 'way below the market price and this will be your one opportunity to buy a Winton bargain. Special for this sale, $2,800.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 59, LIMOUSINE. We have made an examination of this car and mechanically it will carry our standard warranty. Equipped with a set of Westinghouse shock absorbers, 5 wire wheels, spare tire, cover and bumper. Has 4 new cord tires. If you are looking for a Cadillac Limousine of the late series that has only been slightly used and is being offered at a ridiculously low price, this car will please you. Special for this sale, $3,000.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 59, VICTORIA COUPE. This is one of the popular late series in a roomy 4 passenger coupe and is being offered at way below the market price. This car shows practically no wear, has an excellent set of cord tires that are almost like new, bumper, clock, etc. Mechanically guaranteed by this company. We are making a special price on this car—way below what we have ever offered a similar automobile for. In order to avail yourself of this bargain come down here for a demonstration immediately; you will probably never have another opportunity of buying such a nearly new Cadillac coupe at this price of $2,750.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 59, TOURING CAR. This car is in almost new car condition and is of the late series. We have made an inspection of this car mechanically and it will carry our standard guaranty. Has an excellent set of cord tires, one extra, bumper, clock, etc. If you are looking for a bargain in a slightly used Cadillac car of the late series, this will surely please you. Special for this sale $2,250.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 59, PHAETON. Painted dark Cadillac blue. We have made an examination of this car mechanically and it will carry our standard warranty. Original finish on this car shows practically no wear. This is your opportunity to obtain a Cadillac Sport model of a late series at a bargain price. Has an excellent set of cord tires, one extra, bumper, squeegee, etc. Special for this sale, $2,250.

TEMPLAR 4 PASS. SPORT MODEL. This is a late series Templar that has had but very little use. Equipped with 5 good cord tires, 5 Rudge-Whitworth wire wheels, clock, bumper, etc. Probably one of the classiest sport models. Paint, upholstery, and top in excellent shape. Special for this sale, $1,500.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 57, VICTORIA COUPE. This is a roomy 4 passenger coupe of practically the same type of body as we are delivering new today. This car is coming into our hands from the original purchaser in most remarkable condition. Mechanically it will carry our standard warranty. Has an excellent set of cord tires, one extra bumper, clock, seat covers, etc. Painted a special color of gray. If you are looking for a Cadillac coupe that cannot be classed as the ordinary used car this car will surely please you. Special for this sale, $1,750.

PACKARD

PACKARD TOWN CAR—This is a special car by "Derham," one of America's finest custom body builders. The car has been gone over inside and out, is equipped with new cord tires and carries the same guarantee and service that is extended to new Packard cars. To the man desiring an exclusive car we offer an exceptional bargain at $4,750.

PACKARD TWIN-SIX TOURING. We have overhauled this car both the motor and chassis, and it is in perfect operating condition. The body, top, and upholstery are perfect and the tires nearly new. This is certainly a wonderful value at $1,000.

PACKARD TWIN-SIX COUPE. This is a late model rebuilt and guaranteed chassis, with practically new custom built body, seating 4 passengers. It cannot be distinguished from new in any detail. The body and wheels are painted dark green and the upholstery is imported cloth. The price is low at $4,500.

KISSEL KAR TOURING. This is the latest De Luxe Model and is practically a new car. Equipment includes 2 new spare tires with covers, touring trunks, 6 wire wheels, spotlight, front and rear bumpers, carriage side lamps, etc. Car, of course, is perfect as to paint, upholstery, and mechanical condition. Special at $2,000.

CADILLAC TOURING, TYPE 51. We have just received this car from the original owner, who has kept it up in first class mechanical condition. A new top was installed only last month and the cord tires are exceptionally fine. This is certainly a real value at $350.

FRANKLIN SEDAN, 1920 MODEL. This car came into our hands in exceptionally fine mechanical condition. We have given it a thorough oiling and greasing; repainted the body and chassis, and can assure the purchaser that the car will give him long and continuous satisfaction. Our price is certainly reasonable at $2,000.

CHILDREN HONOR SOLDIER DEAD. Members of the 1922 graduating class of Le Moyne school, 845 Waveland avenue, are shown before the big boulder on which they will place a bronze tablet to direct the observer to fifty-three trees they have planted in honor of the hero dead. The trees were presented to the children by THE TRIBUNE last fall.

MINISTER TO PORTUGAL. Fred Morris Dearing, assistant secretary of state, will be nominated for the place in a few days by the President, it is said.

SMALLEST BUT BEST. Mrs. C. E. Groat of Long Beach, Cal., is the littlest of the woman trapshooters, but she leads them all. At 1,425 registered targets in 1921 she scored .9221.

NAUGHTY! NAUGHTY! The school board says that high school boys and girls who dance as this picture shows are not nice. The board declares there is too much jazz dancing, too much auto riding, and too much cigaret smoking among high school students.

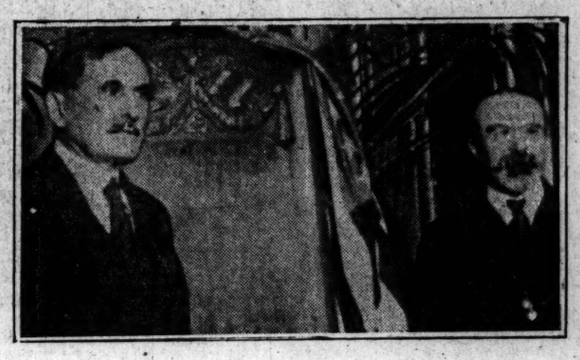

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

AS THEY SHOULD DANCE. Superintendent Peter A. Mortenson, photographed after he personally placed these dancers in what he and the school board consider the proper position. There is, as can be easily noticed, plenty of air space between the young people, no cheek rubbing, and no hugging. Many of the high school boys and girls say "bosh!" to the board's sensational charges.

ARTIST PLAYERS. Helen Jean Brunton, Ralph F. Skelton, and Dorothy Dobson, shown in the picture, are three members of the cast which presented Oscar Wilde's "In a King's Garden" in Miss Anna Morgan's studio in the Fine Arts building yesterday. The play was given under the direction of Miss Lillian Fitch. The Junior Friends of Art were guests.

FRANCE HONORS U. S. VOLUNTEERS. U. S. Ambassador Herrick and M. Barthou, former French minister of war, at the recent unveiling of the memorial tablet, in the American library, to Americans who enlisted in the French army before the United States entered the war.

OF THE TWO, WHICH? On the left is the "nice little girl," who has her schoolbook right with her and studies every chance she gets. On the right is the—well, she uses rouge and powder, which the school board doesn't like. Which one will attract the most attention from the boys in the school?

SHORTEST NAME in the world is claimed by this man. He is Mr. O of Evanston. Mail addressed to "O" reaches him, and checks signed "O" are honored.

CHICAGO COUNTESS. Sailing on the S. S. Presidente Wilson Tuesday for a visit in Jugo-Slavia were the Countess Elizabeth Bopp von Oberstadt, formerly Miss Elizabeth Schoenhofen of this city, and her daughter, Countess Julia. Count von Oberstadt, who formerly was one of the officials of the Schoenhofen company here, is with them.

GOES TO VOTE FOR POPE. Cardinal O'Connell of Boston boarding the S. S. Presidente Wilson in Brooklyn to sail for Rome and the conclave which will choose a new occupant for the vacant throne in the Vatican. Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia will start for Rome in a few days. Both of these American cardinals are regarded as possible candidates for the papacy.

REFUSED A DIVORCE. Claude M. Owens, president of the Etching Company of America, and his wife, Mrs. Clara Owens, photographed in Judge Sabath's court yesterday while their charges against each other were being aired. Each wanted a divorce. He alleged lingerie intimacies with another man. She retaliated with charges of "boulevard vamp" activities on his part. A jury heard their stories, then decided neither one was guilty and refused the divorce.

$1,500,000 CAR BARN FIRE. Eighty street cars were destroyed early yesterday when the rear part of Devon avenue car barns was destroyed by flames. Thirty-five families were driven from their homes and sparks endangered many houses. The burned structure was 250 feet wide and 1,200 feet deep. Crossed electric wires are blamed for the fire. Workmen began clearing away the debris while smoke was still curling from the ruins.

POGO ON BOUL MICH. The people of Europe who bounce madly about on pogo sticks have nothing on these Chicagoans, seen taking an early morning pogo "stroll" on the boulevard and apparently enjoying it. They are, left to right, A. H. Erskine, Miss Gertrude Fiske, and J. Behrens. "Best exercise in the world," they say. It ought to be good for the digestion.
